Marriage Announcement — "Auspicious" certainly applies most fittingly to a wedding ceremony, solemnized at Trinity Episcopal vicarage, on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 7, when Fred M. Schuerman and Beatrice A. Dunnette were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. P. K. Hammond officiating.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Schuerman, and is salesman in the employ of the Standard Oil Co.

The bride, whose parents reside in Salem, is a graduate of the High School and Willamette University of that city, and for the past three years has been instructor of English in the Medford High School, also having taught French and Domestic Science at Gold Hill, and majored in music during her University studies.

These young people are industrious, the husband being well-qualified along business lines, while his bride is notably efficient and competent both intellectually and domestically, hence this union should prove to be a typical one.

For sometime past it has been evident that Fred was paying particular attention to "world court" matters, probably by virtue of being an ex-service man, the logical result being that he has joined the league of benefactors.

The wedding was a quiet one, devoid of all ostentation, a militant circumstance, however, being that John Enders, as Commander of the local Post of the American Legion, gave his "buddy" away matrimonially as a formal witness to the interesting event, one in which the young couple will receive the congratulations of a host of friends.

For the present they will be "at home" in the Butler Apartments on Granite Street, in the meantime Mrs. Schuerman continuing her school duties at Medford.

(Note: This interesting account of the marriage of Fred A. Schuerman and Miss Beatrice A. Dunnette which was mentioned in Wednesday's issue of the Tidings, was contributed by a friend of the family.)

Golden Wedding — A notable event occurred, Friday, September 2, 1928, when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Potter of Ashland was celebrated.

For this occasion were gathered children and grand children from the Rogue River valley and from northern California to commemorate the golden anniversary.

Fifty years ago, on September 3, 1878, the marriage of Miss Katherine Riley and Mr. Samuel Potter was solemnized, the Rev. Mr. Howlett officiating at the ceremony, which took place at Eagle Point.

efficient member of the club, whose deep sorrow for the recent death of Mr. Greer was the occasion for this action.

Members of the different committees presented plans for the year's activities; the social chairman outlining a few of the many happy functions in store for the membership.

The music chairman, Mrs. Allen Willits asked the cooperation of the club in making the musical feature of the programs interesting and entertaining and in helping bringing out new talent.

Mrs. Andrews, publicity chairman of the club and chairman of Press and Publicity for Jackson county for the State Federation, newly reappointed, explained what the work involved for the home club and for the federated clubs in the country and asked that some one volunteer to assist in carrying out the plans suggested by the state chairman to make the standing of the Civic Club measure up to its possibilities and to raise the county standard. The requirements will be published from time to time.

Mrs. Eubanks, for the other members of the program committee presented the program features, stressing particularly the meeting which features "Health Work" under four general divisions, (a) Hospital, Miss Jean Aitchison, Supt. City Hospital; (b) City, Mrs. Bertha Denton, School Nurse; (c) County, Miss Mildred Carleton, President County Health Association; (d) Child Welfare, Mrs. John Gammit, Medford.

Every member is urged to be present at the next meeting, for interesting details of these various activities will be brought out in the discussions.

Every other meeting will be a business and social one. Some numbers are devoted to the purely social. Four splendid numbers will be given by members of the State Normal faculty; two of drama, one folk dancing, one on art, and one music program, the Misses Elizabeth Richardson, Virginia Hales, Marion Aoy and Leona Marsters presenting the programs.

Ashland Music Study Club and the Delphians, each have an afternoon. The "Welfare of Ashland" is considered on November 2, with Mrs. H. C. Galey, chairman, and the Scholarship Loan Fund will be taken care of in February at the Valentine Tea.

In a few graceful words, Mrs. Dean assumed the responsibility of chief executive officer of the organization and bespoke the help of all in making the coming year a successful one.

All were reminded again of the Rummage Sale to be held early in October.

Mrs. Frank Jordan and Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson presided at the pretty tea table, with its beautiful blossoms in shades of yellow; its appointments in harmony.

Over the teacups, enthusiastic plans were still being discussed. The officers for this year are: Mrs. Harris Dean, president; Mrs. F. K. Hammond, vice president; Mrs. William Myer, recording secretary; Miss Grace Chamberlain, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mary Wilshire, treasurer; Mrs. G. G. Eubanks, Mrs. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. A. H. Praehl, trustees.

The standing committees are: Club House, Mrs. L. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. L. Maxey and Mrs. C. Martin; Program, Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Mrs. C. E. Peil, Mrs. G. G. Eubanks; Membership, Mrs. C. F. Tilton, Mrs. J. E. Enders, Mrs. J. A. McGee, Mrs. H. M. Chanell and Mrs. C. I. C. Porter; Social, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson, Mrs. H. G. Enders, Jr., Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg; Music, Mrs. Alice Willits, Mrs. E. A. Woods; Floral, Mrs. O. Winter, Mrs. Frank Jordan, Mrs. K. P. Nims; Publicity, Mrs. Grace E. Andrews; Legislation, Mrs. Louise Perozzi; Club House Matron, Mrs. L. A. Roberts.

