

A Page of Special Interest to Women

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Grace H. Andrews, Editor

Thursday, July 11.—Baby Clinic Civic Club House. Dr. V. S. Geary, nurse and attendants present.

Thursday, July 11.—Band Concert, Lithia Park. P. M. Special numbers.

Thursday, July 11.—Assembly, Normal School. Member Brener, Art teacher, Santa Maria, California, will address the student body on Art. Mr. Brener is attending the Ashland School of Art.

Friday, July 12.—Fraternal Brotherhood meets at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanson, Lithia. All members invited to be present. Social hour follows business meeting.

Friday, July 12.—Devotional Service at Normal School, led by the Rev. H. T. Pemberton.

Monday, July 15.—Neighbors of Woodcraft, I. O. O. F. Hall. Usual hour.

Tuesday, July 23.—Civic Club Meets 2:30 p. m., Mrs. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. Gordon.

MacCracken, hostesses. Strangers welcome.

Tuesday, July 23.—Crater Lake Trip for Normal Faculty and students. Normal lunch.

Wednesday, July 24.—Song Service, Normal, conducted by Miss Leona Marsters, head of Music Department of Normal.

Wednesday, July 24.—Missionary Society of Presbyterian church meets.

Thursday, July 25.—Band Concert, Lithia Park. 8:00 p. m.

A Family Reunion.—A group of twenty-five, all relatives held a family reunion in Lithia Park Sunday.

They gathered from Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland to enjoy a wonderful dinner together and the delightful visit which followed.

Every good thing necessary for a real feast was there. All did full justice to the delicacies with which the feast board was spread.

At a late hour, the members of the party departed for their different homes, all feeling it was good that they could enjoy the reunion in such a beautiful spot. Below is a list of those present:

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wardrup, Mr. and Mrs. Benford Wardrup, Misses Wanda, Vivian and Honora Wardrup, all of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDevitt and daughters, Avis and Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Crews and daughters, Lucille, Dorothy and Nelda Crews, Mr. Graden Crews, and Wayne Crews of Medford; Mr. S. B. Davis, Mr. G. W. Crews, Miss Helen High, Mrs. W. R. Davis, of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dyer of Medford, Miss Venora Bates, Myrtle Creek.

Entertained at Dinner.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert of Church street, were host and hostess at a pleasant family dinner party, with the members of the Chaney family of Valley View, guests of the occasion, Sunday after church.

The afternoon was spent in the visit of relatives who have not been together for some time for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and family have but recently come to Ashland from Canada and Mr. Herbert has gone into business here, buying the Plummer store on the Plaza.

Civic Club Meets.—Civic Club members are again reminded to attend the meeting Tuesday, July 20, at 2:30 p. m. at the Civic Club house.

At this meeting the regular routine of business is to be taken care of, and the social hour will be stressed in these summer meetings. Mrs. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken are hostesses for the afternoon.

At this meeting, as at all others during the vacation, strangers or guests of members are especially urged to attend, meet the membership, enjoy their companionship and inspect the beautiful club house of which Ashland is justly proud.

Birthdays in Park.—Twenty young friends of Miss Hazel Hudnell were guests at a delightful gathering in Lithia Park, on July 8, in honor of her birthday.

The table, with its beautiful birthday cake and appropriate number of candies, and the delicious viands looked very tempting to the young people, who, after playing a round of merry games, gathered to partake of the delightful refreshments.

Those enjoying the happy gathering were: Hazel Moore, Edith Moore, Dorothy Moore, Gladys Hanson, Mary Foley, Naomi Lindson, Helen Richter, Helen Harris, Lillian Avery, Lorraine Smith, June Wolcott, Iris Atterbury, Audrey Dodge, Hazel Hudnell, Wallace Wolcott, Robert Yoo, Kenneth Hansen, Dwight Hansen, Sherman Northrup, Kenneth Stratton, Mrs. C. H. Northrup of Tule, California, Miss Benjah Hussey, Mrs. H. S. Spartywood of Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. I. H. Avery assisted Mrs. Hudnell as hostesses for the young folks.

