

SOCIETY'S NOTES

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Editor

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, July 6 — Civic Club Meets, Civic Club House. Business meeting and social afternoon. Strangers especially invited.

Thursday, July 8 — Floral Society, Public Library, 8:00 P. M. All members urged to be present. Those interested invited. Will consider coming flowers they.

Friday, July 9 — Emma Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, Miss Mollie Senger, 25 Highland Street, hostess. A large attendance desired.

Friday, July 9 — Ladies Aid, Presbyterian church, afternoon.

Friday, July 9, P. N. G. Club, Picnic grounds, 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Mrs. Edna Story and Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, hostesses.

Entertained, Camping — Mrs. F. W. Kant, from San Francisco left Saturday for her home in this city.

She has been the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Putnam of Vista street for the past few days and during that time there was a number of delightful picnics in which the family and friends were guests. A watermelon party was another form festivities took.

However, the greater part of the time was spent in a happy little camping out party at Mill creek, which was a real treat and a profitable change for Mrs. Kant.

The entire fortnight was planned for her pleasure and she returned to her home rested and happy over the home visit.

Entertained by Elsie — The Mrs. and Mrs. Pettis formerly of Wallowa, but now of Klamath Falls entertained the Rev. and Mrs. John Leggett and small son Monday the Fourth.

The Leggett family drove over to Klamath Falls in the morning for church and the two families spent the day together, with a picnic dinner a pleasant feature.

Reunion at the E. E. Miller Home — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland are guests at the home of Mrs. Gowland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller on Church street.

They came over on Thursday for a visit with home folks and incidentally to enjoy the Fourth of July reunion at home, when they were gathered under the parental roof all relatives in Ashland.

On this occasion Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gowland and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller composed the group assembled to enjoy the delightful dinner and the day together.

Dr. A. R. Year Books — On Wednesday of last week the committee appointed to prepare the year books met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Galey to complete the work begun at a previous meeting.

Mrs. Harriet Fielding, Regent of the Chapter, met with them. The lists of hostesses are designated and subjects assigned.

A splendid program is prepared for the year's study which will be announced when the year books are printed.

Interesting Report — Eighteenth Biennial Convention — The 18th biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was held at Atlantic City, N. J., May 24 to June 5. Between 15,000 and 20,000 women from every state in the union and from half a dozen foreign countries attended.

State federations of women's clubs of New Jersey and Pennsylvania served as joint hostesses. Mrs. John D. Sherman of Estes Park, Colo., and Washington, D. C., presided. Rep. Thomas A. Edison and wife of the governor of the hostess states were guests of honor.

Many prominent speakers were on the program, also unique entertainment features. Citizenship lessons in all its phases, legislative tion, foreign relations and the arts each were discussed. Among the speakers were Miss Grace Abbott, director of the U. S. children's bureau, The Princess Gantacuzane, granddaughter of President Grant and wife of a Russian prince, Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Rufus Dawes, Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor and Gifford Pinchot, governor of Pennsylvania.

A unique feature was the bringing together of six of America's women composers, Gena Brancome, Fay Foster, Harriet Ware, Meta Schuman, Floy Bartlett and Louise Ayres Garnett. From the Federation News.

The woman's home missionary society meets — The woman's home missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet Friday, July 9, at 8:00 p. m., with Miss Mollie Senger, No. 45, Helman street.

The society will dispense with the regular work, and instead, the study hour will be spent in listening to "Echoes from Salem."

Those who were delegates at the conference at Salem will be present to give enthusiastic reports of the meeting and a large attendance is desired.

Floral Society Meets — The Floral Society will meet at the Public Library, on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The date is changed for obvious reasons.

Formulation of further plans for the coming Flower Show is the principal reason for the session.

Successful Flower Mission Meeting — The Flower Mission meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Fraley Tuesday last was a very successful one, with a goodly number present to enjoy the splendid reports and the social hour which followed.

At the opening business meeting Mrs. Wm. Davis presided. There were Scripture verses read appropriate to the subject and Mrs. C. W. Fraley read a fine report of the work done by the organization during the year in the Flower Mission Department, of which she is Superintendent.

