

Local Personal Notes

A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest

Moved to Medford— J. H. Thomson has moved from Ashland to 316 Howard street, Medford.

Madden retreads tires. 53-1f Have you heard the new tone Portable Victrola?—The Rose.

Moved— Miss Margaret Armentrout, secretary to J. A. Churchill, has moved from 678 Boulevard to 842 Boulevard.

Paulserud's for cleaning. Phone 119.

Dance with All-Star Frisco Five. Jackson Hot Springs, Tuesday, 16-2*

Visiting C. E. Fell— Fred L. Applegate of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday visiting at the C. E. Fell home on Granite street.

Business Visitor— L. S. Hopfield, insurance agent at Portland, was a business visitor in Ashland recently.

Cliff Payne makes tables.

Visitors from Medford— Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barton and family of Medford, were in Ashland last evening visiting with the Thomas Hill family on Granite street.

Are you hard to please? We can fit you! Paulserud's.

Returned from Portland— Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnhouse returned last evening from Portland, where they have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. O. J. Brunet.

Real chicken tamales at the Plaza.

A Real Favorite

For tomorrow's lunch just come to Nininger's and order some of our delicious Virginia baked ham.

It is one of our most tempting noon specials.

Of course, we have many other noon specials, including hot and cold lunches, and you can get just what you want at any time at Nininger's.

NININGER'S
Soda Fountain and Lunches

From Portland— W. J. Hartman, insurance agent at Portland, was a business visitor in Ashland today.

School supplies at East Side Grocery. 12-5f

Attending School in Ashland— The Misses Janet McFadden, Edna Newby and Mary Adamson of Talent, will attend high school in Ashland this winter.

King Coal and Briquettes for immediate delivery. Call Carson-Fowler and Co. 16-3f

Visitors from Hills— Mr. and Mrs. Fay Potter of Hills, spent the week-end in Ashland visiting with Mrs. Potter's mother, Mrs. Kellier.

Be Thrifty—Look Nifty—Save Fifty
Men's Suits — $1.50
Ladies Dresses (plain) $1.50
Ashland Cleaning and Dyeing Works, 337 East Main

Will Leave for San Francisco— Miss Helen Sanford, who has been in Ashland for several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sanford, will leave this evening for San Francisco where she is taking nurse's training in the Francis hospital.

You can earn $10 to $15 a day selling direct to consumer, Pilsener and Muenchener beer. Entirely different. Positively nothing better has ever been produced. A wonderful money making proposition. Write immediately to The Savinar Co., Inc., 100 Front St., Portland, Ore.

Madden sells protected tires.

Returned from Vacation— Miss Mollie Otterdale, manager of the local telephone office, returned yesterday from a month's visit to Minneapolis, Minn., where she visited with relatives and friends.

Get your window screens and screen doors at Jordan Sash and Cabinet Works. 254-1f

Business Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bilderback of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday and Monday in Ashland attending business.

Young people of Baptist Church are planning to give a reception for the Normal Students on Friday, Oct. 1st. Watch for further announcements.

From Klamath Falls— Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells of Klamath Falls, were visiting in Ashland Sunday with Mr. Wells' mother, Mrs. James F. Wells. Mr. Wells is city school superintendent in Klamath Falls.

Parker and Conklin Fountain Pens at Elhart's.

Returned from Tillamook— Miss Margaret Armentrout, who has been in Tillamook for the past few weeks visiting with her parents, returned to Ashland Sunday and will resume her work as secretary to J. A. Churchill.

Ingersol, Guaranteed School Pen, $1.00 at Elhart's.

Spent Sunday in Ashland— Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roseberry and family of Medford, spent the day in Ashland Sunday, visiting with friends.

"Life-Like Likenesses," Studio Ashland on The Plaza.

Left for Los Angeles— Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Kelts and baby left yesterday for Los Angeles. They have been in Ashland for several months visiting with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kelts expect to make Ashland their home sometime in the future.

School Supplies at East Side Grocery. 12-5f

Celebration at Jacksonville— The Southern Oregon Pioneers will hold their 50th anniversary celebration at Jacksonville, Oct. 7th. Pioneers are asked to wear old-time costumes. Great preparations are being made for the celebration, and Prof. I. E. Vinick will be speaker of the day.

