

A Page of Special Interest to Women

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Editor

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, September 7 — Civic Club Meets. Club House, 2:30 p.m.

Tuesday, September 7 — Floral Society. Public Library, 8 p.m.

Wednesday, September 8 — Bransides, W. R. C. entertain on program at Rogue River.

Thursday, September 9 — Auxiliary to American Legion Entertain at a Tea honoring W. R. C. and D. A. R. at Civic Club House.

Friday, September 10 — Home Missionary of the Methodist Church Meets.

Friday, September 10 — Ladies Aid Presbyterian Church. All Day meeting. Members urged to attend.

Wednesday, September 15 — Auxiliary to Trinity Guild. Parish House. Evening.

Thursday, September 16 — Trinity Guild. Parish House.

Friday, September 17 — Mount Ashland Chapter. B. A. R. Meets. Mrs. J. P. Dodge Boston.

W. R. C.

Floral Society Makes Progress

The Medford Floral Society met at the public library Tuesday evening, adopted the constitution and by-laws, and completed the organization begun the previous week. Mrs. L. E. Williams resigned as temporary president of the society. Miss Jane Snedicor taking her place until January 1, 1927. The committee to have charge of floral exhibits at the chamber of commerce reported, and several members were added to the organization. Three members from the Ashland Society and three from the Medford club will look after the floral exhibits at the Jackson County Fair this month, the name to be announced later. The meeting was an enthusiastic one, and members feel that Medford's newest society has made a very successful start toward civic improvement along floral lines.—From Jackson County News.

W. R. C.

Foreign Missionary Society Meeting

Mrs. O. G. Howard was hostess at Foreign meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which convened at 8:30 p.m.

There was an excellent attendance and a splendid program.

A business meeting, the chief feature of which was the election of officers occupied the opening hour.

At this the following officers were named: President, Mrs. Fred Engle; Vice-President, Mrs. H. F. Pemberton; Secretary, Mrs. Lennox; Treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Wright.

During the program hour, a pageant in which a number of ladies took part was a most interesting feature. In this "Demonstration" the persons taking part were in gaily raiment and emphasized in clever fashion points in pledge making and keeping made by the leader, Mrs. Engle in the talk, accompanying the "Demonstration."

While the pageant was being presented, Mrs. Wolcott accompanied very pleasantly at piano. She also favored the society by singing a solo. Little Miss Brunette Eastburn collected the mite boxes and spoke quite happily while doing so.

Mrs. C. E. Pratt, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting.

Refreshments of punch and wafers were served by the hostess, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. Letta Eastburn.

It is the desire to report that all the refreshments, with a surplus on hand.

Civic Club Improvement Club

The Civic Improvement club in holding its initial meeting of the year this afternoon.

A full report of this meeting will appear in Thursday's issue.

Mrs. Harris Dean, newly elected president is in charge.

W. R. C.

Informal Dancing Party

Miss Frances Pratt and Miss Margaret McCoy were hostesses at an attractive informal dancing party at the home of Miss Pratt on North Main St. Friday evening last.

About twenty guests, largely college young people were present to enjoy the pleasant hospitality.

Those invited from out-of-town were Miss Edith Spalding and Irvin Trifley from Granite Pass.

The young folks danced to the delightful strains of the pantron, recently introduced by Mr. H. Eldar, whose courtesy made the available.

Delicious punch was served during the evening and dainty refreshments at its close.

W. R. C.

D. A. R. Meets

Friday, September 17 — The Mount Ashland Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, is entertained at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dodge. She is assisted by Mrs. H. G. Gandy, Mrs. Louis Dodge and Mrs. Nellie Loosie.

This is Constitution Day and the following program will be presented:

"Framers of the Constitution," "History of the Constitution," Mrs. A. G. Adams.

Address, "An Appreciation of the Constitution," the Rev. P. K. Hammond.

President General's Address, Mrs. Harriet Fielding, Regent of the Chapter.

After the business meeting, the social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The program will be of deep interest, and there are many things to be brought before the Chapter.

AN Auxiliary Chapter

A business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. John Enders on the Boulevard, a few days ago.

At this meeting many things pertinent to the regular work of the Auxiliary were discussed and plans were made for the tea which is to be given Thursday at the Civic Club house, honoring the W. R. C. and the members of Mount Ashland Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

After the business meeting, the social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

An interested group of the Auxiliary members were present for this meeting. A comprehensive program of work along definite lines interwoven with pleasant social activities planned for the coming year.

W. R. C.

Guides Entertained

A reunion of the Herbert family has been held during the past fortnight with the number of visitors augmented during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blake arrived from Corvallis Saturday and Mr. Bert Bowers and Phil motors from Condon, Ore., to join his wife and daughter, who have been here for some time.

Many pleasant affairs have been given for the out of town visitors, among them a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Herbert on Church Street.

The time was spent in a social visit, with dainty refreshments served during the afternoon.

