SUPPORT FOR NEW NORMAL SCHOOL IS PLEDGED (Continued from Page One)

The following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, the Oregon State Normal School, located at Ashland, Oregon, after a long and eventful history of 26 years, ceased to function in June, 1909, because of a change of policy of the state of Oregon towards its Normal Schools; and

WHEREAS, after a period of nineteen years the State of Oregon in its wisdom has seen fit to rehabilitate that institution and is erecting large and ample buildings on grounds in the City of Ashland, near the site of the historic institution, providing liberally for buildings and maintenance and apparently establishing the same on a firm and enduring basis; and

WHEREAS, on this very day the new institution is celebrating its formal opening; and

WHEREAS, there are scores of graduates and other former students of the Ashland Normal School living in various parts of the Northwest who still entertain a kindly interest in and have full regard for the institution that lived and flourished in former days; and

WHEREAS, a goodly number of these are assembled in a reunion here in Peninsula Park within the city of Portland, Oregon, at the very moments when the building for the new institution are nearing completion, and after it has been announced that the same will be open for work during the approaching September, now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE, as alumni and students of the Ashland Normal School, rejoice in this resurrection into new life of that institution we had learned to love and had longed to see perpetuated.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE, as alumni and students of the Ashland Normal School, pledge our allegiance to the institution and our readiness at all times as citizens to do what lies within our power to advance Normal School interests in the state including those of Southern Oregon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we desire that former graduates and students of the Normal School may be deemed and considered as of the institution which we take it, has not been so much created anew as revived phoenix-like from the ruins of the old.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we offer ourselves and all that we are, and all that we may be able to do and achieve, to the new institution for its support and to assist it in its present efforts and aspirations, the same as though the life of the school had been continuous down to and including the present hour.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we congratulate the people of Ashland and President J. A. Churchill, now in charge, upon this auspicious hour that sees the Ashland Normal School established permanently; and we congratulate them upon the great opportunity that comes to the community and to the faculty of that institution to build a splendid monument to Education in the great state of Oregon.

Dated at Portland, Oregon, this 21 day of June, 1926.

This message is stirring the world as never before since the days of the Apostles. Everybody invited to this fellowship and service. Multitudes of people everywhere are answering the call of God back to the Bible and the gospel of his Son.