IS IT SAFE to drive through the streets of Ashland without Liability Insurance? Phone 21 for complete Automobile protection, don't wait until you meet with an accident. Yeo. (of course) 293-4f

Congressional Nominee Here— Newton W. Borden of Medford, democratic congressional nominee from this district, returned last evening from Portland, where he had spent a short time, while enroute home from an extensive three months' tour of southern states. Borden was an Ashland visitor this morning.

Visitors from Medford— Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wheeler and Mrs. Mary L. Mathews of Medford, were visitors at the Aaron Andrews home Saturday evening. They also visited with other relatives.

Establishing Small Station— Together with other extensive development work along the new Cascade line, the Southern Pacific company is establishing a small station 20 miles from Diamond Lake, according to F. T. Adams, employe there, who was in Klamath Falls recently. A large siding is being constructed to allow trains to pass at this point. A number of small houses for railroad men, a station and water tank complete the new stopping point. It is about 65 miles from Klamath Falls, Adams estimated. Often as many as eight long freight trains pass through that vicinity every 24 hours.

At Camp Grounds— Among those who are camping in Lithia Park are Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Spokane, Wash., and Dr. Burger and Harry Boynton of Pasadena, Cal.

Takes Position— Miss Ruth Green has taken Margaret Churchman's position as collector for the Ashland Daily Tidings.

Left for Hornbrook— C. E. Pratt left Saturday for Hornbrook, Cal., where he will spend a few days.

Drove to Corvallis— Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy and daughters, Frances and Margaret, accompanied by Miss Frances Pratt, drove to Corvallis Saturday. The Misses Margaret McCoy and Frances Pratt will re-enter the Oregon Agricultural College.

Left for Illinois— Mrs. Henry Monroe of this city left Saturday for Illinois where she will visit with her mother.

Travel Heaviest in July— The peak of travel seems to be reached each year during the month of July. Registration of non-residents were slightly lower for August than for the previous month, but more than 2,000 in excess of August of last year.

Spent Sunday in Ashland— Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chitwood of Jacksonville, spent Sunday in Ashland.

Returned to Ashland— Mrs. J. A. Churchill returned Saturday from a visit to the northern part of the state. Miss Mabel DePew of Baker, a niece of Mrs. Churchill, accompanied her aunt to Ashland and will spend the winter here and attend the high school.

Outlook at O. A. C. Good— A record breaking class of freshmen is predicted by E. B. Lemon, registrar, who looks for a 10 per cent increase in first year students, at the O. A. C., with the total registration of all regular students of 3800 for the school year. This estimate does not include summer session and short course students.

Camping Not Allowed— Valley residents are especially warned by Hugh Rankin, supervisor of the Crater National forest against camping on the shores of Fish lake or at any point near that body of water, because of contamination of the source of this city's water supply. Arrest and prosecution is promised for any violator, in addition to having said violator carefully clean up camp. Camping never has been allowed near the lake, but it has been done for some time in direct violation, it is said. —Pacific Weekly Herald.

Returned from Wyoming— Miss Hazel Shaver returned last week from Wyoming where she has spent the past few weeks. Miss Shaver will teach on the Dead Indian this winter.

Left for Eugene— Lawrence Wagner, George Francis Barron and M. A. Woods left Sunday for Eugene to enter the state university.

Returned from Everett— Miss Georgia Mooney, critic teacher at the normal school, has returned from a visit to her home at Everett, Wash. Miss Mooney drove down in her Chevrolet Sedan.

Arrived in Ashland— Mrs. W. T. Mowat and son Edwin, who have been residing in Honolulu for the past few months, arrived in Ashland Sunday. They will leave tomorrow for San Francisco to visit with Lynn Mowat before going to New York where Edwin has won a scholarship for a year's research work in Yale college.

Returned from Eugene— W. P. Walter, the new full time secretary of the Ashland Y. M. C. A., has returned from Eugene, bringing Mrs. Walter and their son Charles to Ashland. Mr. Walter will begin immediately with his work for the year which is already well organized and ready for the launching of the winter campaign.

From Mt. Shasta City— John Churchman, who works at Mt. Shasta City, spent Sunday visiting with his mother, Mrs. Elsie Churchman on Union St.

Left for Corvallis— Kenneth Hobson left Sunday for Corvallis where he will enter the State Agricultural college for his freshman year.

