Chicken Dinner at Christian Church—

A chicken dinner was given at the Christian church Friday evening, October 8, in honor of the students of the Southern Oregon State Normal school, many of whom are attendants at the Christian church services, each Sunday.

The reception rooms were attractively decorated with autumn leaves and colorful flowers which harmonized to create a soft growing effect and added a home-like atmosphere.

After the guests were made acquainted, they were ushered into a spacious, beautifully arranged banquet room. The walls and ceiling of this room were a profusion of evergreens, flowers and drapes, with gorgeous baskets of flowers forming the centerpiece on each table.

Full justice having been done to the delicious dinner, the guests went back to the reception room where they were entertained with a delightful program, which they thoroughly enjoyed.

The White Elephant Class of the church had charge of the receiving and entertaining. The Christian church extends a hearty welcome and invitation to all the normal students.

Social Circle Meets Tomorrow— The Social Circle of the Christian church will hold a business meeting tomorrow, Wednesday, October 13, at 2:30 in the church parlors.

All those who are interested in the welfare of this organization are urged to attend this meeting and get acquainted with its work and its members. A program will be given and anyone who will contribute a number to this entertaining feature will be appreciated.

Refreshments will be served by the refreshment committee.

Surprise Party for Mrs. Leach— Mrs. F. J. Ahlstrom and Mrs. Frank Feighe were charming hostesses at a delightful surprise party for Mrs. Mary Leach, on the evening of Thursday, October seventh, honoring her birthday.

The guests met at the pleasant home of Mrs. F. J. Ahlstrom and from there, went in a group to the home of Mrs. Leach.

The evening was happily spent in conversation and at a late hour dainty refreshments of chocolate and cake were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Roy Frazier. The most pleasant feature of the evening was the opening of the many beautiful and useful gifts, which were received by Mrs. Leach.

The guest list included Mrs. Lawrence Swan, Mrs. Ida Crandall, Mrs. Will Loomis, Mrs. Cris Jorgenson, Mrs. Fred Penniston, Mrs. George Larder, Mrs. Charles Lane, Mrs. Eva Jones, Mrs. E. H. Bush, Mrs. Joe Harner, Mrs. Geo. Rivasor, Mrs. Roy Frazier, Mrs. Mary Leach and the hostesses, Mrs. F. J. Ahlstrom and Mrs. Frank Feighe.

Attend College Club in Medford—

The College Women's Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. William Campbell at Medford, Saturday afternoon, at 2:30. A delightful and instructive talk on Health Education was given by Mrs. Marie Connelly Harrington of the health educational department of the Oregon Tuberculosis Society.

The social committee served dainty refreshments, after which the members spent a pleasant hour in conversation.

Those attending from Ashland were the Mesdames Peil, Wagner, Taylor, Caldwell, Redford and Misses Vincent, Ady, Perozzi, Marsters, Richardson and Mooney.

Lady Elk's to Meet Thursday—

The Lady Elk's will meet at the Elk's club rooms Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Mrs. J. G. Poor and Mrs. C. W. Winne will be hostesses.

Cards and conversation will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served by the committee in charge.

Visiting lady Elk's are most cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. W. H. Worthington Hostess at Meeting—

The Past Noble Grand's Club of the Hope Rebekah lodge met with Mrs. W. H. Worthington at her home on Laurel street, Friday, October eighth.

Mrs. Rebekah Bish of Medford, who has been a member of this organization for forty years, was the honored guest at the local meeting, and her company was greatly enjoyed by those who were present.

After the business session was over, refreshments of apple pie with whipped cream and coffee were served by the committee in charge. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Louis Schwein on Church street, November second.

Entertained at Bridge—

One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. H. Wenner, on Alida street.

Two tables were in play. Mrs. Domino Provost held high score, with Mrs. Dan Kay second.

Unusually delicious and attractive refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches shaped to represent the faces on the cards, date bars and coffee were served by the charming hostess.

Those who enjoyed this pleasant affair were Mrs. Domino Provost, Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. Jess Hastings, Mrs. Dean Scott, Mrs. Clyde Young, Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Bud Lee and the hostess, Mrs. G. H. Wenner.

Most and Hostess at Party—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ruger was the scene of a delightful little party on the evening of October 9, with Raymond Peart and Nancy Lou Ramsey, host and hostess.

The rooms were cozily decorated with soft shades of orange and black crepe paper on which were black witches and cats, representing Halloween. These decorations afforded the tiny tots with very much pleasure and delight.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Clyde Peart and Mrs. Elton Ramsey, mothers of the tiny host and hostess. The guest list included Peggy Silver, Dona Jean Frazier, Betty Herrin, Virginia Pierce, Peggy Whittle, Shirley Cushing, Betty Jane Anderson, Ethel Clary, Betty Jean Dunn, Shirley Furlan, Caryll, Rose, Bobby Brown, Billy Rutter, Paul Mars, Jr., Alexander O'Donoghue, Roger Wolf, Roy Clary, Bobby Autrey, Donald Cook, Martin Herrin and the host and hostess Raymond Peart and Nancy Lou Ramsey.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their many deeds of kindness, for their sympathy and for the many beautiful flowers.

J. W. Jarvis and Family.

BELLVIEW NOTES

Mrs. W. G. Tucker Phone 2F14

The first regular meeting of the Upper Valley Community Club for this year, will be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Brown on the Boulevard Tuesday, Oct. 11. The year's work which has been planned by a committee appointed for that purpose, will be announced, and matters of business discussed, followed by the social hour. This club always adjourns for the summer, and so takes up its work again in the fall with renewed vigor and interest.

The passing of Mrs. J. J. Myers, of Ashland, mother of Mrs. Fred Homes of this district, and of Miss Ila Myers, Principal of the Junior High in Ashland, which was announced in another issue of this paper, occurred at 3:30 Thursday morning, Oct. 7. She had been ill about a week and her going, though not unexpected, came as a distinct grief to her adoring family. She leaves besides Mrs. Homes and Miss Ila Myers, her husband, J. J. Myers, and another daughter, Fleeta, at home.

Mrs. Susanne Carter, county school supt., was a visitor in Ashland and vicinities over Thursday and Friday.

The ground for the community house is broken, and excavation for the basement finished. We are delighted, and Monday morning will see lumber and carpenters on the job and the erection of the building commenced.

Homer and Hugh Barron are again in Fort Klamath, to weigh in their best cattle to a San Francisco buyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson and small son of the Modoc Orchards, were visitors in Bellview Saturday. Frank was a resident of this community for a number of years.

The old time dance fans will have an opportunity to hear some of their favorite music over the radio by a local old time dance orchestra, very soon. They have been asked to broadcast from the new Medford station. The orchestra personnel is Boy Tucker, Frank Jordan, Jim Davis and Mrs. Jack Beagle. These players are growing in popularity, and are being constantly called from all over the valley, to play for the old fashioned dances being held in the various towns. They played first for the Bellview old-fashioned dances and so we feel that we helped to start them on their road to fame.
