ANTI-TETANIC SERUM TO PREVENT LOCKJAW CASES

BY RICHARD H. STREET, M. D., Member Gorgas Memorial Institute. (Written for the United Press) CHICAGO, June 29.—(UP)—Fourth of July, lockjaw, and death! How often the three occur in the same sentence in the newspapers describing a sad aftermath of this early summer celebration. Not only is it sad for a person to die of lockjaw, but it is sad to realize that death could have been prevented had a physician been consulted in time. Despite the campaign for a sane and safe Fourth, the holiday brings in its train accidental gun shot wounds, wounds caused by the explosions of cannon crackers which someone supposed had gone out. So beware on the Fourth of July! Beware that you do not injure yourself or your neighbor. And, if the unexpected does happen, as often it does on the Fourth of July, take no chances with this horrible way of passing over the great divide. Report immediately to your family doctor for the anti-tetanic serum, or shots which will prevent the occurrence of lockjaw. The germs of lockjaw, known as tetanus bacilli, are found in the soil, almost everywhere. That's why it is so ear y for these germs to enter your body should it be torn by a violent explosion. People whose duties require their presence in the country most of the time, are susceptible to the disease after injury because the germs are so widely distributed. This is true especially of farmers, who like soldiers in front line trenches, are confronted with the chance of acquiring the disease easily. But scientific medicine has found a means of protecting you from death by lockjaw. It has produced a serum which counteracts the poison, which the tetanus germs causes to be produced within the body. Twitching of the muscles may be the nearest approach to lockjaw upon administration of the protective serum. Otherwise there would be, in the beginning, cramps in the muscles of the neck and difficulty in moving the jaws in eating or talking. The condition would increase and spasms follow. Then death, a welcome relief. Anti-tetanic serum prevents lockjaw, but nevertheless the best preventive is to avoid accidents during the coming holiday. Should one occur and the flesh be badly lacerated insist that the proper dosage of serum be administered.
