BELLVIEW NOTES

Mrs. W. G. Tucker Phone 2F14

The meeting of the Bellview P. T. A. will be held at the school house Friday night, Oct. 15, commencing at eight o'clock. There will be no set program, but much in the way of business must be disposed of, and the social hour with light refreshments will follow. A full attendance is urged.

The funeral services for Mrs. J. J. Myers, mother of Mrs. Fred Homes, were held from the Stock Undertaking Parlors at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 9. The floral offering was profuse and beautiful and the Christian Science service most peaceful. Mrs. Louis Dodge conducted the service.

Ed Dunn, Jim Tucker and W. Kelly, all interested in the building of the community house, went into the woods Friday and cut timbers for supports for the big trusses in the roof. Ed furnished the trees for the timber and team for hauling them to the building site. Now we want some men to peel them.

The building began in earnest today, Oct. 11. Lumber is being hauled, and the men in charge wish every man who will help to let them know. Call at the building site just back of the school house, and get lined up. The response to the call for workers has been generous so far and we are grateful.

In looking over the October issue of Old Oregon, a magazine published every month during the college year at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, the writer found this interesting note: "Members of the Lambda Psi to be initiated into the Phi Lambda Kappa, national organization, are George Barron, Paul Wagner, Harry Woods and Marcus Woods of Ashland."

George Barron is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Homes Barron of the Upper Valley and is majoring in music at the University. So this notice is of particular interest to us.

The article said also that the Lambda Psi, local fraternity, led men's living organizations on the campus in scholarship last year. We are proud of this fact because our local quartet of boys, which has been named, are members of this fraternity.

Mr. Kelly, who has made his home with members of this community for the past year or two, left for San Francisco on Saturday afternoon's train for a visit of a few weeks. He maintains, however, that he will soon be back, for he is in love with southern Oregon climate, but cannot say anything good for that of the Bay city.

Members of the Bellview district are interested in the progress of the new golf course being constructed by enthusiasts of Ashland. Especially those who live near it. And even the staid women of the country homes may yet be donning suits and learning golf. Stranger things than this have happened.

Last summer, one of the business men of Ashland said, "when you get ready to build your club house count on me for a keg of nails." When we commenced yesterday, he made good his offer, and we are thanking Mr. Emil Peff for this donation.

Another generous giver is Mr. Thos. Simpson. He gave the building committee one-half keg of 16 penny nails, and said, "Come back here and see what I want to give you," going to the back of his store. "When you are ready for your kitchen sink I will let you have your choice of these," pointing to a lot of white porcelain sinks - and designating particularly a wide and long sink - just what we want. It is such kindnesses as these that makes the building committee in particular, also the club as a whole, glad they are alive.

I would like to mention one more and that is the gift of Dan Payne, the real estate man. "Whenever you want my donation, come in," he said. "I want to give two dollars a piece to each woman on the building committee."

There are five, and that will make Mr. Payne let loose of $10 and we all say "thank you."
