Some people do not like to buy real estate through an agent. They stand in their own light and you most always find them never-do-wells and of little mental scope. You will always find the successful man going to a reliable agent when he wants real estate because he knows the agent is able to give him the best buys. For instance the following: Four and one-half acres of alfalfa on highway, good 5-room house that is not quite finished, small barn, hen house, fine stand of alfalfa and under ditch, $1200. $500 down and $200 per year, 6 per cent.

Some months ago several days' time was taken up in the taking of testimony, but before the case was closed a settlement was reached between the parties, but it did not develop into a complete settlement. The result of yesterday's hearing resulted in appointment of Mr. Dugas, to the orders of the court, pending settlement of the litigation — Medford Mail-Tribune.

If there is a boy who has never had the desire to talk with a real live clown, he must have been one who had some serious a tention. And if there is a real live clown who does not care to bring some cheer into the life of a boy, he is not worthy of his profession.

Above are Art Adair and "Whitey," two of the half hundred Sells-Floto clowns who posed for the picture with two youngsters from a Chicago orphanage last spring. (Both Adair, the circus producing clown, and White, one of the most ambitious performers under the "big tops" will be at Medford with Sells-Floto August 28th. It will be no uncommon sight during waits before performances begin to see many of the clowns chatting with youngsters near the entrances to the dressing tents.
