FLOATING HOSPITAL CRASHES INTO PIER

Panic Starts Among Children During New York Accident

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—A panic among 127 children and their mothers when the river steamer Helen J. Hullard, the "floating hospital" of St. John's Guild, crashed stern first into the East 25th street pier in the East river today, cutting a great hole above the water line, was averted today by the nurses and physicians aboard. The passengers marched down the 26th street gangplank a few minutes later, all singing "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here."