HOT dishes

Hot dishes for cold days. Eat plenty of meat these days, and store your body with heat-producing energy. For choice meats—phone us

Eagle Meat Market
Phone 107

MEAT MAN

Returned from Pendleton— Prof. I. E. Vinick, accompanied by Dorance Reger returned yesterday from Pendleton where they attended the round-up.

Arrived in Ashland— Mrs. Arthur Hunt arrived from Portland Sunday evening to make a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Will M. Dodge on the Boulevard.

Notice— The Ladies Elks club will not begin its meetings until the second Thursday in October.

Shopping in Ashland— Mrs. L. O. Penland of Talent was shopping in Ashland this morning.

Spent Week-End at Footh Creek— Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Helms spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Lance at Footh Creek.

FADED THINGS MADE COLORFUL AND NEW AGAIN.

Quickly, Easily, Safely
Use Twink Dye
10c; 3 for 25c
Just "Washes In" the Color.

Lithia Springs Pharmacy
Prescription Druggist
Phone 116

Let this agency help you

Adequate insurance is simply a matter of good business — the protection of your possessions against every conceivable form of disaster.

The device of a good agent has saved many a property owner from loss. Why not let us help you? We represent the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Billings Agency
Real Estate & Real Insurance
Estab. 1883 at 41 E. Main St.
Phone 211

Returned from San Francisco— Miss Leona Marsters, supervisor of music at the normal, and Miss Nellie Dickey, local attorney have returned from San Francisco, where they spent a delightful vacation.

"Nite-Hawks" Left for School— The "Nite-Hawks" dance orchestra, which played a series of engagements at the fair grounds pavilion, left Sunday for the north, where most of the members will enter college for the fall term. The personnel of this orchestra is made up of young college men from Oregon and O. A. C., all of them being musicians of more than ordinary ability.

LITHIA SPRINGS HOTEL
BEAUTY PARLOR
GEORGIA YOUNG, Beautician
Nestle Permanent Waving
Artistic Hair Cutting
French Paper Curl
SPECIALTIES
All Kinds of Beauty Work
Wynbrook's Cosmetics
A Special Preparation for Every Need

SWEATERS SWEATERS SWEATERS

Coat Style - Jackets - Vests - Tomboys and Dasher.

ALL NEW MODELS - NEW SLEEVES - NEW PATTERNS - WOOL YARNS.

Just the Thing for Now.
TOO HOT FOR A COAT - TOO COLD TO GO WITHOUT A SWEATER - PROTECT YOURSELF.

Get Your Sweaters Here.

PRICED AT
$1.95 TO $20.00

New Scarfs and Ties Now Selling, 50c and up
New Braid Trimmings and Fancy Buttons.

The Enders Company
Where Your Dollar has More Cents

CORONA AND REMINGTON PORTABLE TYPEWRITERS
FOR HOME USE

Give one to the Student in Typing and Watch them develop speed. — On Easy Terms At

Elhart's Book Store

WINING

THE THEATER BEAUTIFUL
TODAY AND TOMORROW

Thomas Meighan
TIN GODS
ALAN DWAN

Drinking the dregs of the earth and about to strike dead bottom,—a cabaret dancer shows him the light. A spectre from the past arrives and then—!

Reflector Heaters
in Two Sizes
$5.75
and $8.50
No Extra Wiring
Inexpensive to Use.

XL ELECTRIC Station
GUY GOOD
Phone 82

E. R. ISAAC & Co.
"The Quality Store" Ashland, Oregon

Wednesday Bargain Day!

40-in. Black Charmeuse Satin in a good heavy quality. Sold Regular at $2.48—Yard $1.98

54-in. Fine Woolens
in stripes, checks and bordered patterns. Values up to $3.95—Yard $1.95

66x80 Heavy Cotton Blankets
in grey, tan and white. Sold Regularly, $2.75—Pair $2.48

3 lb. Stitched Cotton Bat full comfort size, 72x90. Sold Regular $1.35—Each $1.19

FALL DRAPERIES

It's time to be thinking about dressing up your home for Winter with new draperies. Now is decidedly the best time to buy them, as stocks are more complete than they will be later.

New Home Builders Or Home Furnishers
Should consult us before selecting draperies for the new home.

McGee's
DRY GOODS

MANY SPECIALLY PRICED COLORED DRAPES ON SALE