URGENT BRITISH ROYALTY TO ENTER WHO'S WHO
LONDON — (U P) — A respectful democratic movement has been started to persuade the members of the British Royal family to enter, with lesser mortals, that modern compendium of personalities, the English "Who's Who."
The argument is that it would be a convenience to the public. At present they appear only in the expensive yearbooks devoted to the Crown, the peerages and the companions, and then only briefly — practically a little more than a list of subsidiary titles and honours trailing after their names. The publishers are willing enough to include the Prince of Wales alongside of the Archbishop of Wales and Hubert Wales, the socialist, but the Royal Family shows no sign of varying its procedure.
