

A Page of Special Interest to Women

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Editor

Calendar of Events—
Thursday, Aug. 26.—Band Concert, Park, 3:00 p. m.
Friday, Aug. 27.—Chapel Services. Normal Assembly, in charge of one of the Ashland ministers.
Monday, Aug. 30.—Progressive Dinner by Westminster Guild. Starts from the Presbyterian church at 5:30 p. m. for members and friends.
Friday, Aug. 27.—Ladies Aid Presbyterian church. Junior Room. Afternoon.
Monday, Aug. 30.—W. R. C. Club. Social in Park. Arrangements in charge of assistant hostesses.
Friday, Sept. 3.—Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church.
Tuesday, Sept. 7.—Girls Club Meets. Club House, 3:30 p. m.

Because the copy for the society columns today had to be in the office at an earlier hour than usual, a number of the social notes, will of necessity be in Monday's issue.

Civic Club Announcement—
 With the first meeting, September the seventh, the work of the Civic Club begins in earnest.
 At that time, announcement will be made of the year's program. The year book is ready now for publication, the committee having practically completed its work.
 Mrs. Harris Dean, president of the organization wishes to make this advance announcement in this issue, however.
 Since the fall housecleaning will soon be in full swing, it is thought best to remind the ladies that the "Runnagge Sale" will be put on a little later and now is the time to lay aside the things to be given for that sale. And in connection with it, this also is asked: that housewives, while they are putting up the jam, marmalade, jelly or what not, set aside a can or two or a few glasses for this sale. It will be very much appreciated and will add quite a bit to the fund to be raised.

Former Ashland Residents in Europe—
 Interesting letters have come to Ashland friends from time to time from Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whitely who are now touring Continental Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Whitely were residents for many years in Ashland where Mr. Whitely was in business and the family prominent in social club and church life of the city.
 Through permission of the recipient, W. H. Day, a few excerpts of an interesting letter follow:
 "We are progressing very well on our trip; still favored with fine weather and good health."
 "We are at present on a Cook's tour of Pompeii and the Amalfi Drive including the Blue Grotto at Capri. Today, out of Naples we visited Pompeii with an excellent guide and surely had enough of it. We were there several hours and walked among the old ruins and museum."
 "Though there are continually excavations being made no view of them is allowed, only the loads of dirt at some distance."
 "Our party found everything highly interesting. Evidently style in houses is no new thing—all we saw followed closely the same model. I would like to build one, with the inner court surrounded by columns, supporting a porch, with fountain in the center and all sorts of rooms opening on the porch."
 "Naples has a bay—and there is water in it—beautiful blue water; there would not be so much, however if they would "clean up."
 "We return to Rome from Naples for a second short stay then to Florence, Venice et cetera. (No Italian would know these names.)"
 "W. H. has moved up her pension to shop in Florence, where, in all reports things are good—and cheap, especially lace, pictures and shawls.

 "We will lose our traveling companions in a few days. They will go on to Greece, returning to the United States the eighteenth of August. We have ours set for September 4. If you see our daughters, now due in Ashland, be good to them."
 "Our desire is to go soon to Ashland possibly in October. I notice in every European city that trees are allowed to grow along the very best streets."
 Written from Pension Francaise Maurice, Naples.

A Family Reunion—
 There has been a very happy family reunion at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe, for the past fortnight.
 Many outings to various points in the valley and a delightful trip to Crater Lake marked the gathering, to say nothing of the wonderful family dinners, with additional guests to add to the pleasure of the occasion.
 Other than host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe; Mr. and Mrs. Don Lowe, and George Lowe, there are present Mr. and Mrs. Jewel D. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and daughter, Jean Marian.
 Mrs. Carl Anderson, so well remembered as Hazel Lowe, who graduated here, later teaching in the Washington school, in Medford, is now head of the Social Science Department, Washington School, Long Beach, Calif. Friends will be very interested to know of this well deserved advancement.
 Mr. Carl Anderson is now the head of the Department of History, Lafayette High School, Los Angeles, Calif. Both hold splendid positions in their chosen field.
 Jewel D. Lowe, is the Superintendent of the Red River Lumber Company's mills, at Westwood, Calif., where he makes his home.
 Other friends from Long Beach are members of the house party; Miss Effie Stevenson, head of the Commercial Department, Polytechnic High School, Long Beach, and Miss Katherine Moscher of Long Beach, a former Latin teacher.
 Those who enjoyed the Crater

