Largest class in Bible school last Sunday was the "White Elephants." Dr. Hawley teacher.
There were 54 in the herd. The Sunday school crowd taxed the seating capacity of the building.
There have been additions the last two Lord's Days at the church services, one last Sunday and six the Sunday before.
Christian Endeavor bids fair to become too large for their endeavor room and will have to move to larger quarters.
Sunday morning services, 11:15. Subject, "The Supreme Blessings."
Evangelistic song service, 7:30.
Evening worship, 8 o'clock. Beginning of a series of sermons on "Characters of the Bible." These messages are evangelistic in spirit and scriptural in character.

WONDERFUL HEALTH RE-PAYS FORETHOUGHT
Mrs. Wm. C. Fischer, 2009 Woodbourne Ave., Louisville, Ky., occasionally takes Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, which helped her over a quite severe ailment. "Yes," she says, "I still take Foley Pills, diuretic at times, whenever I feel I need them, and as a result my health is wonderful." Not surprising, for Foley Pills, diuretic, are a reliable, variable, tonic medicine, constantly in use over 25 years, promoting a most satisfactory cleansing flow so necessary to good health. Try them. Sold everywhere, No. 1

CLAIRE PRYBYLSKI Reporter

The first social event of the year given at the Southern Oregon Normal School was an entertainment in the form of a "mixer" held at the Normal School Auditorium, October 6. Approximately 250 were present, including students and faculty members. After a short program the remainder of the evening was devoted to games, stunts and dancing. Music was furnished by the special Panatrophe loaned by H. H. Elhart. Patrons and Patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Suller, Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Elhart, Mr. and Mrs. Strange.

The Northwestern Oregon Club was organized today by students of the Southern Oregon Normal School. Fifteen were in attendance and were very enthusiastic over the formation of this new club. Officers elected were: Miss Grace Morris, Portland, President; Miss Elvira Hulander Woodburn, vice-president; Miss "Mildred R. Johnson, Clatskanie, Secretary and Treasurer.

such this winter that another landing field must be procured. This city is known to be out of the fog belt, and several good sites are thought to be available on the high land a short distance south of this city. It is probable that such a landing field, if selected would be used as an emergency field on those days when the fog hovers too closely over the fair grounds landing field.

At Pasadena
Kenneth G. Ormiston was reported seen in Pasadena Thursday and while deputy sheriffs searched for the missing radio operator who the state alleges occupied the "love cottage" at Carmel with the evangelist, the preliminary trial was resumed after a full day's recess.
Bill Blivens, Gila Bend, Ariz., station agent, was reported to have partly identified a photograph of the evangelist as the woman who sent a telegram from that place to Tucson on June 15.

More Evidence
According to messages received at the district attorney's office the handwriting on the telegram compares favorably with samples of the evangelist's handwriting which were sent to Gila Bend.

cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to comply with court orders relative to the support of his wife and minor child. The hearing Monday grows out of the divorce case of Blanche S. Cunningham against Roy T. Cunningham which is pending in the Circuit Court. Mr. Cunningham is a retired army officer living at Central Point.

Blivens will probably be brought here as a witness and handwriting experts will be employed to compare the two specimens.

Robert D. Hunt, Venice diver, will probably be subpoenaed as the result of his story that publicity was the motive for continuous deep sea diving searches for Mrs. McPherson's "body" after

The Record for cooking a hot breakfast - 3 to 5 minutes

"HOT oats and milk" is the dietetic urge of the day. It's the "balanced ration" of protein, carbohydrates and vitamins—plus the "bulk" to make laxatives less often needed—that world's authorities are advising.

Now you cook it in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. No kitchen-muss or bother. Why go on, then, with less nourishing breakfasts? Today get Quick Quaker... food that stands by you through the morning. Your grocer has Quick Quaker—also Quaker Oats as you have always known them.
