

A Page of Special Interest to Women

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Editor

Calendar of Events—
Tuesday, July 27—Covered dish luncheon for I. O. O. F., Rebekahs and families. Six o'clock.
Thursday, July 28—Floral Show. Lithia Springs Hotel.
Thursday, July 28—Band Concert, Lithia Park. 8:00 p. m.
Thursday, July 28—Reception for the Rev. H. T. Mitchellmore and family. All invited, particularly Normal faculty and students.
Friday, July 28—Alpha Chapter O. E. S. Picnic. Lithia Park. 8:30 p. m.
Friday, July 28—Floral Show. Lithia Springs Hotel.
Sunday, July 29—Medford, Ashland and Klamath Falls lodges of American Yeomen will hold a picnic at McCloud on the Rogue River. All Yeomen and friends invited.
Monday, July 30—W. R. C. Club. Mrs. J. W. Mills. 315 Almond Street, hostess.

Account of Interest to Ashland Friends—

The account of the marriage of Miss Lillian Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Russ Greer and Mrs. William Schofield Jr., of Los Angeles, announcement of which was made in Monday's issue of the Tidings, will be of interest to the many friends of the family here in Ashland.

Congratulations and good wishes are again extended Mr. and Mrs. Schofield—

"Of interest to many friends here is the wedding of Miss Lillian Greer, attractive daughter of B. E. Greer, senior proprietor of the Burbank Review and Weekly Pathfinder, and Mrs. Greer, to William Schofield, of Los Angeles, which took place this morning at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ling of 725 Elmwood Avenue, Rev. Thomas E. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Ling and Patay Ling, stood with the couple during the ceremony. Owing to illness of Mr. Greer, who is at the St. John's hospital in Oxnard, the wedding was a quiet one.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party left for Oxnard to see Mr. and Mrs. Greer. They will make their home at Glen Manor place Los Angeles, where the Greer family moved a short time ago.

"Mrs. Schofield is popular with many friends here that she has made while residing in Burbank during the past four years. Prior to that time, she lived in Ashland, Oregon, where she also has hosts of friends. She was graduated from the high school in that city.

"Mr. Schofield is the son of William Schofield, well known broker and importer of the firm of Bechtel and Schofield of Covent Garden fruit market, London, England. He has a wonderful war record, seeing active service as early as December, 1914. During five years' service he lived an apparently charmed life. Three different times the regiment he was with was practically wiped out, he being among the handful of men spared. Three times he was wounded, he was finally discharged in 1919, then taking over the directorship of the Bechtel-Schofield business. Mr. Schofield is now engaged as a marble draftsman in Los Angeles.

Medford Families Have Picnic in Park—

The Williamson and Erickson families of the Williamson-Erickson Plumbing and Sheet Metal company, of Medford, with other guests, enjoyed a picnic in Lithia Park, Wednesday, celebrating Mr. Williamson's birthday, and in compliment to Mrs. Mary Scott of Seattle who is a guest at the Williamson home.

Part of the company came early and spent the afternoon in Lithia Park, the men of the party driving up in time for the birthday feast which was served at 6:40 p. m.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williamson, Mrs. Mary Scott, of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Erickson and children, Mrs. Sarah Williamson, Mrs. Lenna West, Mr. McKnight, of Oakland, California.

This celebration in Lithia park is an annual event in the family.

Community Club Entertained in Park—

The Upper Valley Community Club was hostess to the Valley View Community Club Tuesday afternoon in Lithia Park.

This is a part of the movement of the Community clubs of the valley to get better acquainted with each other and to give opportunity to discuss problems in which all are vitally interested, thus making for cooperation and concert of action.

These two clubs are two of the largest and most active in the county and have supported every progressive and forward looking movement. Both are federated clubs, with splendid programs of helpful activities in their communities.

They meet regularly; have excellent programs and many meetings in which the Home Demonstration Agent is present in her official capacity to advise and assist, when needed.

Tuesday's meeting was delightfully planned, in combining helpful discussion and happy program numbers, which were given during the banquet hour.

About forty ladies from both clubs met at the hour named, in the park and for some little time just visited. Then all were asked to find their places at the banquet table, beautifully decorated in flowers, with place cards upon which a clever verse described the person, gave greeting and in a number of cases, indicated what was expected from the guest.

Mrs. Barnes was the chairman of the program committee, and was called upon by Mrs. Carl Goetze to open the program which she did in a few well chosen words, calling upon Mrs. Mary Homes-Tucker to tell of the big project of the Upper Valley Community Club—its club house to be built this fall.

Mrs. Tucker responded by giving a detailed report of the progress made and the fund accumulated which is now the splendid sum of $740. They expect to raise a thousand, however, and the men of the community have promised to donate their work. The district has donated the ground.

Mrs. Mabel Rechart, president of Valley View Club, in behalf of the club extended thanks for the courtesy of entertainment.

Mrs. Goetze, president of the hostess club, responded and called upon Mrs. Barnes, who spoke for "Our Community." Mrs. Day-enhill told of the "Millinery Schools" that had been held and their helpfulness.

Mrs. J. R. McCracken told of the "Dressmaking Schools" and the interest taken in them and what they meant to a community.

Mrs. Glasgow talked of the "Cooked Food" exhibit that would be held this fall and asked for help from all the club members in making it a success, stressing the fact that now, without a County Demonstration Agent, that each would have to take all the more interest to accomplish results.

Mrs. Homer Moore, discussed "What line of work to take up this next year" and presented the general subject of "Home Decorating" in all its phases as one that would be particularly helpful.

"Why-Named Valley View" was told by Mrs. Rechart and others and How Bellview received its name was explained by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Tucker. The former named for its wonderful view and "Bellvue" as it should be spelled for the "beautiful" view.

