Take Him to Church

Guests in Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King of Richmond, Cal., are in Ashland as the guests of Mrs. R. L. Reed on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. King have many friends and are well known in Ashland and Talent where they formerly lived.

Their son, Kenneth B. King and his wife, formerly Miss Alice Vanderaluis, are also well known here both having attended the Ashland high school.

Mr. King is master mechanic for the Standard Oil Company at Richmond and his son is connected with the engineering department of that institution.

Duck Hunting Two Days a Week

Local duck hunters are somewhat in arms over a move, originating apparently in Portland, to limit duck hunting to two days a week, Saturday and Sunday, during the open season.

The move, they claim, is made because these sportsmen are taking a "dog in the manger" attitude. It will probably be opposed by sportsmen here.—Grants Pass Courier.

Crabtree—Wing dams will be constructed to confine Santiam River to normal channel.

J. F. Kinnard left today for Los Angeles, following several days spent here in connection with the recovery of a car stolen from him six weeks ago and found abandoned August 8 on the Pacific highway south of Ashland, by Sergeant O. O. Nickols.

The car when found was practically out of gas and oil and had one flat tire, the reason it was probably abandoned by the unidentified thieves.

The Modern Housewife Will Appreciate This Suggestion

To you who may be accustomed to pay high prices for imported oils, the invitation is extended to try Mazola in French Dressing or Mayonnaise—taste it—compare it—have your guests pass judgment.

You, too, will then agree that you can search the world over—pay what you will—you can find no finer—no better oil than Mazola.

Mazola is an absolutely pure vegetable oil pressed from the hearts of full-ripened corn kernels. Regardless of its economy, Mazola is purchased solely for its genuine wholesomeness, its sanitary method of packing, its appetizing flavor and its unexcelled qualities for making all varieties of salad dressings.

FRENCH DRESSING

8 tablespoons Mazola 1/2 teaspoon Salt
3 tablespoons Lemon Juice 1 teaspoon Sugar
or Vinegar 1/2 teaspoon Paprika

Mix dry ingredients. Add Mazola and lemon juice or vinegar and beat until creamy. This dressing may be made in larger quantities and kept in a bottle and shaken as used.

This is the regulation recipe for French Dressing, but the proportions of oil and acid may be reversed to make it a little more tart for those desiring a sharper dressing.

A little Chili Sauce or Catsup also gives added piquancy.

No more, no less... but Quaker Oats has the flavor

THE difference in breakfast oats is in their flavor. The price mostly is the same.

Millions demand the Quaker brand because of its toasty, wonderful flavor. For flavor is the important point in food.

Some 50 years were spent perfecting that famous Quaker flavor. Once you taste it, you are spoiled for ordinary oats.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Protein, carbohydrates and vitamins and "bulk" are thus combined to make Quaker Oats an excellently balanced ration.

Get Quick Quaker (cooks in 3 to 5 minutes) or Quaker Oats today at your grocer. See how much finer tomorrow's breakfast will be than today's.
