SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Editor

Club of Events—Tuesday, Aug. 16.—W. C. T. U. Literary, 2:30 p. m.

Tuesday, Aug. 10.—Old Fashioned Dance, Lithia Park. For the benefit of the Upper Valley Community Club.

Thursday, Aug. 15.—Band Concert, Lithia Park, 8 p. m.

Friday, Aug. 16.—Home Missionary Society, Methodist church. Hostesses, Mrs. Frank Beck.

Friday, Aug. 16.—Lithia Society, Presbyterian Church. Afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Gregg entertained at a "Ranch Dinner" served in beautiful Lithia Park.

A "Ranch Dinner" served in beautiful Lithia Park was the special form of the pleasant hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Gregg.

Swiss steak was served, flanked by deliciously prepared potatoes, string beans, corn, pickles, watermelon, not to mention coffee for a king, and a number of other delicacies prepared by the same gifted hostess.

Six o'clock was the hour set for the feast but guests lingered until shadows fell, enjoying the companionship of friends at the hospitable board.

The invited guests included, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Swedenborg, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Haines, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. Brover, and their families.

On Wednesday evening, last, Dr. and Mrs. Gregg were hosts for the monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical Association which convened at their home for the regular program.

There were fifteen present at this pleasant and profitable meeting, where the paper of the evening was presented by Dr. Conroy of Medford.

Delightful refreshments were served at its close by Mrs. Gregg.

Members of the Business Girls' Club enjoyed another of their happy times together Thursday night.

A picnic supper this time was the form the entertainment took. To this were brought baskets filled with delectable viands and to which all gave appreciative attention.

The jolly visit of old friends held sway during the supper and until time for the band concert, which all attended, making a pleasant ending for the delightful gathering.

Those present were Miss Calla Biogel, the Misses Gertrude and Helen Biede, Mrs. Dan Kay, the Misses Leta Walker, Gladys Applegate, Elsie Alexander, Emma Jenkins, and Mrs. Otto Klum, a former member and who is now visiting at the Applegate home.

Surprise Party by Rebekahs—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Taylor of the Moon Lumber company were delightfully surprised Wednesday evening last, when a group of their Rebekah friends to the number of thirty or more drove out in an imposing procession of seven or eight cars, laden with well-filled baskets, the occupants intent on making this a real surprise.

To accomplish this, Mrs. Moon was sent on ahead, to keep Mrs. Taylor from getting dinner. She experienced considerable difficulty in doing this, for Mrs. Taylor felt she was not doing her duty as hostess. However, when the procession arrived, with the array of baskets, filled with fresh chicken, rabbit, salad galore, egg cream and cakes, the situation was explained. No need to say the surprise was a complete one.

Those enjoying it with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were: Messrs. and Mrs. George Ebb, their daughter, Mrs. Alberta Olive, with her little daughter, Anna Mae, San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Moon, daughter, Marie, and niece, Cora Frye of California; Guy Randall, children, Wanda, Jean and Ivan; J. C. Ottlinger, formerly of Boston; Mrs. S. R. Jeter, her daughter, Claire Cox, of British Columbia; Mrs. W. J. Stephens, Miss Louise Hargrove, J. A. Walker, formerly of Honolulu; Mrs. Lena Breeding; J. J. Murphy, Mrs. S. Nichols, Miss Mollie Sogard, Mrs. Belle Sogard, Mrs. Jeanne Gilbert, Miss Ethel Reid, Mrs. Norma Redder, Mrs. Edna Story and Mrs. Belle Schwin.

The affair was planned by Mrs. Jeter and Mr. Stephens. Every arrangement was made for the comfort and convenience of the guests by their hosts. Tables and chairs were provided and merry hours were spent enjoying the feast of good things and in visiting before the return of the visitors to Ashland.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Anna Marie Andrews and Mr. Emerson Miller, Saturday, July the thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, at Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Andrews of Fairview street. She is a graduate of the State Normal and has attended the University at Berkeley and this summer took a special course at the University of Washington. During the World War, Mrs. Miller took the "Reconstruction Aid" work at Reed college and for two years after the War did work in the hospitals for the disabled soldiers.

Since then she has taught successfully in the Medford schools for a number of years; the past year her work was in the Tacoma schools.

Mr. Miller holds a responsible position with the Wheeler-Osgood Lumber company in Tacoma. They will make their home in Tacoma. They are spending a short time at the beach, at Vancouver, B. C. at present.

The many friends of Mrs. Miller in Ashland and Medford are very interested in her happiness and extend the best of good wishes to both for a life, prosperous, and long years of happy usefulness.

