Growers Worried Over Large Crop

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 21.—Ranchers of Douglas county are worried because of a large prune crop, this perhaps being the first time such a condition has ever troubled fruit producers. The crop this year is so large that growers are facing a problem in drying it because of the shortage of dryers in comparison with the size of the crop.

YANKEES PREPARING FOR WORLD'S SERIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Yanks came home Monday night to prepare for battle. Some of the players who shouldered their grunting way through a little host of enthusiastic fans at the station were veterans of three world's series. Big Babe Ruth, particular object of attention, has seen service in six of these championship affairs. Miller Huggins, nearly concealed among his stalwart charges, ordered everyone out for duty Tuesday afternoon, when the Yankees will start tuning up for their series opening on Saturday.

"Seven-Two"

Meet Milus Shoun (at left) of the Carson-Newman College football team. Milus lays claim to being the tallest grider in collegiate captivity, standing two inches above the seven-foot mark (not on the tips of his toes either.) With him is "Red" Tucker, "5-7," another football aspirant. They are the Mutt and Jeff of the team.

"Doc" Wright is Leading Pitcher In Coast League

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—"Doc" Wright, Los Angeles veteran, leads the Pacific Coast league pitchers on the basis of average released last night. Wright has won 19 games and lost six for an average of .760. Hamilton, also of the Angels, is second, with 22 wins and eight defeats for .742. Bert Cole, Mission, has won 28 games, but his 10 defeats bring his average down to .737.

Two Umpires for Series Selected

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—President Heydler of the National League announces that Umpire Hank O'Day and Bill Klem have been appointed as arbiters representing the National League in the forthcoming world's series. O'Day and Klem are veterans of many a championship series and are regarded as two of the most capable umpires in the major leagues.

RICKARD PLANNING ELIMINATION BOUTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The Behemoths of boxing, the mastodons of modified murder and all the cumbersome, cauliflower-headed crew of canvas-kissers in captivity have been conjured up by Tex Rickard for an elimination contest to decide which is the most worthy to fight Gene Tunney for the heavyweight crown. The promoter plans to start matching heavyweights with an eye to developing a "logical contender." The wedding out process at Madison Square Garden probably will take the rest of the year.