Fraternal Brotherhood Meets.—Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanson will be host and hostess at a meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood, Friday evening of this week.

During the vacation period the organization has been entertained at the homes of the members, which is a very pleasant innovation.

Installation of Officers.—At a late meeting, there will be the installation of the newly elected officers.

After the business meeting there will be the social hour, during which the friendly visit, pleasing program and refreshments have each a part, in making for the enjoyment of all.

Refreshments of Ice Cream and wafers were served during the social hour, which was a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Belle Schweitz, District Deputy President, was the installing officer. She was assisted by Mrs. Anna Myer, Deputy Grand Marshal. The installing officers received much praise for the efficient manner in which the work was done.

This organization meets regularly every second and fourth Tuesday of each month. There is no vacation.

Visiting members are heartily welcomed.

From the Oregon Federation News.

MRS. FRANKEL SAYS: Vacation time is here, the clubs have adjourned for the summer but your president is busy. A letter was sent to each club asking for the names of the new officers; this we must have for our new year book; may we have a prompt reply from you. From letters received from many of the committee chairmen and division chairmen, they too are busy formulating their plans for the year's work.

Through the kindness of Vella Winner, who attended the biennial at Atlantic City, many interesting committee reports have been received. Feeling that they would be helpful to our state chairmen, copies have been made and mailed to them. Your president wishes to call your attention to the Chautauque at Gladstone which opens the second week in July. Please make a special effort to attend as our own Sallie Orr-Dunbar is to have charge of the symposium hour each day from two to six Saturday, July 27, is to be Federation day when we will celebrate the birthday of Eva Emery Dye. An interesting program is being arranged. A feature of the afternoon will be a picnic dinner at our own headquarters which has as hostess our efficient chairwoman, Rosina Fouts Evans. Come every one and let us make this one of the best years we have ever had at Chautauque.

MRS. G. J. FRANKEL, President Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

WANT TO PUT YOUR TOWN "ON THE MAP?"

Has your city done something unusual and something good, and would you like to tell the world about it? Here's your opportunity.

Lola Clark Pearson, chairman of the Division of Association in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who has recently been added to the editorial staff of The Woman's Magazine, one of the Copper publications claiming $5,000 rural road, is asking for "stories" of what clubs have really done to make their communities better. I am not interested in titles, but want stories of towns under $5,000 and preferably very small towns.

Make your stories short and snappy. Do not give a history of your club, but get right down to details. Give convincing achievement, have it typewritten, double spaced, and mail direct to Mrs. Pearson, The Household Magazine, Topeka, Kansas.

A CONVENTION

The Pictorial Review and not the Delinquent, as stated in the June issue of the Federation News, is offering the prize to the woman who has accomplished the greatest good for her state.

Will the clubs recommend to the Pictorial Review editors that this prize be given Mrs. E. P. Mossman of LaGrande, state chairman of art?

IMPORTANT

The August issue will be our annual directory. It will contain a message from each of your new department heads, the president's reports as given at the La Grande convention and many other items of interest.

with this issue or if your address has been changed, please notify the business office at once in order that you may not miss this interesting number.

Normal Notes.

Classes are held Saturday of this week, that a full holiday may be taken Tuesday, when all members of the faculty and student body are invited to enjoy the trip to Crater Lake, the guests of the chamber of commerce. Citizens are furnishing the requisite number of automobiles.

Refreshments will be served at the rim of the lake with coffee furnished, but each one lunch will provide the individual luncheon for the picnic to be eaten while there.

Today there is the lecture on Art by Mr. Stanley Brener of the Ashland School of Art at the regular assembly period.

On Friday, the devotional services are led by one of the ministers of the city. Tomorrow the services are conducted by the Rev. H. T. Pemberton, of the Methodist church.