A benefit dance is being given in Lithia Park, Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the fund for the club house which the Upper Valley Community Club expects to erect this fall.

More than seven hundred dollars have been accumulated already and it is hoped by the time that the building begins that there will be a second thousand in the treasury.

As has been announced the ground has been donated, the men of the community have promised to build the structure and the sum has already been nearly raised with which to purchase material.

With the success which has attended all the efforts put forth heretofore, there is no doubt that this entertainment will net a goodly sum for the ways and means committee to add to the fund.

Group of Woods Notes—A group of seventeen enjoyed a delightful picnic Wednesday evening last at the lower end of the Lake of the Woods.

A supper most satisfactory and satisfying was the opening number of the program at entertainment. Guests enjoyed at the banquet for Lake of the Woods appetites had been brought to the table.

After supper the campfire was kindled, and around it they gathered. Stories were told, each contributed his share to the general enjoyment of the occasion. A thank offering for this evening were Messrs. Ralph and Irving Vining, Mrs. G. Winter, Mrs. Chas. Moore, Gordon, Mrs. Walter and Miss Ruth Walter, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Paulserud, Robert Mulk, Johnnie Ruger, Lawrence Leedom, Linda Oeder, Mrs. Oeder, Mr. and Mrs. Mulk and Little, with perhaps others whose names were not secured.

Mrs. and Mrs. Paulserud entertained at a happy little evening at the Paulserud cottage, with attractive games by way of amusement earlier in the week. Delightful hours were spent, at the close of which the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Harriet Lake Visited—Seven young folks visited Harriet Lake, a round trip of perhaps thirty miles on which they rode about eight miles toward Klamath Falls, from there taking the government trail to the lake.

The most exciting thing was the sight of five deer enroute. The equestrians report a splendid trip.

Fishing Trip to Summit Lake—Messrs. Ralph and Irving Vining with Johnnie Ruger and Lawrence Leedom went on a fishing trip to Cherry Creek and Summit Lake Friday. The latter place is rather difficult of access, since visitors must pack in to reach it.

Going and Coming—Mrs. Otto Winter returned to the city Saturday. The others of the house party will return early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engle and Mrs. Angie Engle went out to their cottage for the week-end as did Mr. and Mrs. Billy Briggs and children and Dr. and Mrs. Burdick and family.

Mrs. Lloyd Malt and son, Donald, left the latter part of the week to visit in Portland for a time. Mr. Malt took her to Grants Pass, returning to the Lake of the Woods for the remainder of the season.

What with boating, swimming, horseback riding, fishing, picnics, campfires, to say nothing of the new golf links, the residents at Ashland's summer resort are having a world of fun, rest and recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair were host and hostess Friday evening at a delightful picnic supper, complimenting the Misses Jessie and Mary Lancaster, friends of Miss Thelma Rees of Bandon.

The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNair and Jamie, Mr. A. P. Hensell and Mr. Waldo Ott.

A pleasant evening was spent in visiting after the delicacies provided had played their part in the enjoyment of the guests.

A Family Reunion at Ontario Camp—For the first time in eighteen years, the members of the Luman family, to the number of perhaps thirty-five, were assembled Sunday last in a family reunion at Cascade Gorge, where Mrs. Ellen Luman, attended by her daughter, Anna, is recuperating from a long illness. It is pleasing to note that she has improved greatly during her stay. The gathering assumed the guise of a birthday celebration for James Luman, a visiting brother, and a birthday cake bearing the requisite number of candles had been brought in honor of the event.

Swimming, baseball, music from the victrola and the voice, all helped to make it a day long to be remembered.

The dinner was a wonderful one served early in the afternoon, with a winner rest in the evening and marshmallows toasted around the blazing bonfire.

Those gathered for the festive occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jaqua, Medford Auto Supply company; Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Winter, H. Barry of the Auto Supply company of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. Davidson.

The pleasant association and beautiful surroundings added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Health Lecture—Thursday last Miss Martha M. Spunker gave an illustrated health lecture at the home of Mrs. Chas. Broff on Hejman street. There was a good attendance. Another meeting will be held at two o'clock on Friday of this week. Women and girls are invited.

Mrs. Brall is again hostess. The lecture begins at two o'clock. These meetings are very pleasant. Occasionally refreshments are served.

Normal School Notes—Six o'clock breakfast in Lithia Park, with covers laid for eight at the appetizing repast, was the event of Thursday last.

Each guest brought just what she wanted served. Miss Katherine Vincent supervised the culinary efforts and Miss Ady was in charge of the entertainment feature.

It goes without saying that the breakfast was a success.