The members of the Ashland Floral Society at their regular meeting Tuesday evening voted to give their hearty and thorough cooperation in making the Floral Dept., of the County Fair a grand success.

Members of the Ashland and Medford Floral Societies constitute the committee in charge of the Floral Dept., of the Fair under the Dept. Supt.

Further announcements will be made later as plans develop for the transportation of exhibits, etc.

In the meantime all flower growers in Ashland and vicinity are urged to prepare as far as possible to exhibit what they can.

The discussion on "Balls for Fall Planting" proved interesting and helpful.

Larkin Grubb brought to the meeting a spray of lilac blossoms which he had succeeded in producing by proper pruning. He also displayed one of his beautiful ferns.

Specimens of other flowers were brought for the consideration and enjoyment of those present.

A pleasant and helpful evening is always enjoyed by those who attend the meetings of the Floral Society.

W. C. T. U. Experience Social — Tuesday evening, September the fourteenth, the members of the W.C.T.U. will hold an "Experience Social" in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church.

At this, the ladies will tell how each earned a dollar. The story will be related in poetry, prose or song. Since many have earned these dollars in out-of-the-ordinary ways, the stories promise to be very interesting.

Other than the experience related there will be a program of vocal and instrumental music given.

Light refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. The money thus earned, is to go toward the support of the Children's Farm Home near Corvallis.

There is no admission charge. A cordial invitation is extended to every one interested, to attend and enjoy the entertainment with the W. C. T. U. and their friends.

W. R. C. Social — On Monday, September the thirteenth, the members of the W. R. C. Club will hold their social at the I.O.O.F. Hall, with Mrs. Nostrom hostess.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Elsie Wilkins, Mrs. Eda Young, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Eliza Allen, Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. H. O. Anderson, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Brush and Mrs. M. Brannan.

This social had been planned as a picnic in the park, but was postponed because of the rain upon the day set for it.

Wednesday, of this week the W. R. C. put on the program at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion at Rogue River. There was quite a delegation in attendance. All members are reminded to come to the social next Monday afternoon. There is always a program planned and a good time is assured for everyone.

Ladies Aid Meets — There will be an all day meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church, Friday, September 10, in the Junior room.

Every member is reminded that a day of pleasant work, a luncheon, with the social hour at noon await all who attend tomorrow's meeting.

Trinity Guild Meets — Trinity Guild meets in regular session, Thursday of next week, at the Parish house.

Auxiliary to Trinity Guild also holds its meeting next week, convening on Wednesday evening, at the Parish house.

(Note:—The editor will appreciate it very much if each organization will appoint a press chairman, who will phone or send advance notices of meetings to her and also an account of the meetings held.)

Missionary Society Meets — The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular session in the church parlors, Wednesday, September 15, at 2:30 p. m. There will be a good program. Mrs. Miles is the leader.

Art Club Meets — The Ladies' Art Club will meet for its initial session at the home of Mrs. Bert Smith at 239 Oak street, Monday, September 16, 1938. Mrs. Clinton Baughman, will assist in entertaining.

Since this is the first meeting of the year, there will be many things to bring before the members and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance present.

Entertained at Dinner — Mr. and Mrs. August Schuerman were guests for the afternoon and for the delightful mid-afternoon dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day, on Baum street, Monday, September the sixth.

Home Missionary Society Meets — The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church will convene at the home of Mrs. A. Marke, 145 Sherman street, Friday, September 10, 1938.

An interesting program will be given and all members are urged to attend.

Dr. J. T. Halloran Entertained — Mrs. T. J. Halloran has been the complimented guest at a number of pleasant affairs during her brief stay in Ashland, upon her return from the holiday time spent with her sons, Elber and Auten at Crescent City.

She has been the house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McNair on Seaside Drive.

Tuesday evening she was complimented at a delightful dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan.

Wednesday Mrs. Halloran was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day at a midday dinner, and in the afternoon, she with Mrs. Day and Mrs. S. B. McNair spent the afternoon at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lamkin.

Wednesday evening there was a delightful picnic supper in the park, honoring Mrs. Halloran and her sons Elber and Auten.

Those who gathered about the bountifully spread table were: the complimented guests, Dr. Halloran, her sons Elber and Auten, Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Jenkins, and daughters Maxine and Ardis, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair, and Miss Georgie Coffee.

Dr. Halloran leaves Thursday for her home in Alturas, Calif.
