An Appreciation—

In announcing my resignation as Society Editor, which takes place today, I wish to express my deep appreciation of the uniform courtesy and helpfulness of every one in making these columns a success.

There has been plenty of hard work connected with the task, but there's been pleasure, too. I have enjoyed the friendly intercourse and the pleasant contacts from so many groups. It has been a real joy.

I thank you all, sincerely, and I wish to enlist the same kindly interest for the one who will assume the work next Monday.

A Word to the Wise—

Ashland Study Club Meets—
Mrs. G. G. Eubanks was hostess at Monday's meeting of the Ashland Study Club.

This was the first meeting of the year and a business meeting preceded the program hour.

During the roll call, a letter was read from Mrs. T. J. Malmgren, who was in Paris at the time it was written.

The Forsythe Saga, by Galsworthy, was reviewed by Mrs. F. D. Wagner. This is the first of a trilogy; the story of a wealthy middle class family, which the author carries through a number of generations.

The splendid review was much appreciated by the club. Work was assigned by Mrs. Peruzzi, who has charge of the parliamentary drill. There was a good attendance, the majority of the members being present.

Chicken Dinner—

Tomorrow evening the young people of the Presbyterian church are entertained at a chicken dinner at 6:00 p. m., in the Junior room.

To this all students of the Normal who attend or who expect to attend the Presbyterian church are cordially invited.

A program of entertaining readings and musical numbers will add interest to the occasion.

Young folks are to keep the date in mind and attend if at all possible, for an evening of real enjoyment is promised, and an opportunity given to make the new comers very welcome and at home.

Entertained at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells, who have an apartment at the Lockhart home at 712 Boulevard, entertained at a very delightful dinner Sunday at six o'clock, with covers laid for Mr. A. G. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Haney, Mr. G. W. Benedict, the host and hostess, their four daughters, the Misses Myrie, Lois, Clare and Bernice and Miss Ruth McNeil.

The Wells' family have recently moved to Ashland for the benefit of its schools and are old Douglas county friends of the Benedict family. In fact it really was a Douglas county reunion for all the guests had been residents of Douglas county.

Pretty flowers and fruits, added brightness to the table. After dinner the evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music and in the visit of old friends.

Baptist Young People Entertain—

"On Friday evening last, the Baptist young people gave a most delightful party for about forty of the Normal students, in the social rooms of the church.

The rooms had been made very bright and attractive in Autumn leaves and in streamers of crepe paper, which were in the Normal colors of sand and vermilion.

Wonderfully interesting and entertaining games had been planned for their entertainment and all participated enthusiastically in the fun.

About nine-thirty delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Many of the Baptist young people were present to enjoy, with their complimented guests, the hours of fun and thorough enjoyment.

Those present expressed their appreciation of the happy evening.

This account of the pleasant affair did not reach the editor in time for Monday's issue, much to her regret.

Report of State Board Meeting—

"The state board meeting of Daughters of the American Revolution was held in Oregon City, September 25, at the old historic home of John McLoughlin, with the Susannah Lee Barlow chapter acting as hostess.

After an inspection tour of the building, which had been moved from its original site to a place in the city park, the meeting was called in the room used as an office by McLoughlin, with Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, State Regent, presiding.

Besides state officers, committee chairmen and chapter representatives several special guests were present. Miss Anne Lang, vice-president general, Mrs. Wa-

Attractive Dinner—

Mrs. Jean Hastings was hostess Saturday evening at a very attractive bridge dinner, with covers laid for four.

After the delightful dinner, the guests and hostess enjoyed bridge until a late hour.

Alpha Chapter Guests of Aloha Chapter—

Alpha Chapter, No. 1, O. E. S., are invited as guests of Aloha Chapter, No. 61, Klamath Falls, on Tuesday evening next.

The officers of Alpha Chapter are asked to exemplify the work expected. A wonderfully pleasant evening is expected.

Past Noble Grand's Club Meets Friday—

The P. N. G. of Hope Rebekah Lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Worthington Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Every member of the Club is cordially urged to attend this meeting—the first of the winter season.

haskie, State Regent of Montana and Miss Carolyn Humphreys, who gave an interesting account of her three years work as California state chairman of the Daughters of American Revolution work at the Angel Island immigration station.

