

Local Personal Notes

A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest

At the Hotel Ashland—

The Misses Thyra Cordell, Velma Sibley, Charlotte Miles and Irene Heister, of Van Buren, Ark., spent the day in Ashland yesterday. They stopped at the Hotel Ashland. The women were very much pleased with the scenic beauty of this city and its surrounding country.

Some people do not like to buy real estate through an agent. They stand in their own light and you most always find them never-do-wells and of little mental scope. You will always find the successful man going to a reliable agent when he wants real estate because he knows the agent is able to give him the best buys. For instance the following: Four and one-half acres of alfalfa on highway, good 5-room house that is not quite finished, small barn, hen house, fine stand of alfalfa and under ditch, $1200. $500 down and $200 per year, 6 per cent.

One of the finest lots in the city at the head of Palm St., 60x165 to alley, $250. See the firm of good buys, Ashland Realty Co. 296-3