On each Wednesday, there is the song service conducted by Miss Leona Marsters, head of the music department of the Normal school.

When possible there will be special numbers and these will be announced that the public may enjoy them with the students.

For the best interest of school and student, the following rules have been announced by President Churchill for the guidance of those attending Southern Oregon Normal.

All students will be in their rooms at 9:30 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and shall not study later than 10 p. m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, students are to be in their rooms by 10:30 p. m. Automobile rides to neighboring towns are not to be taken except by permission of the Dean of Women.

All interested are invited to the householders meeting at one of the homes where housing plans will be discussed. A report of the same will be made.

Parent-Teacher Notes

PARENT-TEACHER NOTES

September will soon be here, September with its goldenrod, its ripening corn and the children beginning their year of school. Soon thousands of little boys and girls will start to school for the first time. They are entering upon a most important experience. Never again in the lives of most of them will there be such a sudden change; never again will so much be required of them in adjusting themselves to their surroundings.

The average five-year-old lives a most care-free existence. Mother, father and the rest of the family think of him as "just the baby." He is only a playful animal, of whom little is expected and less required. Unless he gets in someone's way, he is pretty much left alone. He is too small to count a great deal in the world of grown-ups. Even in his home he finds that houses are built for adults, with high hooks, high shelves and high tables. He is waited upon when he should be self-reliant, and scolded when he tries to be independent. All too soon he is six years old, of which far too often he is king, with his or more willing slaves, he is suddenly transplanted into the school room. Here he is only one of many. He is supposed to become over night, a responsible individual, an integral part of a community. He must give attention for short periods of time. He must adjust himself to thirty or more other personalities.

What can we, as parents, do to make this adjustment easy and joyful, rather than a hard, painful experience?

For the mother who begins to think of this problem as she busily sews on Jane's first school dress, or Johnny's school shirt, one or two months before the opening of school; it is impossible to accomplish all that might be done. It takes six years full of faithful, prayerful effort and thought to prepare a child properly for school. However, one year, six months, or even one month of preparation is better than none.

Physical Preparation

A man who enters a horse in a race sees to it that the horse is in perfect physical condition. No owner would race a horse suffering from some physical defect.

A beautiful picnic was enjoyed Sunday at Cascade Gorge, by the Misses Anna and Grace Luman, Mr. Harold Carrington and Dr. Philip Cole of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Luman is staying at Cascade Gorge for an outing and the young people spent Sunday with her, with the picnic a happy feature.

A number of interesting experiences added zest to the occasion. Miss Anna remains with her mother, who is there for her health.

School is a long, hard race. If the best race is to be set, the child must be in perfect physical condition.

Don't send a child to school without a thorough physical examination. Has he adenoids? Are his tonsils diseased? If so, he will surely entertain every stray germ. His school life will be a succession of whooping cough, measles, mumps and tonsillitis. A child who cannot breathe properly cannot pay attention, cannot learn readily.

Don't send a child to school who does not habitually get a proper amount of sleep. If you have taken him to the movies at night, allowed him to sit up and entertain your company with his "cute" sayings, or if he refuses to go to bed until mother does, he will be too tired to compete in school with children who have proper sleep habits. YOU may make allowance for his irritability, or his lack of attention. YOU realize that he was up last night. These explanations will not in any way affect his inability to digest his school work. The teacher may think him stupid when he is only sleepy. His parents are the ones who have been stupid in their treatment of him, but the child pays the penalty. He is neither physically nor mentally strong, simply because he does not have enough sleep and probably never has had enough. His whole development has been retarded because it has not been convenient for his parents to see that he goes to bed regularly at an early hour. A child who has been starved for sleep during the pre-school years is laboring under a decided handicap when he enters school. He is often nervous and inattentive. Mother wonders why her John doesn't learn as rapidly as Mary Ann who lives next door. She forgets that Mary Ann's mother has put Mary Ann to bed regularly between six and seven o'clock for six long years. Probably Mary Ann's parents like to go out in the evening. They also enjoy a good time. However, they feel that Mary Ann needs the rest. If their pleasure was bought at the expense of Mary Ann's sleep the price paid would have been far too high.