Lake trip were: Mrs. D. M. Lowe, the Misses Stevenson and Moscher and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson.
 The out of state guests leave Friday for their California homes, after a wonderfully happy home visit.

Entertainment, Monday Evening—
 Monday evening saw an interested audience present at the Baptist church to enjoy the program presented at the return engagement of Mr. Edward Brigham, noted vocalist and dramatic reader.
 With but few exceptions, the program presented was entirely different from the one given the previous Friday night.
 Opening with a group of songs of Great Britain: a Welsh Folk Song, "All Through the Night," a Scotch Folk Song, with a musical arrangement by Fritz Kreisler; the English ballad, "Gaily the Troubadour," followed by another English Folk Song; the singer graciously responded with an old favorite, "Forgotten."

Edgar Allan Poe's immortal poem, "The Raven," was dramatically presented, with the setting briefly sketched, in prelude. The speaker responded to enthusiastic acclaim by giving two bright little encores.
 Another song group followed. Three songs famous in the musical world were given: "Silent Night, Holy Night," "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower," Rubenstein, and the "Erl King," Schubert.
 A pre-chorus told the story of the last song. These songs were sung with unusual feeling and power; the singer playing his own accompaniments with artistic skill.

"Love's Old Sweet Song" was given in response.
 The next number was a musical recitation, the story by Oscar Wilde and the music by Paul Bliss, entitled "The Nightingale and the Rose."
 Its presentation invoked hearty applause, to which Mr. Brigham responded by reading, "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road," by Foss.
 Another poem by Edgar Allan Poe, "The Bells," was the next number followed by one of Kipling's "Boots," by request.

Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Louis Schwein, Mrs. R. L. Reed, Mrs. Schwein's daughters, Rosalind and Wanda and Wilma Nutter returned from their trip to Portland and vicinity.
 Delightful little outings, with the Hood River excursion, marked their stay. Visits with friends passed the days pleasantly. They were but one day in making the trip to Portland, but on the return the party visited the W. C. T. U. Farm Home near Corvallis.
 There they saw the Maley children who were sheltered in that home a few short years ago. All were well clad, well fed, bright ham expects to come again to Ashland next year, which was welcome news to music lovers.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—
 Mrs. Lulu Howard, 41 Gresham street, was hostess, Tuesday at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U.
 At this meeting during the business session, the report of the nominating committee was accepted and the following officers elected for the coming year: Mrs. Will Davis, president; Mrs. L. E. Powell, vice-president; Mrs. Stella Leavitt, corresponding secretary; Miss May Benedict, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie Wolcott, treasurer. This is Mrs. Davis' third term as executive officer for the organization.
 Plans were made, at this meeting, for an experience social, to be held September 14, at which time the members will relate their tribulations in earning a dollar; telling the story in rhyme. A program in which the stories are told will be given at that time.
 A committee composed of Mrs. M. B. Eiley and Mrs. C. A. Stearns was appointed to select a place for the social.
 The money so secured is to complete the pledge made by the W. C. T. U. for the Farm Home, near Corvallis.

At the social it is expected that there will be a speaker or speakers present to tell of the Farm Home plant, the children there, its plans for their welfare and every thing about it. Ashland people are very interested in this home and are its generous supporters. It will be interesting to hear from those who have visited it, and know of its plans and accomplishments.
 A delegate will be appointed, also, for the state convention, which is held at Gresham, October 19-22.
 Mrs. O. A. Stearns was a welcome visitor at Tuesday's meeting. She is a former president of the Union.
 During the social hour which followed, the hostess, Mrs. Lulu B. Howard, served delightful refreshments.

