and Mrs. John Finnegan of Medford, Tuesday, of this week, at the Lithia Springs hotel.

Covers were laid for twenty-three at the beautifully appointed table enhanced by the golden glow of lovely flowers used in artistic decorative effect. Little novelty favors, studies in black and gold, gave a distinctive touch to the delightful four-course luncheon which was served at twelve-thirty.

Following luncheon, the guests went to the ball room, where great baskets of colorful blossoms and their fragrant forebears to the China was the subject for study and much of interest to the membership was brought out by the interesting talks and readings given.

Under this head, Mrs. Josephine Foley told of the work in the prisons of China. Mrs. Geneva Allen gave a reading on the New Chinese Girl, and Miss Niver read an article, "Chinese Babies."

Mrs. J. M. Ross stressed the need of spirituality in the work.

A story was reviewed by Mrs. J. W. McCoy, which brought out the value of mission work, very strongly. The striking thing about it was that the story was from a well known journal of the secular press.

Mrs. Walker told of the work for Chinese girls as carried on in San Francisco, under the leadership of Miss Cameron, whom many had had the pleasure of hearing. Some of the current news in Home Missions was also given by Mrs. Walker.

Mrs. W. H. Smith, who was a pioneer in Northern California, told of the beginning of church work where she lived, which was in 1888, and in which she had a part.

At the close of the program, the hostess served delightful refreshments and a social hour was spent over the tea cups.

Civic Club Planning for Winter's Work.

The year book of the Civic Improvement Club will soon be ready for publication and announcements made of plans for the coming fall and winter.

Mrs. G. G. Eubanks, Mrs. F. D. Wagner and Mrs. C. E. Peil compose the committee who are now working on the program and who will soon have their work completed.

Bridge Luncheon Given.

One of the most attractive of mid-summer social events was the bridge luncheon given in compliment to Mrs. Charles Bourne, who is leaving here for California.

family dinner and visit added its pleasure to the sum of enjoyment, but the final happy time was spent Saturday in a trip to Crater Lake, starting at 8:30 a. m. via Medford, spending the day at Crater Lake but stopping to view the scenic wonders enroute.

With the aid of thermos bottles and jars it is no task at all to take a hot dinner with one. In this instance delicious chicken and roasting ears with all the "set centers" "needful for travelers" appetites were eaten at the noon-day meal at the camp of Harold Boyd, an artist who has been spending some time there painting.

From there the party drove on to Klamath Falls, again, taking time to enjoy the wonders of the way. They arrived home in the evening, covering a distance of two hundred and thirty miles. Mr. Boyd came in Monday, and will be here in Ashland for a time.

Those who made the group for this outing were, Mr. and Mrs. T. Vining, their guest, Mrs. Ida C. Gentry, who has but recently arrived from California with Mrs. Vining, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winter, Mrs. C. E. Pratt, Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mrs. Jean Hastings, Mrs. E. E. Dows, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, Mrs. Andrew McCaul, Mrs. H. H. Crowe, Mrs. Paul Winter, Mrs. Stanley Robinette, Mrs. John Sprtridge, Mrs. H. G. Enders, Mrs. O. A. Paulsen, Mrs. V. V. Mills, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson, Mrs. J. A. McGee, Mrs. Domino Provost, and Miss Florence Hollmeyer.

Those present were: Mrs. Chas. Bourne, and Mrs. John Finnegan, in whose honor the luncheon was given; Mrs. Frank Dillard, Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mrs. W. J. Crandall, Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mrs. Jean Hastings, Mrs. E. E. Dows, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, Mrs. Andrew McCaul, Mrs. H. H. Crowe, Mrs. Paul Winter, Mrs. Stanley Robinette, Mrs. John Sprtridge, Mrs. H. G. Enders, Mrs. O. A. Paulsen, Mrs. V. V. Mills, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson, Mrs. J. A. McGee, Mrs. Domino Provost, and Miss Florence Hollmeyer.

There was an excellent attendance, for a summer event; the tables groaned with good things and everybody was happy and enjoyed the splendid dinner and the pleasant visit which accompanied it.

Later adjournment was made to the hall where the regular lodge meeting was held.

Home Missionary Society Meets. Mrs. Frank Bess was hostess at a very interesting meeting of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church, Friday of last week.

Mrs. J. R. McCracken was in charge of the business meeting and Mrs. Grace Engle led the devotionals.

For the study hour which followed, Mrs. George Allen, assisted by Mrs. Ada Clark and Mrs. C. E. Pratt presented the program, which was an unusually interesting one, using for subject matter topics discussed in the "Home" Magazine.

Mrs. Clark presented the relation existing between the women's federated clubs and the home missionary work, as it was indicated in the "Home Magazine" and Mrs. Allen reviewed other articles closing with a very beautiful poem. Mrs. C. E. Pratt gave a splendid description of the "Home" Magazine.

W. C. T. U. Meets. Mrs. O. G. Howard of Gresham street is hostess next Tuesday at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U.

Every member is advised to plan to attend if possible, for at this meeting occurs the election of officers. Those on the nominating committee are Mrs. O. G. Howard, Mrs. C. W. Fraley and Miss May Benedict, who make their report at this time.

Entertain House Guests. Two beautiful outings marked the visit of Mrs. Walter and her daughter, Miss Ruth Walter of Portland, who have been the guests of relatives in Ashland for some little time.

With Mrs. Otto Winter, her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Bourne, and son, Gordon, they were the guests of R. T. Vining at the cozy Vining cottage at Lake of the Woods.

There fishing, boating, riding, bathing, afternoon gatherings and evenings around the campfire filled the time to overflowing.

Upon their return to the city, a been enjoying, for the past ten days or so, a very delightful vacation.

Leaving dall cars at home, the quartet hid themselves to cooler regions. Camping where fancy dictated, they drove to the coast, visiting Mamfield and North Bend.

Bathing, boating and fishing engaged their attention at Sand-on-by-the-sea.

The roads were fine, the weather cool, fishing successful—so every one was happy and enjoyed every minute of the vacation time.

The party particularly enjoyed the fine fish secured at the coast and delicious last cheese which they purchased at the factory at Myrtle Point.

They are now at home, rested and ready for the many calls upon them in the busy round of every day life.

Who Do? Class Meets. Instead of a routine meeting of the class the "Who Do's" of the Methodist Sunday school will have a special meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Pratt, Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday, Miss Leona Mapsters is in charge of the exercises in assembly, featuring music both from the Normal students and often special numbers. Yesterday, the student body was especially favored in having Chester Woods give a number of "velvet" songs on his piano, also was a company of boys, including the members of the church, as well as the members of the Normal.

The W. C. T. U. will have a special meeting at the home of Mrs. C. W. Fraley, Tuesday evening.