Don't send a child to school starved for the proper food. The under-nourished child cannot compete with the child who eats plenty of good food at proper times. Many a mentally slow child becomes normal when given the proper food. A child who eats between meals, who re-

(Continued on Page Five)

Beautify your kitchen

Bring in the measurements of your kitchen and let us quote you our low prices for a pair of Nairn Gold Seal Inlaid linoleum in up-to-date, bright-colored patterns that beautify and modernize. Satisfaction guaranteed. Come in today.

J. P. Dodge & Sons

At a late hour, the members of the party departed for their different homes, all feeling it was good that they could enjoy the reunion in such a beautiful spot. Below is a list of those present:

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wardrup, Mr. and Mrs. Benford Wardrup, Misses Wanda, Vivian and Honora Wardrup, all of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDevitt and daughters, Avis and Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Crews and daughters, Lucille, Dorothy and Nelda Crews, Mr. Graden Crews, and Wayne Crews of Medford; Mr. S. B. Davis, Mr. G. W. Crews, Miss Helen High, Mrs. W. R. Davis, of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dyer of Medford, Miss Venora Bates, Myrtle Creek.

Entertained at Dinner.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert of Church street, were host and hostess at a pleasant family dinner party, with the members of the Chaney family of Valley View, guests of the occasion, Sunday after church.

The afternoon was spent in the visit of relatives who have not been together for some time for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and family have but recently come to Ashland from Canada and Mr. Herbert has gone into business here, buying the Plummer store on the Plaza.

Civic Club Meets.—Civic Club members are again reminded to attend the meeting Tuesday, July 20, at 2:30 p. m. at the Civic Club house.

At this meeting the regular routine of business is to be taken

Refreshments of Ice Cream and wafers were served during the social hour, which was a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Belle Schweitz, District Deputy President, was the installing officer. She was assisted by Mrs. Anna Myer, Deputy Grand Marshal. The installing officers received much praise for the efficient manner in which the work was done.

This organization meets regularly every second and fourth Tuesday of each month. There is no vacation.

Visiting members are heartily welcomed.

From the Oregon Federation News.

MRS. FRANKEL SAYS: Vacation time is here, the clubs have adjourned for the summer but your president is busy. A letter was sent to each club asking for the names of the new officers; this we must have for our new year book; may we have a prompt reply from you. From letters received from many of the committee chairmen and division chairmen, they too are busy formulating their plans for the year's work.

Through the kindness of Vella Winner, who attended the biennial at Atlantic City, many interesting committee reports have been received. Feeling that they would be helpful to our state chairmen, copies have been made and mailed to them. Your president wishes to call your attention to the Chautauque at Gladstone which opens the second week in July. Please make a special effort to attend as our own Sallie Orr-Dunbar is to have charge of the symposium hour each day from two to six Saturday, July 27, is to be Federation day when we will celebrate the birthday of Eva Emery Dye. An interesting program is being arranged. A feature of the afternoon will be a picnic dinner at our own headquarters which has as hostess our efficient chairwoman, Rosina Fouts Evans. Come every one and let us make this one of the best years we have ever had at Chautauque.

MRS. G. J. FRANKEL, President Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

WANT TO PUT YOUR TOWN "ON THE MAP?"

Has your city done something unusual and something good, and would you like to tell the world about it? Here's your opportunity.

Lola Clark Pearson, chairman of the Division of Association in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who has recently been added to the editorial staff of The Woman's Magazine, one of the Copper publications claiming $5,000 rural road, is asking for "stories" of what clubs have really done to make their communities better. I am not interested in titles, but want stories of towns under $5,000 and preferably very small towns.