Among the many thoughtful things done were bouquets sent to every patient at the hospital, a number of times this evening, and extra flowers for other rooms. Cards, telling from where the flowers came, were attached.

After the program and business hour, a social time was enjoyed by those present. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Fraley was assisted by Miss May Benedict.

Spent Fourth at Crater Lake — A trip to Crater Lake was a pleasant feature of the entertainment of week end guests of Mrs. Ernest Hicks.

Saturday evening Miss Ernestine Hicks, with friends from Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Gilbert's mother, arrived for a few day's visit.

The guests with Mrs. Hicks spent Sunday the fourth very delightfully at Crater Lake, which was the first visit of the Gilbert's at that scenic wonder.

Yesterday the celebration was rounded out at Ashland's celebration, which the visitors enjoyed very much. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert were delighted with the flowers, fruit and scenery of Ashland.

They left this morning for their home in Coquille.

Education Notes — Excerpts from Mrs. Seldie Gaudin's address, which gives interesting information to club women:

"The most important step toward becoming active units in the great national club movement was our vote to adopt universal membership, whereby each clubwoman becomes a direct member of the state and general federation. We are one of 26 states now holding universal membership. The launching of our own publication, the Federation News, thereby placing the communication from all departments into the hands of the individual clubwoman, is our second achievement.

"We have 5500 subscribers and 80 of our clubs are 100 per cent subscribers. We initiated the club institute and, in addition to several institutes held on club technique in different parts of the state, the departments of public welfare, press and publicity, Americanization, fine arts, child welfare and life American home have held institutes in Portland. The institutes are aimed to train clubwomen for their work.

"At the Marshall convention last year, the federation voted a $20,000 endowment for a free bed in the Doernbecher hospital for children. Our first year's contribution to this fund is approximately $5000. The honor score card on which clubs will be credited for participation in federation projects will be used for the first time this year, and promises to be a stimulating feature of club work in the future.

"Thirty-eight new clubs have affiliated with the federation in the past three years, making a total membership of 174. The scholarship loan fund has grown to nearly $50,000. During the past three years contributions aggregating $8500 have been made.

"The endowment fund from which only the interest is used to finance the work of the federation now totals $2689.

Floral Society — On Thursday evening, last, the pupils of Miss Imogene Wallace appeared in recital at Presbyterian church at 7:45 o'clock.

Beautiful bouquets of flowers, in vase and basket gave festive air and the room was filled with a large and interested audience; parents and friends of those who appeared on the program.

A table at the back of the room was laden with the beautiful floral offerings for pupils and teachers that thoughtful friends had brought as a slight indication of the deep interest felt in the splendid program offered marking the progress of the pupils.

The program as appears below will give the readers the names of the pupils who took part, the selection played and its composer.

Throughout the evening, the pupils played entirely from memory in their individual selections; in duet and in the two- piano selection the music was before the pupil.

Pleasing selection, from good composer and played with excellent tempo, rhythm and expression from the beginning pupil to the one more advanced marked the numbers. The memorization of selection and technique displayed in execution were outstanding noteworthy qualities in the work of the class.

The program as given will be of interest:

Haydn — Air, Esther Carter and Helen Smith.

Richter — The Cuckoo, Eleanor Masters.

Brazil — Gavotte; Hudson — March, Frances Eastburn.

Kohler — Maypole Dance, Williams — Lullaby; Guritt — At The Ball, Alice Coggins.

Bilbro — A Ballad; Bilbro — Village Dance, Helen Smith.

Bilbro — Goodnight Song; Bilbro — Indians, Esther Carter.

Kargnoff — Grandfather's Dance, Helen Harris.

Schumann — The Happy Farmer; Bellini — March from Norma, Vera Grace Flummer.

Bargmann — Ballad in C minor; Kossling, Flying Leaves, Sylvia Proves.

Weidig — Intermezzo; Schubert — Valse in a minor, Mary Elizabeth Dean.