Reports from officers and chairmen showed a good beginning on this year's work. Mrs. U. G. Smith reported three using the student loan fund.

At noon an adjournment was made to the chamber of commerce rooms where lunch was served to the visitors.

A delightful part of the lunch hour was the trio of musicians, violin, cello and piano and the songs of Miss Dorothy Hedges.

Eva Emery Dye, who is a member of the Oregon City Chapter, was introduced and spoke of "McLoughlin and Old Oregon" and how she came to write this book. Each guest was then presented with a copy of the Declaration of Independence.

The courtesy of the Meier and Frank store in lending the engraved plates, and of the Oregon City Enterprise in printing them, enabled the Susannah Lee Barlow chapter to make this gift.

Those attending from Ashland were Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, State Regent, Mrs. H. O. Anderson, state corresponding secretary, and Mrs. H. A. Stearns.

Upper Valley Community Club Meets—

The first meeting of the Upper Valley Community Club will occur Tuesday, October 12, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Brown on the Boulevard road.

Since Miss Brewster's successor has not arrived, there will be no Home Demonstration Agent present, as is usual, but there will be a very important meeting, not withstanding.

It is expected that plans will be discussed for the winter's study, and the program formulated.

Every member of the Club and every one who would like to be or any one interested in the welfare of the community along any line is cordially urged to be present at this meeting.

Ground was broken Wednesday for the new Club House and the interest of every club member centers about it just at present.

A report of Tuesday's meeting will be published in a later issue. Those present were Mrs. Harvey, Cliff, Mrs. E. J. Farlow, Miss Lillian McWilliam and hostess, Mrs. Hastings.

Business Meeting, Auxiliary—

The Auxiliary to the American Legion held a very important business session Monday evening of this week.

There was an excellent attendance, and an enthusiastic meeting. Arrangements were made for the Bridge Tea which was held Wednesday afternoon.

Other than that, the Auxiliary perfected plans for making gallons of apple butter to send to Hospital 77, Portland.

It is expected to gather the apples for the butter and have the cannery make it.

Any one who has apples to donate for this purpose, or who will allow members of the Auxiliary to gather the apples for this purpose is asked to phone Mrs. Audrey Myers.

If people will donate the apples the members will be glad to go and get them or if the orchardist will let them have them for the picking, they will appreciate the courtesy very much, and the donor of the apples will have a part in the worthy undertaking.

Reception for Students—

A reception is being given tomorrow (Friday) night at the Christian church for the Normal students who attend or expect to attend there.

The leading feature is a chicken dinner, which is in charge of the members of the Social Circle, who will prepare and serve it.

The "White Elephant Class" of the Sunday School will receive and have planned the program and entertainment for the complimented guests.

Those coming are allowed to bring a friend.

The church is being nicely decorated in honor of the occasion.

Daughters of the Nile Meet—

The attention of all Daughters of the Nile is called to the meeting in Grants Pass Saturday.

A luncheon is served at 12:30, after which the regular meeting is held.

All members who wish to go are to let Mrs. Hal McNaair know by Friday noon so that arrangements may be made.

It is asked that every member make a special effort and attend the meeting.

Past Noble Grand's Club Meets Friday—

The P. N. G. of Hope Rebekah Lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Worthington Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Every member of the Club is cordially urged to attend this meeting—the first of the winter season.

Delphians Meet—

The Delphian Society, Beta Chapter, will hold its initial meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Lithia Springs hotel.

All Chapter members are asked to keep the date in mind.

Foreign Missionary Society Meets—

Mrs. Kelsey of High street was hostess for last Friday's meeting of the Womens Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church.

There was a splendid meeting with good attendance, and a program of deep interest to the members.

It was hoped to secure a fuller account from the press chairman of the organization but the editor was not able to get in touch with her since the meeting.

Delightful Party—

"A very enjoyable affair was given at the home of Mrs. J. A. Putman on Saturday evening.

It was a dinner, given in honor of her Sunday school class, which had just been promoted to the Senior White Elephant. It was served at 6:30.

