Birthdays.
"On Wednesday, June 30, a very pretty birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. E. G. Wolcott on Third St. in honor of Elizabeth Wolcott and Lorraine Smith.
These little misses have always celebrated together and this, their 12th birthday, was no exception to the rule. After attending the matinee dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. E. G. Wolcott and Mrs. Mark Smith.
Those present were: Helen Harris, Iris Attebury, Patricia Hastings, Audrey Dodge, Cecelia Swenson, Rosa Franco, Juanita Fisherson, Lea DeFaus, Marjorie Hower, Elizabeth Joy, Hazel Hudson, Pauline Ward, Virginia Cranford, Lorraine Smith, Edna Felton, Elizabeth Wolcott, Ina Crowson, Ardis DeArmond, Lois Taylor."

Large Party.
A number of families gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, on the corner of Pine and Baum streets and enjoyed a delightful dinner on the beautifully kept lawn the evening of the fifth.
After a day of excitement it was a very restful experience and a most satisfactory one as well to gather, relatives and friends, to enjoy the picnic supper together.
Those participating were the members of the Graham, Wright and Montgomery families.

Madison Lake Trip.
The members of the Maddon and Young families left Ashland the latter part of last week for a few days' outing, largely spent at Madison Lake fishing and picnicking.
Part of the wonderful trip was in the scenic route to add to their destination, and the party enjoyed a journey planned to see as much as possible both ways and coming.
Miss Mitchell to visit—
Miss Hattie Mitchell, who is a missionary in central Africa, is expected to visit her relatives, the Foley families, this week.
The members of the Mitchell family were former residents of Ashland and Miss Mitchell's visit is a matter of pleasant anticipation to many friends who hope to see her during her stay.
There will be a number of family gatherings, honoring her, while she is here. It will be remembered that there was a family dinner at the holiday season, when the Foley clan gathered to her, upon her return from Africa. She is at home on leave from her missionary work.

Family Gatherings.
Mrs. Charles Foley and little daughter, Eleanor, were guests at the home of Mrs. Edna Story and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foley for the past few days.
Part of it is, that they are all true and so very worthwhile.

A New Song.
A new song, recently published, entitled "What If Our Dreams Came True," was written by R. P. Campbell, the music composed by Adel Anderson Woods (Mrs. E. A. Woods) and the song is dedicated to one of the most gracious singers that Ashland ever knew, Mrs. Clara Loosley Nell, who sang the song when it was first written, at an afternoon devoted to Oregon music. Never could the song be sung more feelingly than on that occasion.
The poem is found in a collection of the writer's, from which a number were read at the delightful entertainment given a few days ago under the auspices of the Epworth League.
"Heart of the West," the little volume is entitled and is a collection of perhaps seventy poems, a few of which have been published in a former volume, but the great majority are new.
Like the older volumes, they vary from light to serious, grave to gay, with the humorous vein apparent in most of them. Homely scenes and every day situations are chosen in many, and the quaint philosophy that runs through like a secret thread makes them a delight.
There are those of tender measure, like the one set to music; poems that one will reread many times.
A few, as the "Heart of Wine," "Risky Ann," "The Legend of Pocatello," deals with legend or historic fact and one "Oregon's Marble Hall" pictures one of the scenic wonders just next door.
Altogether the little volume will be well worth perusal in the leisure hour and its appearance adds to the laurels that Ashland folks have won in music, art, poetry and in various other lines of endeavor.

P. N. G. Club Meets.
Friday, July 9, is the date set for the meeting of the Past Noble Grands' Club, with Mrs. Edna Story and Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, hostesses for the afternoon.
It is hoped that all the members may plan to be there from two until five, the hours named for the afternoon.
Many clubs now are holding their closing meetings for the summer in the park, adding the pleasant picnic feature.
Camp Fire Girls Gather in Park.
Lithia Park was the scene of a merry gathering of a group of Camp Fire Girls, with their guardian, Miss Lollita Pierson, Tuesday afternoon.
With the fun, was a serious note, for the avowed purpose of the meeting was to enable two of their number, the Misses Lucile Carson and Irwanda Bateman to advance from the rank of wood gatherer to that of firemaker.
The deed to be accomplished at this time was to cook and serve a dinner to the assembled company. Hearty encounters were bestowed upon the young girls for the successful repast served.
Every one there did full justice to the appetizing viands, and to these girls was given their hearts' desire.
Those present for the jolly afternoon of fun were the Misses Ellen Galey, Lydia Smith, Jane Pollard, Louise Hanson, Norma Brewer, the two candidates for culinary honors, the Misses Irwanda Bateman and Lucile Carson, and their guardian, Miss Lollita Pierson.

Mrs. Foley arrived Sunday morning, visiting Mrs. Josephine Foley and daughter, Miss Minnie Foley.
There was a family gathering there the fifth when Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Foley and daughter, Mary, were guests. On Tuesday, Mrs. Chas. Foley and daughter, Eleanor, were guests of honor at another family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Foley.