Make your stories short and snappy. Do not give a history of your club, but get right down to details. Give convincing achievement, have it typewritten, double spaced, and mail direct to Mrs. Pearson, The Household Magazine, Topeka, Kansas.

A CONVENTION

The Pictorial Review and not the Delinquent, as stated in the June issue of the Federation News, is offering the prize to the woman who has accomplished the greatest good for her state.

Will the clubs recommend to the Pictorial Review editors that this prize be given Mrs. E. P. Mossman of LaGrande, state chairman of art?

IMPORTANT

The August issue will be our annual directory. It will contain a message from each of your new department heads, the president's reports as given at the La Grande convention and many other items of interest.

with this issue or if your address has been changed, please notify the business office at once in order that you may not miss this interesting number.

Normal Notes.

Classes are held Saturday of this week, that a full holiday may be taken Tuesday, when all members of the faculty and student body are invited to enjoy the trip to Crater Lake, the guests of the chamber of commerce. Citizens are furnishing the requisite number of automobiles.

Refreshments will be served at the rim of the lake with coffee furnished, but each one lunch will provide the individual luncheon for the picnic to be eaten while there.

Today there is the lecture on Art by Mr. Stanley Brener of the Ashland School of Art at the regular assembly period.

On Friday, the devotional services are led by one of the ministers of the city. Tomorrow the services are conducted by the Rev. H. T. Pemberton, of the Methodist church.

On each Wednesday, there is the song service conducted by Miss Leona Marsters, head of the music department of the Normal school.

When possible there will be special numbers and these will be announced that the public may enjoy them with the students.

For the best interest of school and student, the following rules have been announced by President Churchill for the guidance of those attending Southern Oregon Normal.

All students will be in their rooms at 9:30 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and shall not study later than 10 p. m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, students are to be in their rooms by 10:30 p. m. Automobile rides to neighboring towns are not to be taken except by permission of the Dean of Women.

All interested are invited to the householders meeting at one of the homes where housing plans will be discussed. A report of the same will be made.

Parent-Teacher Notes

PARENT-TEACHER NOTES

September will soon be here, September with its goldenrod, its ripening corn and the children beginning their year of school. Soon thousands of little boys and girls will start to school for the first time. They are entering upon a most important experience. Never again in the lives of most of them will there be such a sudden change; never again will so much be required of them in adjusting themselves to their surroundings.

The average five-year-old lives a most care-free existence. Mother, father and the rest of the family think of him as "just the baby." He is only a playful animal, of whom little is expected and less required. Unless he gets in someone's way, he is pretty much left alone. He is too small to count a great deal in the world of grown-ups. Even in his home he finds that houses are built for adults, with high hooks, high shelves and high tables. He is waited upon when he should be self-reliant, and scolded when he tries to be independent. All too soon he is six years old, of which far too often he is king, with his or more willing slaves, he is suddenly transplanted into the school room. Here he is only one of many. He is supposed to become over night, a responsible individual, an integral part of a community. He must give attention for short periods of time. He must adjust himself to thirty or more other personalities.

What can we, as parents, do to make this adjustment easy and joyful, rather than a hard, painful experience?

For the mother who begins to think of this problem as she busily sews on Jane's first school dress, or Johnny's school shirt, one or two months before the opening of school; it is impossible to accomplish all that might be done. It takes six years full of faithful, prayerful effort and thought to prepare a child properly for school. However, one year, six months, or even one month of preparation is better than none.

Physical Preparation

A man who enters a horse in a race sees to it that the horse is in perfect physical condition. No owner would race a horse suffering from some physical defect.

A beautiful picnic was enjoyed Sunday at Cascade Gorge, by the Misses Anna and Grace Luman, Mr. Harold Carrington and Dr. Philip Cole of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Luman is staying at Cascade Gorge for an outing and the young people spent Sunday with her, with the picnic a happy feature.

