Window Display Attractive—

The window display in the Raggedy Anne Sweet Shop is an unusually attractive one, being a checkerboard of black and orange squares on which are arranged the new Raggedy Anne dolly and dainty dishes of black and orange candles.

Redwood Highway Bridge Out—

The temporary bridge across Smith River near Adams station on the Redwood Highway went out in the high water caused by the recent rains. This will necessitate travel over French Hill until another temporary bridge can be built, which will require some weeks. The temporary bridge permitted travel over the "convict" road, eliminating a very narrow and steep grade.—Grants Pass Courier.

From Hornbrook—

A. B. Squires of Hornbrook, Cal., is spending the day here attending business.

NORMAL SCHOOL NEWS

CLAIRE PRZYBYLSKI Reporter

A crew of men have been working for the past ten days leveling the grounds at the Normal school and working on the tennis courts located southwest of the building. It is hoped that these courts will soon be available for use by the faculty and the students.

Senators I. L. Patterson and Dunn and Mr. C. E. Gates of Medford visited the Monday Assembly period at the Southern Oregon Normal School. They were accompanied by Mr. F. D. Wagner, Postmaster at Ashland. President J. A. Churchill introduced each of the visitors to the students. Senator Patterson spoke briefly impressing the students with the importance of the work for which they are preparing. Mr. Gates in acknowledging his introduction contrasting the preparation given teachers two generations ago and that of the present day. Senator Dunn urged that the students ever be loyal to this institution of Southern Oregon.

Mr. A. C. Strange, Instructor of Education at Southern Oregon Normal School is visiting teachers institutes in Lake and Carney counties during this week.

It's almost time for the corn crop to be ruined.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR Y. M. C. A. WORK