The table was beautifully decorated in richly colored Autumn leaves, with a lovely centerpiece of dahlias.

To show their appreciation of the teacher who has so faithfully taught them for a year or more, they presented her with a large silver berry spoon.

The evening was spent in singing and in playing games.

Those who were present at this happy affair were: Grace B. Putman, Jean Putman, Amanda King, Opal Blaker, Mercedes Tonner, Lucille Reeder, Virginia Harper, Beulah Yerlan, Eunice Haeger, Lucille Voss, Minola Gosnell, Vera Wright and Ruth Harver and the hostess, Mrs. Putman.

Announcement to Federated Clubs—

The following announcement is of keen interest to all Federated Clubs of Jackson county or to those who plan this year to join the Federation.

Your chairman for the county, Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, has been notified that the Oregon Federation News is no longer private enterprise, but has been taken over by the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. This makes all new stories now sent for your very own paper.

The September issue has been delayed, because of the change of management, but the October issue will be out on schedule time.

Your chairman asks that contributions for the October number be sent immediately. Stories of the opening activities of your organizations should reach the editor of the "News" by the tenth of this month and hereafter news for each month should be sent just at the earliest possible moment: always by the tenth.

Three types of contributions are desired:

1. Stories of club activities—Those within the club, and those of a civic or social nature.

2. Personal stories of our club members. These should be briefly told, and may be of those who "come and go" of personal achievements, etc.

3. Feature stories of from 500 to 1500 words in length on any subject of interest to women. These articles should, if possible, be typewritten.

The "News" represents every club in Oregon. Monthly club items and stories from each club in the county will be greatly appreciated.

Your chairman asks that each club appoint a press correspondent who will be responsible for the news of the club and who will keep in touch with the county chairman.

Valley View Community Club—

At its recent business meeting, the plans proposed by the program committee for the year's study, were pretty thoroughly discussed.

Much interest was evidenced in the plans and the club feels that a profitable and helpful year is promised.

Committees were appointed, for the various activities and the usual routine of business taken care of, at this first session.

The study plan includes a travel study, with music, readings and the social hour by way of variety.

The next meeting will be the fourth Thursday of October (28th) but the regular time of meeting is the third Thursday of each month; the change in this month because of the Homemakers' Institute "which is held in Medford the third week, and many will wish to attend that gathering."

The club met at the school house which is the social center of the community, with Mrs. J. R. McCracken, hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Lennox.

Home Missionary Society Meets Friday—

Mrs. J. R. McCracken of Valley View is hostess for Friday afternoon's meeting of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church, which convenes at 2:30 p. m. She will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Gallatin.

All who wish to go, are to meet at the M. E. church at 2:30 p. m. where cars will be available to take them to the McCracken home.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken, State Regent, Visits Chapter—

Mrs. Gordon McCracken, State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, with the State Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. H. O. Anderson and Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, local Historian, representing Mount Ashland Chapter, vice the Regent, Mrs. Harriet Fielding, who was unable to go, were guests of Eulalona Chapter of Klamath Falls at a banquet and meeting Monday evening.

This was Mrs. McCracken's first official visit to any of the Chapters.

In compliment to the state officers, Eulalona Chapter had planned an elaborate five-course banquet at the White Pelican hotel, which was a most attractive and successful function.

Tables were arranged, with the State officials seated at the center. Dainty corsages were beside their plates and that of the local Regent. Dainty place cards, too, and beautiful bouquets of Michaelmas daisies gave grace and beauty to the board and the beautiful flag of the Chapter stood beside the Regent. Tiny silk flags came to each guest with the last course.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Regent of Eulalona Chapter welcomed the State Regent and her Secretary in a very happy fashion, expressing the pleasure of the Chapter at their presence and voiced the confidence the Chapter felt in the guiding hand of the state organization, pledging support and cooperation in her plans for its welfare.

She then introduced Mrs. Wattenburg as toastmistress, who, addressing Mrs. McCracken, proposed a toast to her, pledging friendship and loyalty to which all present gave hearty affirmation.

In Mrs. McCracken's response she expressed her appreciation of the loyalty and cooperation pledged and told briefly of her aims during the term of her regency.

