asked to register with Miss Blanche Hicks at the Public Library, as usual.

Members of the Ashland High School will be pleased to have in every way possible.

These classes have been so well attended and so profitable for those who come that it is hoped that all who have children of the pre-school age who have not been present heretofore, and who wish to do so will hear the date in mind.

Entertainments and Events: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoover, who have been on an extended wedding trip arrived in Ashland Saturday from Peacetto, Idaho.

They were entertained over the week-end home guests at the home of Mrs. W. R. Davis of Ashland street.

Monday they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGee, leaving in the evening for Oakland where they expect to make their future home.

Returning through in their own car, they were on the last lap of a journey which had extended to Canada, where they had visited relatives for a time.

They were delighted with Ashland and its beautiful surroundings.

Normal Notes: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Taylor returned.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Taylor were happily surprised by the Coos County Club, a student body organization of the Normal.

This group to the number of twenty or more were accompanied by Wayne Wells, a faculty member, as is Mr. Taylor.

It was a delightful informal affair: a riot of real fun and delightful entertainment.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

A happy thought of the evening was the presentation by the club, of lovely flowers to host and hostess.

Pageant at St. El Church's Success: A pageant, "The Fruits of Peace" was presented Sunday evening at the Methodist church at the hour for evening worship by the Epworth League and the Epworth League Dramatic Club.

The presentation was given to a large, interested and appreciative audience, and was a splendid performance.

It was directed by Miss Ruby Powell, with Lawrence Powell as organist. The following is the pageant as carried out by those taking part:

Ruby Powell, Director. Lawrence Powell, Organist.

I. The Fruits of Peace—Setting: The Dwelling Place of Peace. Pages—Wayne Van Hardenburg, Clyde Coad.

A. Processional of Youth of Nations. Russia—Nadine Swanning. France—Sara Mosier. Japan—Cedric Scharff. Great Britain—Helen Pemberton.

United States—Richard Elmore. Goddess of Liberty—Marjorie Elmore.

H. The Fruits of Peace—Setting: Nations in Dwelling Place of Peace. A. Daughters of Peace present fruits of peace.

Unless Young Peoples' Meeting: A union meeting of Young Peoples' organization was held at the Baptist church, Sunday evening.

There was an excellent attendance and a fine program. The hour was set earlier than usual, that all could attend their own church services.

How to Meet Deal Lines: A valuable hint for the Housewife.

In this day of cleverly concocted substitutes for real linen, even to the imposition of the fine may perhaps. When these guests in the Robertson home were here a delightful outing to Crater Lake was one of the pleasant trips they took in entertaining their guests.

E. W. Johnson is Professor of Vocational Training in University of California, at Los Angeles.

Missionary Society Meets: The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting, with Mrs. Hattie Boyd hostess at her home on North Main street.

A special feature of the meeting Wednesday will be that the organization will entertain the Home Department of the Society.

The regular program for the day will be given, with Mrs. Sarah Walker in charge.

Every one interested is invited to come.

Faculty Picnic: Wednesday evening of this week it is planned to have a faculty picnic. This includes the families of the faculty also.

All will come laden with baskets overflowing with the satisfying things that go to make a picnic dinner so satisfactory.

Party Planned: The first party given for the student body at the Normal auditorium is the next future.

Approximately one hundred and fifty students and faculty members will be present.

Delightful plans are being made by way of entertainment, which will be announced in due season.

Interest in the forthcoming affair is keen. A full report will appear in a later issue.

Members of the Normal School faculty enjoyed a swimming party at the Helman Baths Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

President Churchhill Goes to Clatsop County Meet: President J. A. Churchhill of the Normal former state superintendent of public instruction, was one of the speakers at a Sunday school meet of Clatsop, Cal., in which the Sunday schools of the entire county were gathered, with a constructive program in the various departments of Sunday school work.

One of the leading topics of the day, "The New Week-Day Bible School Law of Oregon and How It Has Been Put Into Action," was presented in a masterly address by President Churchhill.

Much interest is felt in the subject. (Continued on Page Four)
