Fortune Found In Man's Flower Pot

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 11.—Moses Amstrong, aged and ailing, went to the poorhouse the first of the week, because he could not find his savings which he hid away somewhere. He was almost broken hearted, but his neighbors found the money concealed in a flowerpot, the amount being $2850, enough to keep him for the rest of his life. He is 51 years old. He is colored.

At Lithia Springs Hotel—
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Throne of Denver, Colo., are in Ashland today. They are stopping at the Lithia Springs hotel.

DISCOVER BEGGER IS WEALTHY MAN
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—Tony Deason, for many years a pathetic figure on Market street, where he sold pencils as a flimsy excuse for begging food last week. His will admitted to probate leaves $55,000 to distant kin in Italy.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you and each of you, known defendants, are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff, on file with the Clerk of said Court, in Jacksonville, Oregon, within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you, if served within the County of Jackson, State of Oregon, but if served within any other county within the State of Oregon, then within twenty days from the date of its service upon you, and if served upon you by publication, or by personal service without the State of Oregon, then within six weeks from the date of the first publication or the date of such personal service upon you, and if you fail to appear and answer within the time as above specified, this plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the said complaint, namely, that the title in fee simple, in and to the south one-half of the southeast quarter of Section 20 in Township 40 south of Range 2 east of the W. M. in Jackson County, Oregon, subject to the rights of way for railroad, highway and telephone and telegraph purposes, be decreed to be vested in the plaintiff, J. A. Edwards, free and clear of any right, title, claim or interest of the known defendants, and of the unknown heirs, if dead, or either of them, and any of the defendants, and all other parties or persons unknown claiming any right, title or interest in or to the said described real property be barred from ever asserting or claiming any right, title, claim or interest in the said described real property as against the ownership and claim of the said plaintiff, his legal representatives and assigns, and for such other relief as the Court may deem fair and equitable.

As to all defendants other than the defendant, Emma Wing, this summons, by order of the honorable C. M. Thomas, judge of said court, made and dated on July 26, 1926, shall be served by the publication thereof for six successive weeks, and such parties or persons upon whom this summons is served by publication, or by personal service without the State of Oregon, are required to appear and answer the said complaint within six weeks from the date of such service without the State of Oregon, or from the date of the first publication.

MONTANA TEAM HAS PLENTY OF PROMISE

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 12.—(UP)—With a colorful array of perpetual threats on her football team, Montana University has boxed enough limelight to draw four important and attractive dates on foreign grids this year.

A few of the aforementioned array will be "Wild Bill" Kelly, Grizzly quarterback, R u s s o l Street, half back with one of the best togs in the Conference, and Emil Ostrom, center, a dangerous tackler.

Butte, as the metropolis of Montana, has made an attractive offer for the annual classic between the University of Montana and Montana State, October 23.

Gonsaga has given Montana the famous Halow'en celebration game at Spokane on October 30.

The outcome of the Grizzly schedule cannot be fully determined until it is known definitely how many last year's squad will be back in school this fall.
