Fire Programs Given

In all the churches, the day was marked by splendid programs; sometimes given by the small people, sometimes given by those of older growth; the Sunday school and church service being combined.

Large attendance marked the day at the Methodist church with interesting plans for the day.

At the Christian church there was much enthusiasm and large attendance, with exercises of interest to every one.

All day services marked the day at the Baptist church, with the Primary and Juniors presenting the program. Diplomas were given both divisions.

Dr. W. T. Milliken occupied the pulpit in the morning with a basket dinner for the membership at the noon hour.

Both afternoon and evening there were special meetings with special numbers for every service.

At the Presbyterian church, the Sunday school and church services were merged with an illustrated sermon by the pastor, the Rev. H. T. Mitchellmore.

There were special meetings at both young peoples' organizations with special musical numbers.

The evening was given over to the Juniors, who presented a varied program, with an illustrated lecture after which diplomas to graduating Juniors, Marlon Mitchellmore, Maxine Emory, Jeannette Stearns and Janet Gould were presented by the pastor.

The new Congregational church was used for its first service yesterday, although it is not completed.

The morning hour was given over to the children in an interesting program, closing with a short talk by the acting pastor, the Rev. Mr. Bollinger.

At the evening service Mrs. J. M. Whitcomb sang a beautiful solo during the offertory.

Beautiful decorations were seen in all the churches.

It is a matter of regret that other programs were not obtained.

Floral Society Meets— "Chrysanthemums" will be the subject of the discussion at this evening's meeting of the Ashland Floral Society and all interested in the culture of that beautiful flower are asked to attend.

The society meets at 8:00 p. m. at the library. Members are urged to come.

Bereans Entertained— The Berean Class of the Baptist Sunday school will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Robert Johnson on Scenic Drive, this coming Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson will be assisted by Mrs. Gilmore.

Entertained at Dinner— Honoring the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Miss Frances E. Johnson and Mrs. L. J. Ott, Mrs. H. W. Andrews was hostess at dinner Friday evening at six-thirty, with covers laid for nine guests.

Music, vocal and instrumental, story, reading and interesting experience made the evening unusually pleasurable.

Those enjoying it together were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Miss Frances Johnson, Mrs. L. J. Ott, Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Adams, Miss Nora Ward, Miss Clara Anderson and Mrs. Andrews.

Mrs. M. B. Bailey, Hostess at Dinner— Mrs. M. B. Riley, with her mother, Mrs. Norman, of High street were hostesses at a delightfully attractive dinner Monday evening last, honoring the out-of-town guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Mrs. L. J. Ott and Miss Frances Johnson of St. Louis, who are spending a few weeks in Ashland.

Covers were laid, at the prettily appointed table, for seven, for the delicious four course dinner which was served at five-thirty o'clock. Many of the dishes served were southern and prepared as only a southerner can prepare them.

The evening was spent in the happy visit of good friends. Interesting stories and reminiscences occupied the time until good nights were spoken.

Those enjoying this delightful hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robertson, their guests, Mrs. L. J. Ott and Miss Frances Johnson, and Mrs. Grace E. Andrews.

Card Party Given— The Auxiliary to the American Legion expect to give a bridge tea at the Parish House, Wednesday afternoon of this week.

It was decided to do this at the last business session of the Auxiliary, which met in Pioneer Hall.

Since the Legion has rented the hall for a club room for Legion and Auxiliary, the ladies of Auxiliary are planning the furnishings, and are securing the necessary funds in a series of entertainments, the first of which is the bridge tea, at the Parish house.

Hostesses are appointed for the afternoon and different ones are in charge of the tables.

Junior High P. T. A. Meets Tomorrow— Junior High P. T. A. Circle meets Tuesday, October 5, at the Junior High Building at 8:30 p. m.

It is hoped that every parent interested in the welfare of the children will be present to help plan the work for the year.

The meeting is for organization, primarily, and a full representation of the membership is urged to assist in arranging the work.

Venison Dinner

Mr. Frank Hamilton was host at an elaborate, four course venison dinner Wednesday evening, at the pleasant home of Mrs. R. L. Reed on Church street.

Beautiful appointments made the table most attractive and the autumnal decorations were very effective.

The guests enjoying this pleasant hospitality were Messrs. Emmett Gillings, Elwood Hedberg, Millard Grubb, Gerald Wenner, Dr. Roland Allen, friends of Mr. Hamilton.

The piece de resistance of the delightful dinner, was the result of the hunting prowess of Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Wenner.

Homemakers' Institution— Club women and all others interested in the "Homemakers' Institute" to be held in Medford October 20 to 23rd, are again asked to keep the dates for this helpful gathering.

The Home Economics Advisory Committee are working out the details of the meeting. These include hostesses for each day, decoration of the rooms and the social hour, for acquaintance and fellowship which will follow the program each day.

It is the plan for the Civic Club to furnish hostesses for part of the time.

The Ashland Floral Society will also be responsible for flowers for one of the days.

The formal program will be announced soon, that everyone may know of the treat in store for those who make the effort to go.

Alpha Club Meets— Last Tuesday, the Alpha Club of Alpha Chapter O. E. S. met at the Masonic Hall for an afternoon of pleasant companionship and worthwhile work.

