the Misses Katherine Vincent, Registrar, Marian Ady, Art, Miss Richardson, English and Miss Hales, Athletic department, with the Misses Eda Jones, of Klamath Falls, Miss Morrison of Grants Pass, Miss Bartsche, and Mrs. Norma Reeder of Ashland of the student body formed the group enjoying the party, little outing, leaving the park in time to reach the eight o'clock classes at school. Complimenting Mrs. Ady—A number of pleasant little affairs marked the visit of Mrs. Ady with her daughter, Miss Marian Ady, member of the Normal faculty.

Among them was an attractive dinner party given by Miss Anderson, dean of women, at her cozy apartment, with Mrs. Ady, Miss Ady and Miss Katherine Vincent complimented guests.

Mrs. Ady leaves Monday for her home, after a delightful week or two spent in Ashland.

Many students spent the week-end at their homes in Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, or Medford. Others took the opportunity to visit some of the nearby beauty spots; other picnicked.

Home Guests—Mrs. F. H. Finster, her son and daughter and Miss Loemer of Salem have been the guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Crowson of this city.

During their stay they enjoyed a most pleasurable outing to both California and Oregon parks. The trip included a visit to the Shasta Valley. From there they motored by way of Klamath Falls to Crater Lake. The return was made via Medford, Crater Lake Highway.

Those enjoying the delightful trip are Mrs. F. H. Crowson, her son and daughter, and Miss Loemer of Salem.

ANOTHER OUT—Nov. 11 by 11:30 for the 4 and 10 a. 5-room house, all on one level, highway with 2 1/4 miles of Ashland. Just like a present. See Realty Co. 288-3

FOR SALE—Furnished 10 room winterover over 22 1/2. Phone 408-R. Infall 527 Talbot St. 288-3 lesson was made by Mrs. Leta Eastburn who assisted in this by a number of others.

At the close of the study hour, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Way, served delicious grape juice and wafers.

It is of interest to note that Mrs. Way and her sister, Mrs. Dayton, are "vacationing" at the Orshuys' ranch home near Talent, while the members of the Orshuys' family are spending their vacation in Bendon.

Family Reunion—Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty of Mountain Avenue, have been entertaining as house guests for a number of weeks Mr. Dougherty's sister, Miss Jane Cushing and Miss Dorothy Tarkington of Sydney, Nebraska.

During the time, innumerable delightful outings were taken; among them a visit to Crater Lake; a trip to the Oregon Caves; Klamath Lakes and Klamath Falls; and an outing to Crescent City.

The guests left for the middle west Friday of last week, after a visit, whose days were filled with delightful times.

Trip to Yosemite—Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Swenning, with their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Swenning, and son, Leyden of Maplin, Iowa, who visit the parental home every summer, Miss Nadine Swenning, Victor Peiffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Porter and boys, have just returned from a ten days' trip to Yosemite.

During their trip south, they visited at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Mello, of Modesto, Cal. They report a delightful outing. However the heat going down was quite disagreeable. On the return trip, they were quite comfortable. Other outings will doubtless be taken during the visit of the relatives.