A Delightful Outing—
 Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Louis Schwein, Mrs. R. L. Reed, Mrs. Schwein's daughters, Rosalind and Wanda and Wilma Nutter returned from their trip to Portland and vicinity.
 Delightful little outings, with the Hood River excursion, marked their stay. Visits with friends passed the days pleasantly. They were but one day in making the trip to Portland, but on the return the party visited the W. C. T. U. Farm Home near Corvallis.
 There they saw the Maley children who were sheltered in that home a few short years ago. All were well clad, well fed, bright and cheap, especially lace, pictures and shawls.

 "We will lose our traveling companions in a few days. They will go on to Greece, returning to the United States the eighteenth of August. We have ours set for September 4. If you see our daughters, now due in Ashland, be good to them."
 "Our desire is to go soon to Ashland possibly in October. I notice in every European city that trees are allowed to grow along the very best streets."
 Written from Pension Francaise Maurice, Naples.

A Family Reunion—
 There has been a very happy family reunion at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe, for the past fortnight.
 Many outings to various points in the valley and a delightful trip to Crater Lake marked the gathering, to say nothing of the wonderful family dinners, with additional guests to add to the pleasure of the occasion.
 Other than host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe; Mr. and Mrs. Don Lowe, and George Lowe, there are present Mr. and Mrs. Jewel D. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and daughter, Jean Marian.
 Mrs. Carl Anderson, so well remembered as Hazel Lowe, who graduated here, later teaching in the Washington school, in Medford, is now head of the Social Science Department, Washington School, Long Beach, Calif. Friends will be very interested to know of this well deserved advancement.
 Mr. Carl Anderson is now the head of the Department of History, Lafayette High School, Los Angeles, Calif. Both hold splendid positions in their chosen field.
 Jewel D. Lowe, is the Superintendent of the Red River Lumber Company's mills, at Westwood, Calif., where he makes his home.
 Other friends from Long Beach are members of the house party; Miss Effie Stevenson, head of the Commercial Department, Polytechnic High School, Long Beach, and Miss Katherine Moscher of Long Beach, a former Latin teacher.
 Those who enjoyed the Crater

Lake trip were: Mrs. D. M. Lowe, the Misses Stevenson and Moscher and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson.
 The out of state guests leave Friday for their California homes, after a wonderfully happy home visit.

Entertainment, Monday Evening—
 Monday evening saw an interested audience present at the Baptist church to enjoy the program presented at the return engagement of Mr. Edward Brigham, noted vocalist and dramatic reader.
 With but few exceptions, the program presented was entirely different from the one given the previous Friday night.
 Opening with a group of songs of Great Britain: a Welsh Folk Song, "All Through the Night," a Scotch Folk Song, with a musical arrangement by Fritz Kreisler; the English ballad, "Gaily the Troubadour," followed by another English Folk Song; the singer graciously responded with an old favorite, "Forgotten."

Edgar Allan Poe's immortal poem, "The Raven," was dramatically presented, with the setting briefly sketched, in prelude. The speaker responded to enthusiastic acclaim by giving two bright little encores.
 Another song group followed. Three songs famous in the musical world were given: "Silent Night, Holy Night," "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower," Rubenstein, and the "Erl King," Schubert.
 A pre-chorus told the story of the last song. These songs were sung with unusual feeling and power; the singer playing his own accompaniments with artistic skill.

"Love's Old Sweet Song" was given in response.
 The next number was a musical recitation, the story by Oscar Wilde and the music by Paul Bliss, entitled "The Nightingale and the Rose."
 Its presentation invoked hearty applause, to which Mr. Brigham responded by reading, "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road," by Foss.
 Another poem by Edgar Allan Poe, "The Bells," was the next number followed by one of Kipling's "Boots," by request.

Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Louis Schwein, Mrs. R. L. Reed, Mrs. Schwein's daughters, Rosalind and Wanda and Wilma Nutter returned from their trip to Portland and vicinity.
 Delightful little outings, with the Hood River excursion, marked their stay. Visits with friends passed the days pleasantly. They were but one day in making the trip to Portland, but on the return the party visited the W. C. T. U. Farm Home near Corvallis.
 There they saw the Maley children who were sheltered in that home a few short years ago. All were well clad, well fed, bright ham expects to come again to Ashland next year, which was welcome news to music lovers.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—
 Mrs. Lulu Howard, 41 Gresham street, was hostess, Tuesday at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U.
 At this meeting during the business session, the report of the nominating committee was accepted and the following officers elected for the coming year: Mrs. Will Davis, president; Mrs. L. E. Powell, vice-president; Mrs. Stella Leavitt, corresponding secretary; Miss May Benedict, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie Wolcott, treasurer. This is Mrs. Davis' third term as executive officer for the organization.
 Plans were made, at this meeting, for an experience social, to be held September 14, at which time the members will relate their tribulations in earning a dollar; telling the story in rhyme. A program in which the stories are told will be given at that time.
 A committee composed of Mrs. M. B. Eiley and Mrs. C. A. Stearns was appointed to select a place for the social.
 The money so secured is to complete the pledge made by the W. C. T. U. for the Farm Home, near Corvallis.

At the social it is expected that there will be a speaker or speakers present to tell of the Farm Home plant, the children there, its plans for their welfare and every thing about it. Ashland people are very interested in this home and are its generous supporters. It will be interesting to hear from those who have visited it, and know of its plans and accomplishments.
 A delegate will be appointed, also, for the state convention, which is held at Gresham, October 19-22.
 Mrs. O. A. Stearns was a welcome visitor at Tuesday's meeting. She is a former president of the Union.
 During the social hour which followed, the hostess, Mrs. Lulu B. Howard, served delightful refreshments.

A Delightful Outing—
 Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Louis Schwein, Mrs. R. L. Reed, Mrs. Schwein's daughters, Rosalind and Wanda and Wilma Nutter returned from their trip to Portland and vicinity.
 Delightful little outings, with the Hood River excursion, marked their stay. Visits with friends passed the days pleasantly. They were but one day in making the trip to Portland, but on the return the party visited the W. C. T. U. Farm Home near Corvallis.
 There they saw the Maley children who were sheltered in that home a few short years ago. All were well clad, well fed, bright

How a Snake Hypnotizes a Bird

This remarkable photo shows a Texas rattlesnake in the act of ordering his lunch. The snake is hypnotizing a chaparral bird just before he coils to strike and kill the bewildered bird with his poisonous fangs.

interesting children; enjoying their teachers, the house mothers, their work and play.
 The oldest girl is making her way now, so interested in school and all so happy and well cared for in this "Home" which is a real home to little orphaned children.
 All will remember the tragic history of these five girls and all will rejoice that they may grow in such an environment to fine, useful womanhood.
 Mrs. Schwein's oldest daughter, Miss Ramona Wise, who is taking training at the Immanuel Hospital in Portland, arranged to spend as much time as possible with her mother and sisters, while they were in Portland. Miss Wise is enjoying her work very much and is very well.

W. R. C. Social—
 The forthrightly social enjoyed by the members of the W. R. C. Club is planned for next Monday afternoon.
 As was arranged the last time, the members will meet in the city park, not far from the entrance.
 It is always planned that a number are responsible for the entertainment and refreshments and for this, as at the last meeting, the assistant hostesses will be in charge. Those named for the occasion are: Mrs. Elsie Wilkins, chairman assisted by the Mesdames Edna

Party for Out-Of-Town Visitors—
 Little Miss Barbara Bowers was honor guest at a pretty little party given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Herbert, on North Main street.
 Six little girls were the guests and a delightful afternoon was spent in playing with dolls, out-

THE SHOWER WAS FINE BUT WE WILL STILL HAVE HOT WEATHER
WE HAVE A SPECIAL ON FANS
XL. ELECTRIC Station GUY GOOD Phone 82

Are You Tired—
Look Sleep Poorly?
The chances are its your kidneys!
Take FOLEY PILLS
 And feel again the urge of a healthy, active body, an alert mind, a good appetite, good sleep.
 A reliable, famous medicine, in vogue for over 25 years.
 Contains plainly printed instructions. Get them today.
 At all drug stores. See this. Satisfaction guaranteed.