A number of interesting experiences added zest to the occasion. Miss Anna remains with her mother, who is there for her health.

School is a long, hard race. If the best race is to be set, the child must be in perfect physical condition.

Don't send a child to school without a thorough physical examination. Has he adenoids? Are his tonsils diseased? If so, he will surely entertain every stray germ. His school life will be a succession of whooping cough, measles, mumps and tonsillitis. A child who cannot breathe properly cannot pay attention, cannot learn readily.

Don't send a child to school who does not habitually get a proper amount of sleep. If you have taken him to the movies at night, allowed him to sit up and entertain your company with his "cute" sayings, or if he refuses to go to bed until mother does, he will be too tired to compete in school with children who have proper sleep habits. YOU may make allowance for his irritability, or his lack of attention. YOU realize that he was up last night. These explanations will not in any way affect his inability to digest his school work. The teacher may think him stupid when he is only sleepy. His parents are the ones who have been stupid in their treatment of him, but the child pays the penalty. He is neither physically nor mentally strong, simply because he does not have enough sleep and probably never has had enough. His whole development has been retarded because it has not been convenient for his parents to see that he goes to bed regularly at an early hour. A child who has been starved for sleep during the pre-school years is laboring under a decided handicap when he enters school. He is often nervous and inattentive. Mother wonders why her John doesn't learn as rapidly as Mary Ann who lives next door. She forgets that Mary Ann's mother has put Mary Ann to bed regularly between six and seven o'clock for six long years. Probably Mary Ann's parents like to go out in the evening. They also enjoy a good time. However, they feel that Mary Ann needs the rest. If their pleasure was bought at the expense of Mary Ann's sleep the price paid would have been far too high.

Don't send a child to school starved for the proper food. The under-nourished child cannot compete with the child who eats plenty of good food at proper times. Many a mentally slow child becomes normal when given the proper food. A child who eats between meals, who re-

Dear Cynthia

Even on a hot day it is a pleasure to think of smart dresses, coats and sport wear and then go shopping at

McGee's

EXCLUSIVE LADIES STORE ASHLAND, OREGON

Cool Wash Dresses

of

TUB SILK $9.95

SILK CREPE DRESSES $7.95 $9.95 $14.95

RAYON DRESSES $4.95 $6.95

VOILE DRESSES $5.45 $9.75

Honest Weight goes with every purchase.

We believe in giving our customers full weight and quality merchandise.

That's why it isn't necessary to watch us fill your orders you can step to your phone and tell us what you need, and rest assured that your order will be filled with the same care as though you came in person.

Ashland Feed & Grocery

353 East Main

PHONE 214

Standard Cleaners

Why we can give you the best cleaning and pressing service, as well as top quality first-class work. We have modern equipment. Give us a trial.

ORONITE

Chemical

Women delighted!

Women are enthusiastic about the new Oronite Cleaning Wash. It cleans so beautifully! Non-corrosive—safe on all washable fabrics. It cleans, brightens and softens. It cleans even the most stubborn spots—stains, old grease, hair, perspiration, etc. A wash of the Standard Oil Company of California scientific laboratory. Ready now at Standard Oil Company or at Standard Oil Stores.

ORONITE

Chemical

BAND-GRIP

PATENTED SHOEHORN

for WOMEN

Have you been wearing regular oxfords or orthopedic footwear?

In either case, try on a pair of the new BAND-GRIP oxfords because they satisfy the perfectly normal foot, as well as the foot that has been forced upon an "arch support."

The band (invisible) shown in the picture below, is regulated by the special lacing arrangement shown in the picture above. Thus you regulate the support of the shoe as well as the bottom of your feet. And you enjoy perfect ease and comfort, without sacrifice of style.

Illustrations show only one of several styles we have.

$9.50

Let the BAND-GRIP provide its own own support in and try on a pair, and feel the difference.

McGee's