Mrs. O. H. Harshbarger, former State Regent of California, but who now is an associate member of Eulalona Chapter, was introduced by Mrs. Wattenburg. The speaker reviewed briefly the origin of the D. A. R. in California and told of some of the wonderful and unusual things that California Chapters were doing; gave the history of a number of trees that have been planted by the Daughters and told of some that were fed from the soil brought from twenty battle fields and a bit from the far away home of Lafayette.

In closing the speaker presented golden chrysanthemums from the Golden State to Mrs. McCracken, expressing her friendship for and admiration of Oregon's Regent, and stressed the friendly feeling existing between the Daughters of the two states.

Mrs. McCracken responded very happily and in that response told of the many courtesies shown by California Daughters to two of Mount Ashland's members when they were ill in California.

Mrs. Anderson being called upon, gave a brief, bright account of the State Board of Management meeting, touching upon the social phase of the session.

Mount Ashland's greetings to Eulalona Chapter were given by Mrs. Andrews, for Mrs. Harriet Fielding, Regent, whom she represented at the banquet.

Mrs. Rachel Solomon and her sister, Miss Applegate, grandnieces of Jesse Applegate, one of the men honored in the erection of the monument at Phoenix, were introduced and Mrs. Solomon brought the message of Eulalona Chapter, in which she told of its four years growth, its characteristics, and its decision to place a marker on Lost River at the Stone bridge, to commemorate further the work of the intrepid pioneers.

In closing the speaker pledged fealty to the organization; local state and national, its aims and its officers, giving special greeting to the State Regent and presenting on behalf of Eulalona Chapter, a beautiful candle and candle stick, symbol of the light to be kept burning in Southern Oregon.

Again Mrs. McCracken responded to the expression of Eulalona's friendly spirit, most feelingly and pledged, with the assistance of the other state officers, and cooperation of the Chapters, to keep that light burning.

Two Daughters from Olympia, Washington, Mrs. Morrison and Miss McKenzie, brought a helpful message, and the personal greetings from the State Regent of Washington.

Mrs. Mills, who is in charge of the Children's Organization work, reported that there were fourteen applications for membership and that the name, General Canby was proposed for the Chapter, with the Modoc War, the study selected. This will be the fourth organization in the state.

Mrs. Bert Thomas described very graphically the Chapter House at Rochester, N. Y., which she had visited rather recently.

A toast to the absent members closed the formal program over which Mrs. W. E. Wattenburg had presided so gracefully.

The regular Chapter meeting followed with Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Chapter Regent, in charge. The beautiful ritual was followed in opening with the usual reports made.

Mrs. Ackley, chairman of the outstanding report of work done, Americanization work, made an

Many things, relative to the work of the Chapter were brought up, among them the magazine contest. Mrs. McCracken discussed these different activities and voiced her approbation of the work being done.

Two new members were received into the Chapter with a beautiful ritualistic ceremony, which Mrs. Jones made very impressive.

The Regent now called upon Mrs. McCracken, who discussed the reports made, and in closing called attention to National Education Week and advised cooperation with the American Legion in stressing the duty of the citizen to exercise the right of franchise; to impress upon every voter that it was his privilege and duty to vote.

Attention was called to the amendment to be voted upon this fall and advised the Daughters to familiarize themselves with content of the same.

In closing she stated that the D. A. R. was not a social, but a patriotic, educational and constructive organization; gave some of its activities and quoted from President Coolidge's speech to the Continental Congress.

After a few minutes spent in friendly chat, the visitors left for Ashland and the delightful evening has been added to the list of beautiful memories.

(Additional Society Notes Will be Found in Tomorrow's Tidings)

Good pastry is quick to make when you shorten it with Snowdrift. Snowdrift is always creamy, so it's easy to mix with the flour.

QUICK PASTRY
1 Cupful Flour
1/2 Cupful Snowdrift
1/2 Teaspoonful Baking Powder
1/2 Teaspoonful Salt
3 Tablespoonful Boiling Water

Sift together the dry ingredients and cut in the Snowdrift with a knife, keeping the mixture flaky. Then add the boiling water and cool the pastry before rolling.