PURE GROCERIES
EVERY HOUSEWIFE KNOWS
 The difference between pure groceries in many lines and the importance not only to her in her cooking but to the health of her family. This store has made it a policy to investigate its purchases in these lines in order to be able to positively guarantee our patrons only best quality, safe groceries.
 You are safe in sending the children. We stand behind the satisfaction of every order we send you.

Ashland Feed & Grocery
 353 East Main
 PHONE 214
 UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
WE DELIVER

of four times, and best of all, in enjoying the daily refreshments which were served at the show of the happy hours.
 These present were the Misses Margaret Vestal, Ruth and Jean Billings, Sarah Paris, Mary Herbert, and the visiting girl, Barbara Bowers.
 Mrs. Ralph Billings, Mrs. Bowers, little Patricia Ann Bowers, and Mrs. W. M. Herbert were also present to enjoy with hostess and young girls the pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Broil Entertains—
 On Thursday of this week, the home of Mrs. Broil is again open for the lecture to be given by Miss Martha Spenser.
 All interested are invited. With the health talk, there is the social feature too, for those who go, linger for the neighborly visit.

Ladies Aid Friday—
 The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church meets Friday of this week for work.
 All members of the organization are urged to be present to assist as there is plenty to do. Place of meeting, Junior Room.

Presbyterian Dinner—
 Martha Gillette Chapter, Westminster Guild for their Quarterly banquet and social meeting will feature a "Progressive Dinner," which will begin at the Presbyterian church, leaving there at 5:30 for the first course.
 It is an elaborate affair, with many courses and a program of more than usual interest.
 The last course will be served at the church, where the program numbers, business and social meeting will be held.
 Members are advised to bring

HAY FEVER
 If you can't get away, use VICKS VapoRub
VICKS VapoRub

Party for Out-Of-Town Visitors—
 Little Miss Barbara Bowers was honor guest at a pretty little party given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Herbert, on North Main street.
 Six little girls were the guests and a delightful afternoon was spent in playing with dolls, out-

For Friday and Saturday
$1.98
 Step-ins, lace trimmed, rayon - knit, especially pretty garments.
SLIPS $1.98
 Made of Good Quality Sport Satin

GOWNS $2.98
 Lace trimmed Rayon knit, very attractive.
RAINCOATS
 Usually raincoats are just homely raincoats, but they are not always so. Least of all are these new, silky looking ones that we have just received. They look like $10.00 or more but are only their mite bags with them since this is the end of the quarter.

$6.50
NEW DRESSES AND COATS ARE HERE

 Members and friends cordially invited for Monday evening, August 30, 5:30 p. m., Presbyterian church.

Foreign Missionary Society Meeting—
 The Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, September 13, with an interesting program.

For Lunch Tomorrow
 Try our baked salmon with cream gravy. This monarch of the waters comes fresh from the Columbia river, and packed in ice. We know you will like this Friday noon special.

Cold plate lunches, vegetable dinners, hot dinner sandwiches and many other tempting dishes for the noon meal.

NININGER'S
 Soda Fountain and Lunch

OUT OUR WAY By Williams

WE'VE TROD LIFE'S MANY HIGHWAYS ON MARBLE AND SAND BUT ONE THAT'S PAVED WITH VELVET IS THE ROAD DOWN TO THE CRICK.

EVERFAST
FOR SCHOOL DRESSES
RAINCOATS
 Usually raincoats are just homely raincoats, but they are not always so. Least of all are these new, silky looking ones that we have just received. They look like $10.00 or more but are only

Everfast Fabrics
McEwen