Handel — Italian Courante, (Dance); Bach — Bourée (Dance); Tchaikowsky — The Skaters, Louise Moor.

Clement — Riel — Sonata for two pianos, Allegro, Andante, Vivaldi — Mary Elizabeth Dean and Imogene Wallace.

Mozart — Allegretto (From Sonata in F); Louise Wright — Venetian Serenade, Louise Prosser.

James Rogers — Alpine Song, Sylvia Prosser and Louise Moor. Schumann — Spring Song, Greg — Folk Dance, Marjorie Lear. Schmitt — Moment Musical No. 3; Moszkowski — Serenade Louise Anderson.

Bach — March in E Flat; Schuyler — Schuyler in E Flat, Jane Alkila.

Greg — Cradle Song; Greg — Norwegian Dance, Bernice Lear. Delahay — Minuet, Louise Anderson and Louise Brommer.

Haydn — Scherzando (from Sonata in C sharp minor); Paderewski — Cracovienne Fantastique, ing patriotic songs.

The parade, which got underway promptly at 11 o'clock yesterday morning was in every way up to Ashland's previously established standards. Led by Fred C. Homes as grand marshal, the line of march swung into north Main and out east Main and the Boulevard to Marion, where it retraced its steps back to the Plaza where it disbanded. The streets were lined with cars and the cheering with spectators who cheered the marchers throughout the long line.

Music was furnished by the Ashland municipal band and the Crater Lake temple B. O. K. band. For the most part floats were a riot of colors, both with patriotic colors and greenery.

Prize Winners — For the best float of a business establishment the Endors company was awarded first prize, with E. R. Isaac and company, winner of second prize.

For civic organizations, the judges gave first prize to the American Legion and second prize to the University of Oregon. Honorable mention was accorded the R. N. A., I. O. O. F. and the Kiwanis floats.

The Scholastic children won the prize for the best comic appearance in the parade. In the children's division, Mary Foley won first prize, while second prize was divided between June Wolcott and Lorraine Smith.

Additional Prizes — The judges recommended that prize money not awarded in some of the divisions be given to the Camp Fire Girls, Christian Sunday school, Sunset Sunday school and the Upper Valley Community club, the latter being the only outside organization represented.

The ball game at Jackson Hot Springs during the afternoon drew nearly a thousand pleasure seekers, while the band competitions in the open air pavilion and other features drew their quota at Lathia Park during the afternoon and evening.

All in all, it was a typical Ashland Fourth of July celebration, with an estimated crowd of close to 10,000 people in the park last night for the final display of fireworks. Guy Good had charge of the pyrotechnic celebration and handled the difficult task in an efficient manner.

Judges for the parade were: J. W. McCoy, Mrs. A. H. Fracht, and A. C. Strange.

ASHLAND NOW IN THE WESTERN FEDERATION (Continued From Page One) be settled at Klamath Falls Monday when Ashland made the playoffs on the Klamath field. Ashland wins and Grand Pass comes out of its slump and scores a victory over Medford, the locals will be tied with the Bear Flyers for top position in the league.

Ashland's ball club was decidedly off color yesterday and Monday played away with a lusterless banner. The crowd at the Jackson Hot Springs park. Sunny Mebler, Ashland's southpaw ace, started on the mound for the locals but could not get full steam. Four support added to his downfall and he walked in the sixth in favor of Henry Davis, who twirled the remainder of the game for the locals.

Mr. Shasta has not lost a game this year in the Northern California league, and their bespectacled portside hurler had the Ashland batsmen at his mercy throughout the game. Wildness in one inning and poor support in the sixth gave Ashland its six scores.

The locals scored but four hits, two of them by Mebler and one each by Morgan and Filletti. Morgan knocked one across the wire entanglements in right field for a home run clout in the ninth.

After their hard game Sunday in which they smothered the Grants Pass team, the locals were off their lead and played a listless game except in spots when they showed their usual power. Some of the home team players were inclined to remember that they had a game against an outside team which will not count against them in the league standings.

With the hot wind off their system the boys will not get down to hard work to take Klamath Falls into camp at Klamath next Sunday.
