Smoking O. K.

In the woods at Pittsburgh, Calif., when to smoke they'll meet with no exception from the town's new woman, Mrs. Mattie Chandler, who never allows a doubt care for reform movements. She celebrated the day of her inauguration by cooking breakfast for her family and washing the dishes before going to her office.

Trying to Pick a "Mr. Shreveport"

To the American Legion men of Shreveport, La., goes the distinction of holding this country's first male beauty contest. They hired the ball park and set a record of $200,000. Here are some of the entries.

SOCIETY

all gave appreciative attention. With the delightful dinner, was the jolly visit of friends, which adds sauce to every feast. At this gathering the rain did not drive the assembled guests to seek refuge as on a former occasion when they met in Litchia Park. All report a splendid time.

There were forty gathered from the various towns of the valley to enjoy the wonderful feast that had been prepared, and to which covered dish. Coffee, cream and sugar furnished. The regular lodge meeting will be held later in the evening.

PARLIAMENT LEGISLATES WHILE MEMBERS SLEEP

LONDON, (UP)—Night sessions of the House of Commons frequently make members so sleepy that they do things which they do not wish to do. At the conclusion of a lengthy night session recently, which lasted long after 2 a. m., the House found itself in the very embarrassing position of having passed a law which it did not want passed just then. Without intention of doing so, the House passed the Smoke Abatement Bill, designed to correct some of the "smoky evils" of London, without discussion and apparently without the knowledge of members whose votes made the bill a law. Prime Minister Baldwin later asked the House to cancel the vote on the bill, that it might later be given proper consideration in the chamber.
