Visiting in Ashland
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGee and family of Seattle stopped in Ashland on their return home after making a tour of the south. Mr. McGee is a retired business man of Seattle. They were guests of the Hotel Ashland.

SOCIETY

As President of the Seaside Women's club, Mrs. R. W. Logan has done some noteworthy work. She was chosen auditor of the federation.

The new directors are both prominent in their own communities. Mrs. E. O. Blanchard is president of the Hood River Women's Club, one of the large, influential clubs of the state. Mrs. Elizabeth McNary Albert of Salem has served the federation for the past three years as director.

Portland club women are gratified that Mrs. George Root has been appointed by Mrs. Frankel as corresponding secretary. Mrs. Root is just retiring as president of the Coterie. For the past year she has been chairman of the American home department of the Portland Federation of Women's Organizations.

To Mrs. Ads B. Millican, chairman of the Indian welfare division of the public welfare department, who fell in the hotel at Portland while enroute to the convention from Eugene, sustaining a broken arm, and to Mrs. Alexander Thompson, chairman of the legislative department who is ill, messages of regret were dispatched from the convention.

Normal Notes

Mrs. Lillian E. Allen of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rose from Roseburg, and Mrs. M. Wise of Grants Pass are pleasantly domiciled at the home of Mrs. R. C. Jorgensen. They are here to attend the summer session of the Normal School.

At Mrs. Fearing's—Mrs. Myrtle Nelson and Miss Katherine Jacoby of Roseburg will make their home with Mrs. Jessie Fearing for the next few weeks.

To Enter School—Miss Patricia Gale of Grants Pass, expected to enter school at this time, but was unable to attend on account of the illness of her mother. She expects to matriculate later.

Of Interest to Many

Miss Eva White who has charge of the primary at Lincoln School, is a sister of C. A. White of the Ellison-White Chautauque Bureau.

As Mrs. Chanciere—Miss Ina Farnsworth of Roseburg, Miss Ruth Radley of Looking Glass, Miss Georgia Packard of Marshfield are established at Mrs. Chanciere's on Roca Street.

Portland Teachers Here—Miss Myrtle Chamberlain, and Miss May Aitkin, Portland teachers are at home with the O. F. Carson family on Iowa street.

In Practice School—Little Helen Margaret, niece of Miss Leona Marsters, member of the Normal faculty is with Miss Marsters to attend the summer practice school.

Former Ashland Teacher Here—Miss Lyle Gregory, who was a successful teacher in the Ashland schools but who now is a member of Medford's teaching force, with Miss Geneva Hurt, have an apartment to the John B. Hair home on Liberty street.

Note

These columns welcome all news of Normal students or faculty, where they will make their homes during the term, social doings, or entertainments. Anything of interest to the readers that transpires at the school will be given place, and the cooperation of those in a position to know, is asked that these notes may be made a permanent feature.

Announcement was made at the dedication banquet Saturday night that it was the plan to arrange a trip to Crater Lake for the Normal students. That will be one of a number of happy happenings, in store, no doubt, for those who attend the school.

The last meeting of the year of the Elks Ladies' Card Club was held in the pleasant club room Thursday afternoon. A number of tables were played and the interest displayed in the games was gratifying to the hostesses.

Mrs. George Rose was awarded honors in bridge, with the highest score in five hundred being made by an out of town visitor.

Mrs. E. V. Carter and Mrs. T. H. Simpson were hostesses for the afternoon and served delicious refreshments.

The club will reconvene in October.

Editor Goes to Europe—Miss Vella Winner, who has so ably edited the Federation News for the past two years, left immediately after the meeting at La Grande for California, and on to the national convention at Atlantic City, where she represented the Oregon federation.

Miss Winner will leave in a few days for a year's rest and recreation in Europe.

Note: Many of the officers mentioned have visited Ashland at different times.

Mrs. Wells was a house guest of Mrs. Grace E. Andrews in April and attended a reception at the Civic Club given by the D. A. R. and Civic Club for Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, newly elected State Regent.

Attractive Reception Friday

Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg and Miss Genevieve Swedenburg were hostesses at one of the most attractive functions of the season, Friday, June the twenty-fifth, the receiving hours from two-thirty to five o'clock.

During those hours, friends, to the number of three hundred called, glad for the opportunity to greet the hostesses, and offer felicitations to Miss Genevieve Swedenburg upon this auspicious occasion—that of her debut, and also upon the return of both young daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Swedenburg from their two years' sojourn abroad.

The spacious rooms of this delightfully hospitable home were lovely indeed. Old fashioned flowers—quaint hollyhocks, in glowing colors, masses of dainty roseate hued beauties were disposed effectively about the rooms and in the dining room, as a centerpiece at the exquisitely appointed table, was a great bowl filled with an Oriental bouquet, which harmonized with the pretty gowns, in pastel shades, worn by the bevy of young girls who assisted there.

As guests entered, they were met by Mrs. O. A. Paulsen and Mrs. John Enders.

Mrs. A. H. Daveshill, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson and Mrs. Stanky Robinson assisted about the rooms and Mrs. A. H. Pracht, with Mrs. Dominic Provost, Mrs. Charles Rush, a recent bride, the Misses Lucile and Thelma Perosi, Miss Marion Leach and Miss Edith Dodge dispensed hospitality in the dining room.

To the brilliant scene, in its harmonious setting and its hum of happy voices, was added the note of color in the lovely gowns of guests and hostesses: Mrs. Swedenburg wearing a soft white crepe over pink, Miss Swedenburg, a dainty green georgette with a touch of coral and Miss Eleanor Swedenburg who received with her mother and sister, in soft silk on gown of red with white used in garniture.

Miss Genevieve Swedenburg, for whose coming out the delightful reception was given, has with her sister, Miss Eleanor Swedenburg, but recently returned from two years spent in study abroad, having been in school at Tyinge, Helsenston, near Gothenburg.

Miss Swedenburg expects to enter Berkeley, to major in languages. She will leave in August for that university.

This afternoon, as at other times, guests lingered much longer than for the conventional greeting for here the friendly touch is a part of gracious hospitality.

Pleasant Plans for Vacation

Pleasant plans are being made for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wilks, who will be the house guests of Mrs. Wilks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brown, of Holly street, and of Mrs. Wilks' sister, Mrs. W. C. Polk, of Gresham street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilks arrived Saturday, and Diamond Lake and the Klamath lakes will be their objective, in fishing trips. Other points of interest are planned for vacationing.

Grain harvest in Wasco and Hood River counties will be three weeks early.

Visiting Brown Family

Miss Grace Brown of South Fork, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Perkins of Los Angeles, California, are visiting in Ashland with Ralph Brown and family on Laurel street. Miss Bowen and Mrs. Perkins are sisters of Mr. Bowen.

Think of the confusion—

if advertised products followed this Soviet Law

Recently the Soviet Government passed a law that anyone over 21 could change his name as often as he pleased. Old friends you have known for years as Smith, Brown and Green, might be called Orloski, Potoski and Obovitch overnight.

Think of the confusion!

Even suppose your favorite foods, drug sundries, furniture, automobiles and phonographs suddenly had their names changed! Would you not feel almost a stranger in a grocery, drug or dry-goods store that was stripped of the familiar faces of advertised products?

—Like an old friends — you have confidence in the trustworthiness of an advertised product. Years of frank publicity have made its name a synonym for full value. You and thousands of other people are proving this value every day.

The well-known names of advertised products are your best guide to wise purchases. Read the advertisements to see when and where to get them.

To know what is advertised is to know what is best in the market place
