A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest

U. of O. Fraternity Nationalized

Harvey Woods, George Francis Barron, Marcus Woods and Paul Wagner, four University of Oregon students from Ashland and Paul Luy of Medford, who are members of Lambda Psi fraternity, will be among those installed as charter members of Phi Sigma Kappa, national fraternity founded in 1873, according to word received here yesterday. The national convention of Phi Sigma Kappa, in session in Philadelphia, has granted a charter to the Oregon fraternity, installation ceremonies to take place sometime this fall.

Lambda Psi is reported to have made an enviable record during the two years of its existence as a local, and was at the head of all the men's fraternities of the University in the scholarship rankings recently announced.

Bad Teeth Held Cause for Crime

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Increase of crime may be due to bad teeth, according to Dr. Jacob G. Tilen, at the International Dental Congress here. "Men whose teeth give them a hideous appearance commonly described as 'buck teeth' naturally develop a grudge against society resulting at times in law breaking," he asserts.

UNCONSCIOUS WOMAN REVIVED BY GARLIC

SAN JOSE, Cal. — (UP) — It remained for T. Castro to discover hidden potencies in common garlic. When Castro's automobile collided with another machine, a woman passenger was knocked unconscious. Cold water was dashed into her face without effect. Castro rushed to the tonneau of his machine, where a sack of fresh succulent garlic lay. He waved one bulb under the unconscious woman's nose. She breathed deeply and sighed. He waved it again and her eyelids fluttered up in full possession of her senses.

OREGON'S FINANCES GIVEN IN STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Department of Commerce announces a summary of the financial statistics of the State of Oregon for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1925.

The payments for maintenance and operation of the general departments of Oregon for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1925, amounted to $10,201,873, or $11.98 per capita. This includes $414,593, apportionments for education to the minor civil divisions of the State. In 1924 the comparative per capita for maintenance and operation of general departments was $11.06, and in 1917, $5.90. The expenses of public service enterprises amounted to $9,628; interest on debt, $2,546,825; and outlays for permanent improvements, $6,052,326. The total payments, therefore, for expenses of general departments and public service enterprises, interest, and outlays were $18,710,752. The totals include all payments for the year, whether made from current revenues or from the proceeds of bond issues.

Of the government costs reported above, $7,539,473 was for highways, $2,131,414 being for maintenance and $5,408,059 for construction.

Revenues

The total revenue receipts of Oregon for 1925 were $20,402,390, or $24.20 per capita. This was $7,714,504 more than the total payments of the year, exclusive of the payments for permanent improvements, and $1,092,178 more than the total payments including those for permanent improvements. This excess of revenue receipts is reflected in purchase of investments, not shown in this summary. Property and special taxes represented 38.0 per cent of the total revenue for 1925, 35.4 per cent for 1924 and 64.7 per cent for 1917. The increase in the amount of property and special taxes collected was 172.0 per cent from 1917 to 1924, but there was a decrease of less than one-half of 1 per cent from 1924 to 1925. The per capita and special taxes were $9.20 in 1925, $9.33 in 1924, and $3.79 in 1917.

Earnings of general departments, or compensation for services rendered by state officials, represented 4.7 per cent of the total revenue for 1925, 5.9 per cent for 1924, and 10.6 per cent for 1917. Business and nonbusiness licenses constituted 40.3 per cent of the total revenue for 1925, 38.0 per cent for 1924, and 11.0 per cent for 1917. Receipts from business licenses consist chiefly of taxes exacted from insurance and other incorporated companies and from sales tax on gasoline, while those from nonbusiness licenses comprise chiefly taxes on motor vehicles and amounts paid for hunting and fishing privileges.

Indebtedness

The net indebtedness (funded or fixed debt less sinking fund assets) of Oregon on Sept. 30, 1925, was $39,702,437 per capita. In 1924 the per capita debt was $49.94, and in 1917, $9.68.

For 1925 the assessed valuation of property in Oregon subject to ad valorem taxation was $1,058,880,737; the amount of State taxes levied was $7,492,761; and the per capita levy, $8.89.

Many Tickets for Patriarch Piute Games Are Needed Indian Chief Is Dead in Nevada

BERKELEY, Cal. — (UP) — Four hundred thousand tickets will be required for the eleven football games to be played at home by the Golden Bears of the University of California this year. Seventy four thousand past-boards have already been printed for the Southern California game October 23 and the Stanford game November 20, while probably 6,000 more will be needed for temporary bleachers at these games. Last year the Bears' schedule attracted 343,719 paid admissions to 13 games.

Other crowds expected this year are: St. Mary's game, 50,000; Olympic club, 45,000; Oregon Aggies, 50,000; and Oregon, 40,000.

Returned to Ashland—

Miss Mildred Beeson and Flora Greene returned yesterday from Rocky Point, where they have spent the summer. Miss Beeson will attend the University of Oregon, and Miss Greene will go to school at Berkeley.

Many Tickets for Patriarch Piute Games Are Needed

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., Aug. 31. — (UP)—Bob Sue, patriarch of the Piutes is dead. One of the most picturesque Indian chiefs in Nevada history, he was seen riding a 'rain' horse bareback, in devil-may-care fashion, almost up to the day death overtook him.

Bob Sue was the son of the famous Captain Sue, chief of the Piutes in the Williams massacre. Later, in 1865 when the renegade Piute Black Rock Tom went on the warpath with the Shoshones and Bannocks Captain Sue joined the forces of the United States army regulars. Sue, with Lieutenant Powell, led the attack in the Quinn river valley where contact was established with the hostile red men, 66 of whom were slain.

Captain Sue was murdered by his own tribesmen out of revenge for joining the whites. Bob Sue took up the work of his dead father and served in several sharp skirmishes in the Bannock war.

When war embroiled Europe and America Bob Sue, turned down for service because of his age, helped recruit his tribesmen and led others in the purchase of Liberty bonds.
