club house by Mrs. C. F. Tilton, who kindly used her car for this purpose.

As hostesses, Mrs. Harris Dean and Miss Virginia Whittle made things comfortable and pleasant for little and big visitors.

More and more mothers are coming to realize the wonderful opportunity offered them in these baby clinics for examination and consultation and advice regarding their little children.

The history of the baby clinic in Ashland is very gratifying in that so many do take advantage of this opportunity. Everyone, with little children or infants are welcome at these meetings. Registration is to be made as usual with the librarian, Miss Blanche Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Madden Entertain—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Madden were hosts at the regular meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood last Friday night.

Considering it was vacation time there was a good attendance and all enjoyed the social hour which followed, during which the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Guild Progressive Dinner—Martha Gillette Chapter, Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church expects to give a progressive dinner Monday evening, August 30.

Members and friends are reminded to keep their date open for it is the "Quarterly Banquet", served in courses, each in a different setting. Guests will start from the church at 5:30 p. m.

All members are reminded to bring their site bags. A good program and a good time is assured all who come.

Community Club Sale Successful—Saturday's Upper Valley Community Club food sale was pre-eminently successful in that long before closing time the array of delicacies brought by the ladies of the club were disposed of and calls for "enables" could not be filled.

It is understood that the club may hold another food sale within the next few weeks. Approximately twenty-five dol-ars were cleared from Saturday's efforts. The ladies were highly gratified, and wish to express their appreciation to all who helped to make it such a success financially.

Everyone is interested in the new club house so soon to be built and whatever the club undertakes for the forwarding of this project secures liberal patronage.

is Halldroth and Richard John Halldroth invited guests.

While the men of the dinner party went down to the park to spend the afternoon under the beautiful trees, the ladies spent the hours quietly visiting with their hostess.

Trip to Crater Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Warren of Berkeley, California, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Sadie Stratton, of Iowa street, left for home Saturday.

While here, they all had a most interesting trip to Crater Lake, going on to Klamath for a visit with the Culbertson family. Other pleasant outings were taken while the out-of-town visitors were in Ashland.

Mrs. Paul McDonald Entertains—Mrs. Paul McDonald of Medford was hostess at a charming bridge luncheon, honoring Mrs. Charles Bourne, who is spending the summer in Ashland.

Delicate tints in yellow and lavender were used in artistic decorative effect at the beautifully appointed four-course luncheon and in the rooms.

The lovely gift awarded, was enhanced by its dainty casing in the same pretty shades.

Mrs. John Enders secured high score in the interesting afternoon of bridge which succeeded the luncheon hour.

Mrs. MacDonald's guests from Ashland were Mrs. Charles Bourne, complimented guest, Mrs. John Enders and Mrs. O. A. Paulerud.

Delightful Trip to Crater Lake—Leaving here Thursday and returning Sunday morning early, Mrs. Burner, Miss Hazel Burner, Mrs. Reid, Miss Ethel Reid, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith and son Mark, Miss Jean Anderson and Dan Cowling made up a party that have had a delightful outing, spending most of the time at Crater Lake, however. Upon the return trip they came to Klamath Falls Saturday camping this side of that city, they arrived in Ashland early Sunday morning. All felt it had been a most enjoyable bit of holiday time and regretful that it was over so soon.

While at the Lodge Mrs. Smith and Miss Anderson added to the pleasure of the guests by singing a number of songs.

Entertainment a Success—Ashland's music and drama patrons were accorded an unusual privilege when, Friday evening, at the Baptist church, Mr. Edward Brigham, basso-profundo and dramatic reader of New York City presented a recital.

From the first, when he opened his program with a group of songs the Vesper Hymn, and German, Spanish and Bohemian folk songs, the entertainer held his audience completely by the depth and power of his voice and the matterial of his interpretation. His first reading, Longfellow's "King Robert of Sicily" combined interpretive skill with faultless technique of voice and gesture. "The Glory of Glories" was given as an encore.

Romilla's "Angelo," Massenet's "Elegy," "Pale Moon" and "O Sole Mio" comprised the next group of songs.

Other readings and musical recitations included productions of Holmes, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Kipling, Bret Harte, and Robert Service.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, the audience demanded two extra numbers after the final group of songs.

The recitalist plays his own accompaniments with artistic skill. A sincere and remarkable tribute to Mr. Brigham's art was evidenced in the popular demand for a second program which the recitalist has graciously agreed to give on Monday evening at the Baptist church.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

BY CHARLES F. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—W. R. Campbell has been official guide at the State, War and Navy building under 15 secretaries of state, 14 secretaries of war and 11 secretaries of the navy.

It would have been 13 secretaries of the navy, only the Navy Department was crowded out, into another building, during the World War, and never managed to get back in again. Today, in reality, it's the State and War building, and, at that, it houses but a small fraction of the War Department.

Campbell doesn't recall in just what year he did his first guiding, but "Grover Cleveland was president."

To the bride and bridegroom are extended sincere good wishes for a life filled with happiness, length of days and success.

Civic Club Announcement—The president of the Civic Improvement Club wishes to announce that the time of the Annual Rummage Sale is drawing near, as is the fall house cleaning.

At this time all housewives are asked to lay aside anything that they do not need or value, but that may be of help to others for this sale.

The date of the Rummage Sale will be announced later, but at this time attention is called to it that all friends of the Civic Club may assemble their contributions to it; have them in readiness against the time when the articles are collected and arranged.

This annual affair is the means by which the upkeep of the building is assured and with the members and friends of the organization rests the responsibility of making it a success.

Another angle is that through this sale many may secure useful and worthwhile articles at a nominal cost. This point is worthy of consideration. What you do not need or want may be of help to some one else.

gent. Thomas F. Bayard was secretary of state, William C. Endicott was secretary of war and William C. Whitney was secretary of the navy," he says, which makes about 40 years of it.

The old guide could tell a rare story of the personalities of the celebrities with whom he's come in contact but, of course, he won't do it.

Concerning the wonders of the State, War and Navy building he can and will discourse endlessly, but names are about all he'll mention as to the visitors he has escorted through it.

Let a White House or a departmental or a capital guide or usher or private secretary get to analyzing character and he never knows what toes he may be stepping on.

Discretion! That's the watchword for a long official life in Washington.

W. R. Campbell learned it so thoroughly, long ago, that he hesitates to discuss notables who have been dead for decades, with no living descendants.

There are two miles of corridors in the state, War and Navy building.

W. R. Campbell has tramped them thousands of times, in the company of cabinet members, and generals of ambassadors plenipotentiary and of envoys extraordinary.

He's the best posted man in the world in his particular field of activity.

GARD OF THANKS

We desire to return thanks to all the friends who showed their sympathy and kindness in this, our sad hour of bereavement, and pray that God, who comforteth our hearts, may comfort yours under such trials.