The out of town guests enjoyed the celebration with their hosts and hostesses.
The latter part of the week Mrs. J. L. Kronenburg and George Kronenburg with a niece, Little Ann Ottile Parker, is expected as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Foley. Ann Ottile will spend the summer with Mrs. Foley.
A part of the pleasure planned are the weeks to be spent at the Foley cottage at Lake of the Woods.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Outing.
One of the happy plans for a number of Camp Fire Girls from the High School groups is a six days' outing at the Lake of the Woods, at which there will be present eleven of the girls and two chaperons. It is expected that some of the other girls of these groups will be able to visit them while they are in camp.
Mrs. W. C. Bartlett and Miss Lollita Pierson are the chaperons, Miss Pierson being the guardian as well.

The girls left Wednesday morning for the Lake of the Woods and no group going expects to have a happier time than do these merry hearted girls.
Home Missionary Society Meets.
Miss Mollie Songer, 45 Holman street, is hostess tomorrow, entertaining the members and friends of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church. Instead of the regular study, it is planned to hear from the ladies who went to Salem as delegates at the recent missionary conference of that church.
The subject is "Echoes from Salem" and those going will be well paid for their attendance, in the inspiring messages brought from the field.

Federal Society, Tonight.
Attention is again called to a meeting of the Federal Society, which convenes this evening.
It is hoped that there will be a large attendance for the subject under discussion will be the contemplated Flower Show and further plans are to be formulated.
Every one interested is reminded to be there.

Woman's Picnic.
Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair were host and hostesses at a delightful picnic gathering, Monday, with nineteen seated at the tables which groaned with their burden of good things.
Instead of having the picnic in the Park as might have been done at another time, it was arranged to have it on the lawn in the pleasant grounds of the McNair home.
Here tables were spread, the delightful repast brought out and friends and relatives showed their appreciation by doing full justice to the feast.
Those who enjoyed with host and hostess the gathering that marked the day so happily were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair, and Jamie, Mrs. Gertrude Fraley and children, Miss Thelma Reese, of Bandon, Mrs. Morrison Eastman and Mrs. Louise Marshall of Whitaker, Mr. Muntzell an out of town guest of the family, W. P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Clarence Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. and family.
The jollity and fun which prevailed was no small part of the affair and guests lingered long at the hospitable board.

Another Family Gathering.
Another happy picnic dinner occurred at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Peil on Granite street, when host and hostess with their guests enjoyed a five-o'clock dinner not on the lawn but on the wide porch, getting the benefit of the cool breeze thereby, and also the picnic atmosphere.

Family Gatherings.
Mrs. Charles Foley and little daughter, Eleanor, were guests at the home of Mrs. Edna Story and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foley for the past few days.

and reviews were given by the King's Herald, a member of the Sunday School of the church.
These numbers were much appreciated by all who had the pleasure of hearing them, and the society was gratified to see the help of the members in making the afternoon's program so successful.

A Restful Vacation.
It will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Wilma MacKenzie, one of Ashland's efficient teaching force last year, to know that she is quietly resting with her mother at the home of a sister at Selma, Ore., where another sister from Crescent City has been visiting them.
Later in the summer they will visit relatives on their way to The Dalles, Oregon, where Miss MacKenzie will teach the coming winter. Miss MacKenzie was offered a position in both Grants Pass and in Marshfield but chose the northern city.

Civic Club Meeting.
Tuesday's meeting of the Woman's Civic Improvement Club marked its first session during the vacation time.
Considering the fact that the celebration had absorbed the energies of Ashland for two days, there was a fair number present.
It has been decided to hold club meetings as usual during the summer. That is, on each first and third Tuesday of each month there will be a regular session, with hostesses present for the social hour and to receive guests. It is confidently expected that the membership will make a great effort to be present at these meetings.

There was a short business session Tuesday, and the usual social hour.
For the next meeting which will be the 20th of July, Mrs. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken will be the hostesses and it is the earnest request of the Board that as many of the members attend as can do so.
Visitors in the city cordially welcomed.

Missionary Society Meets.
A splendid meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Tilton, Friday last.
There was a large attendance present both of this society and from the younger organization, the King's Herald.
Devotional were led by Mrs. J. R. McCracken of Valley View, after which a short business session was held, conducted by Mrs. C. E. Pratt.
When this closed, Mrs. C. E. Tilton took charge of the program, during the course of which a number of very interesting readings

WOMEN
At last a "different" Oxford—embodies all the good features of the standard orthodox shoe, plus many more.
The picture above indicates how YOU can regulate the pressure of the band for true comfort. The picture below shows the band (invisible), which is adjusted by the special lacing arrangement seen in the first illustration.
The BAND-GRIP looks like a standard Oxford, but it supports the ENTIRE FOOT as does no other shoe.