"Summer Activities of Valley View Club" was discussed by a member whose name was not secured. The speaker told of their entertainment at the home of Mrs. Glasgow and that the club planned to entertain both the Toledo and Griffin Creek Clubs.

Mrs. John Morse talked of "What we will do next year," and Mrs. John Arnold of "How to help each other."

Mrs. Goetze presented the question of the County Demonstration Agent and the library question.

The clubs went on record as strongly favoring the continuance of the Home Demonstration Agent and it was decided to appoint a joint committee from each club to look after the library question.

The matter of the "Home Makers' Institute" was brought before the clubs and attendance urged. It will meet in Medford in October.

Stumping California by Air

Marie Mitchell wants to do everything she can to help the campaign her father, William D. Mitchell, is making for governor of California. So she has taken to stumping the state by airplane. This photo shows her pecking out of the cockpit of her plane.

The clever verses were read during the luncheon hour and created much amusement.

The officers of the Upper Valley Community Club are: Mrs. Betty Goetze, president; Mrs. Belle Jackson, vice-president; Mrs. Nell Dunn, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Mary Homes-Tucker, chairman of Ways and Means Committee. Other members the Mesdames Nell Dunn, Minnie Barrop, Cora True, Rose Holmes, Katharine Nell, Amy Moore, Belle Jackson, and the president, Betty Goetze.

Mrs. Mabel Rechart is president of the Valley View Club, Mrs. Stella Morse, vice-president and Mrs. Wm. Glenn, secretary-treasurer.

Fraternal Brotherhood Installation—

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanson were host and hostess at the pleasant meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood last Friday night.

Installation of officers occupied the business hour after which all present enjoyed an evening of music and visiting. There was no set program.

The list of officers will be given later.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Maden on Pine street.

W. R. C. Club Meets—

The W. R. C. Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. W. Mills, 315 Almond street on Monday, July 24, convening at the usual hour.

This is one of the larger social clubs of the city and keeps its meetings up throughout the vacation season.

The meetings are held in the homes of the members part of the time at others, when the attendance is too large, at the I. O. O. F. Hall.

A large committee helps the hostess in entertainment and in the refreshments. These meetings are well attended and most enjoyable.

Its FRAGRANCE tells you

the flavor comes only from fresh fruit.

Missionary Meeting—

A very successful meeting of the Women's Missionary of the Presbyterian church occurred yesterday, when its membership, with its guests, members from two other organizations, the Martha Gillette Chapter of Westminster Guild and the Christian Endeavor Society gathered in the parlors of the church for the program and social hour which followed.

An executive board meeting preceded the regular meeting, at which matters pertaining to the business of the organization were discussed.

National and Foreign Missions each had places on the program. Mrs. S. D. Taylor, president of the society was the leader for the afternoon and had assigned topics to a number who discussed them interestingly and well.

A number presented the work in the United States; the first, Mrs. W. H. Graham, who told in detail incidents relative to a boarding school in Arkansas, in which the boys not only attended the school but built the school building as well.

The work in Georgia was discussed by Mrs. C. W. Nims, who spoke of the work in the large and then told of the efforts, against almost impossible odds, of one young girl, who gave her inheritance, her efforts, friends and herself, but who succeeded beyond all expectations, a valiant missionary doing what she could to ameliorate the conditions in her own country.

Mrs. Silby told of the social service work in the southwest; the training schools and especially of the Mary Holmes Seminary in the south. Teaching people how to live going hand in hand with the knowledge gained from books the work of the leaders there.

At this point, the assembly all joined in singing, which was followed by a beautiful instrumental selection by Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

Mrs. Charles Robertson introduced the work of the Foreign field, taking up the activities in Tehran especially and told of the five years' experience of a missionary there.

The story covered the work with the telephone operatives, who are men, by the way, and how in ever-widening circles the influence spread. The account was especially inspiring for it portrayed the earnestness with which the message was received, and the work by the converts themselves.

A General Assembly report was made by Mrs. S. D. Taylor. This covered schools, hospitals, dispensaries, printing presses, the number of missionaries in the field, many of which were self-governing, self supporting bodies. A fact noted by the speaker was that this church in all its missionary organizations had more than subscribed the quotas allotted to them.

Mrs. Mitchellmore reviewed very interestingly an address given before a body of missionaries; the address intended for the encouragement of the out-going and new missionary especially. It was inspirational, and full of helpful suggestion also for the church worker at home.

Prayer followed for the missionaries both at home and abroad.

The closing hour of the afternoon was spent in a social way, with light refreshments served by the hostesses, the Mesdames, S. D. Taylor, H. W. Andrews and Mrs. J. M. Ross and Mrs. Josephine Foley who presided as the table and dispensed hospitality.

Civic Club Meets—

Tuesday afternoon was the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club at the Club house.

The meetings in the summer are intended as largely social in their nature and nothing of business nature was taken up except at the executive board session which preceded the social afternoon.

There were a few visitors present, among them Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Mitchellmore, both but recently come to Ashland.

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Mrs. P. K. Hammond were hostesses and served refreshments of ice cream and cake from a prettily appointed table.

All are asked to remember that the first and third Tuesdays of each month the Civic Club keeps open house and those newly come to Ashland; guests of the members, and the membership are urged to come to the Club house at that time.

Social Meeting of the Medical Society—

Two meetings of the Jackson County Medical Association are purely social, and at these the wives and families of the members are entertained. One occurs in the winter and is a banquet and the other occurred last

(Continued On Page Five)

Quits Stage, Makes Fortune in Oil

Lela Mae Barnum quit the stage a few years ago and bought undeveloped oil lands near Amarillo, Tex. She had to market a beauty cream she invented to keep up the payments on them—but now the oil is coming in and she will be a millionaire shortly.