The hours were devoted to making articles for the bazaar, which they plan for November 30, 1926.

Word had been sent to the absent members, and a number have sent beautiful and useful articles for the bazaar. This thoughtfulness is much appreciated.

Mrs. Warren Cook is chairman of the visitors' committee. It is pleasant to note that there are often out of town members in attendance at the meetings.

Wednesday Club Meets— The Wednesday Afternoon Club will hold the first meeting in October, the second Wednesday of the month.

This organization usually meets in the church parlors, and on this date will convene there, at 2:30 p. m., with hostesses in charge who will have planned an interesting afternoon.

At this meeting one of the pleasant things arranged will be the making of paper flowers. Every one interested, is invited to come and learn how, if she does not know, or help others if she does.

On other occasions the Club has made pretty quilts, which are to be sold to swell the treasury of the organization.

All members and friends; strangers particularly, are invited to attend these afternoons. Come, get acquainted; have a pleasant time and every one present may help with whatever is planned to do during the social hour.

Congregational Missionary Society Meets— The Missionary Society of the Congregational church will meet in regular session, Thursday, October 7, at the home of Mrs. Agnes Herndon Beach street.

There is a very interesting program prepared for the afternoon. Members and friends are invited to be present at the meeting.

Events of the Week at the Methodist Church— Tuesday evening of this week the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies invite all the women of the congregation to attend a "Rally", with an interesting program and social hour, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

On Friday afternoon the Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. R. McCracken of Valley View at 2:30 p. m. If the weather is inclement the meeting will be at the church.

The Official Board, with the cooperation of the Epworth League and the Ladies Aid Society will hold a reception on Friday evening for the students and faculty of the Normal school and the teachers of the city schools.

All the members of the church are urged to come out and welcome those who will be the guests of the church.

Board of Education Entertains— The Board of Education and their wives entertained the Ashland City teachers and the President and Faculty of the Southern Oregon State Normal School, Friday evening, at a delightfully planned reception, at the Lithia Springs hotel.

Including special guests, there were approximately ninety present to enjoy the attractive function.

Superintendent G. A. Briscoe, Mr. J. H. McGee, Mrs. Louise Peruzzi, Messrs. V. O. N. Smith, Homer Billings, J. H. McNair and Fred Engle were in the receiving line.

As guests entered, they were directed to a table, where gay caps in rainbow hues were given them; these were donned after the name of the wearer had been affixed. These served to break the ice and by way of introduction.

A musical program was given during the evening, in which piano solo, vocal solo, community singing with accompaniment of piano and ukelele all contributed to the pleasure of the guests.

Miss Raguse, who has music and drawing in the schools, played a piano solo in opening; lighter leading the ensemble singing in spirited fashion. The lively accompaniment was furnished by the Misses Madga and Marie Mitchell, at the piano, with the Misses Ellen Gale, Lucille Carson and Edith Brookmiller playing the ukeleles.

Two selections were sung very pleasingly by Mrs. W. M. Briggs, Miss Lolita Pearson was her accompanist. All the musical numbers were especially well received.

It was announced during the evening that there would be a circus, with different groups furnishing the side shows. These groups were under competent leadership, in members of the Board of Education.

They, in turn, selected their performers, the "spicler" and the stage settings.

The six groups presented entertaining performances; each entering into the fun wholeheartedly. The acts put on were clever and amusing; none of the groups duplicating the others' programs.

Queen Esthers Meet

The group of young girls forming the Missionary Society known as the Queen Esthers met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Henry Carter, on Alta Avenue.

It was purely a business meeting; largely to determine on time and place of meetings.

Since this session was so late in the month, the next meeting will be the third Monday in October. The usual time is the first Monday evening of each month.

Miss Marie Moon will be hostess in October.

Indoor Picnic— A wonderfully interesting day was spent by a group of friends Saturday, which had for a climax an indoor picnic near Grants Pass.

In spite of lowering weather, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson, their guests, Mrs. L. J. Ott, Miss Frances E. Johnson, Miss Pearl Covert, all of St. Louis; the last named but recently arrived from California where she spent the summer, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, the Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Mitchellmore, Lawrence Mitchellmore, Mrs. George Brookmiller and daughters, Lorraine, Edith and Betty decided upon a day in the open.

They started north, to stop when they found a place that just suited them, which they did near Grants Pass, at Milam's Camp.

Here the party halted; they were invited into the library at the camp; tables were brought by their host and the bountiful feast was spread. After the delightful ride through the rain, every one was the possessor of an appetite commensurate with the array of good things to be consumed.

The delightful meal ended with the jolly accompanying visit, they started homeward, the drive up the valley, a happy close to a happy day.

Mrs. E. A. Woods— Mrs. E. A. Woods was hostess at a very delightful afternoon, Friday of last week, with a group of friends invited to enjoy it with Mrs. L. J. Ott and Miss Frances Johnson, who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

An impromptu program, to which each guest contributed in song, story, piano solo or reading sped the hours, at the close of which the hostess served fragrant coffee and rusks as a part of the delicious luncheon.