The guests were: Mrs. Ralph Billings, Mrs. R. N. Chaney, Mrs. Bert Bowers and daughters, Barbara and Patricia Ann.

Sunday there was a family gathering at the Ralph Billings' home with a most attractive dinner as a special feature of the occasion.

Around the hospitable board were gathered Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Herbert, Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Chaney, Valley View, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blake, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bowers, Phil Bowers and Patricia Ann, of Condon, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blake Billings and son John.

The afternoon was spent most happily in the visit of relatives. Mr. Blake is a brother of Dr. W. E. Blake and they will also visit at the Blake home on Laurel St.

W. R. C.

Baptist Picnic

An imposing line of autos wound their way out to Wagner

Creek Monday morning, carrying well around one hundred members of the Baptist Sunday school to the place chosen for the picnic scheduled for Labor Day.

A day of real fun had been planned and games and contests of all sorts claimed the attention of everyone. Some of the things that caused spirited effort upon the part of the contestants were sack and wheelbarrow races, and tug of war. The spectators certainly enjoyed the fun as well as those taking part.

A wonderful dinner, with lemonade, coffee and ice cream was served picnic fashion and to this all brought appreciative appetites.

The committee named in a former note, functioned effectively thus guaranteeing the success of the happy gathering.

Young and old were present: one class in particular, made up of elderly ladies were taken from their homes to the picnic grounds. The others gathered at the church. This class, as do a number of others, have splendid times together.

A tired but happy group voted this was one of the best times ever.

W. R. C.

Return from Lake Woods

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Poley, their daughter Mary and nieces Anna Ottile, returned Monday from their vacation at the lake of the Woods.

During the weeks spent at the lakeside cottage, a number of guests shared their enjoyment.

Among these spending same time with them were Mrs. Josephine Polley and daughter, My. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley and son and Mrs. H. W. Andrews.

W. R. C.

League Entertained

The following account was sent in by the publicity chairman of the Epworth League. It came too late for the issue in which mention was made of the joint meeting: the date secured from another source.)—Editor

"The World Window" read by Mrs. Present, was listened to with close attention. In this article a synopsis of missionary endeavor in different parts of the world; different customs and a description of a "Leper's Home" was given.

The first Thursday in October, the society will open its mimeo boxes. Plans will be made for a splendid meeting. It is suggested that there be an open meeting once a year to present an informative program for those not connected with the organization.

A social hour followed the program, with dainty refreshments served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Anna Grubb.

The social feature is always a part of the monthly meetings.

and Mount Madison Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

This promises to be a November slate and interesting program. A large attendance is expected since the patriotic organization maintaining a large number of women both of those who are constituents of this delightful hospitality.

W. R. C.

Congregational Missions Meeting

The Missionary Society of the Congregational church were entertained by Mrs. H. E. Carter at her home on Mountain street Thursday afternoon.

Devotions, led by Mrs. Anna Grubb, began the meeting, with the singing of familiar hymns opened the session.

Mrs. H. E. Carter, the hostess, read from a book that is being studied in the society, which deal with the "Race Problem." The chapter was discussed by the members present, quoting the viewpoint of those of other than the white race.

The minister, the Rev. Mr. Hollinger, added interesting remarks in closing the discussion.

Mrs. Abbott read excerpts from an address by President Calvin Coolidge on the "Beloved Race."

The splendid article was quite illuminating, in the array of facts presented concerning the advancement of the colored people.

Many other enlightening statements were brought out in general discussion.

The minister, the Rev. Mr. Hollinger, added interesting remarks in closing the discussion.

Members are requested to be present to the opening of the session.

W. R. C.

Daughters Meet

The Ashland Floral Society will have its regular meeting at the Public Library, Tuesday, September 7, at 8 o'clock p.m.

"Butter, Roots and Plants for Fall Planting" is the subject for consideration at this meeting.

Members are requested to be present to the opening of the session.

W. R. C.

Daughters Entertained

The first Thursday in October, the society will open its mimeo boxes. Plans will be made for a splendid meeting. It is suggested that there be an open meeting once a year to present an informative program for those not connected with the organization.

A social hour followed the program, with dainty refreshments served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Anna Grubb.

The social feature is always a part of the monthly meetings.

Learning it was Mr. Hessenauer's birthday plans were made among the friends to surprise him and also to bring the delicious refreshments of ice cream and lovely cakes for the repeat entertainment in the evening.

Truth, too, served as a reminder that the host had had a birthday and that his friends were helping him celebrate.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy DeMille, and sons Lynn and Max; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randles, Linda Jean and Ivan Randles; Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Randles and son Robert; Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Randles.

The evening will be long remembered by complimented guests and the ones who helped to make the hours so pleasant.

W. R. C.

Wednesday Club

On Wednesday, September the 22nd, the Wednesday Club, the social organization of the Presbyterian church will have its initial meeting at the church.

Mrs. George Brookmiller and

W. R. C.

W. R. C.