P. T. A. Delegates to State Meet.

The Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers hereby calls upon its faithful membership to send duly accredited delegates and representatives to meet in convention of the First M. E. church, Salem, Ore., October 25 to 29.

Each association in Jackson county is requested to send a report of the year's work with the names of the new president, time and place of meeting to the Jacksonville county council P. T. A. president, Mrs. C. E. Bolds, Woodlawn Orchard, Central Point, Ore., at once.

It is the duty of this council to promote the organization of new groups, give help and gain the cooperation of all their units in matters affecting the children of the county.

Any question in regard to this association will be gladly answered. Any suggestion that you feel might make this work of more benefit to the school and community will be welcome.—Mrs. C. E. Bolds, president.

Alpha Club Meets.—The Alpha Club met Tuesday afternoon, October 12, at the Masonic Hall.

Owing to the fact that a majority of the members were in Klamath Falls, the usual business session was postponed and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in a strictly social way.

Refreshments of home-made pie with whipped cream and coffee were daintily served by the committee in charge.

Wednesday Club Meets.—The Wednesday Club of the Presbyterian church held its regular monthly meeting in the church parlors, Wednesday afternoon, October 13.

The ladies spent the first part of the afternoon making paper flowers, after which a short program was presented. Mrs. C. V. Howell played two beautiful numbers on the violin accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. T. Mitchelmore. Mrs. Mitchelmore then played two numbers on the piano.

Dainty refreshments of home-made pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. F. W. Hitchcock and Mrs. J. M. Ross, who took the place of Mrs. S. D. Taylor, who could not attend on account of illness.

Social Circle Meets Wednesday.—The Social Circle of the Christian Church held its regular meeting, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., October 13, in the church parlors.

The meeting opened with a song, Mrs. Duncan accompanying at the piano, after which prayer was offered by Mrs. Fannie Cooper.

The regular business session was then held and it was decided to hold the annual bazaar and cooked-food sale on Saturday, December 11, the place to be announced later. A decision was reached to hold a social and get-acquainted affair in the evening, once a month, thereby enabling those who cannot attend in the afternoon to be present in the evening. The date of this function will also be given later.

Concluding the business session, a pleasant social hour was spent, dainty refreshments being served by the committee in charge; chairman, Mrs. Cooper, assisted by Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Crowson, and Mrs. Davis. The tables were beautifully and artistically decorated with many brightly colored flowers, roses and dahlias predominating.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, October 27.

Entertained at Dinner.—Mrs. Domino Provost was the charming hostess at a "stagg" dinner party for her husband, Tuesday evening, October 12, at her unusually attractive home on Van Ness Avenue.

At seven o'clock an exquisitely appointed five-course dinner was attractively served by the hostess. Flowers, daintily arranged, graced the center of the table. The evening was spent playing cards, and listening to the radio. Those to whom this delightful hospitality was extended were Carl H. Loveland, Bill Allen, Earl Crow, Bob Warner, Mr. Selkirk, Rilling Schuerman, Melvin Kaegi, Domino Provost and the hostess Mrs. Domino Provost.

Few Women Could Believe This Until They Tried It

FEW women believed it—until they followed the recipe below and discovered that they actually can make the most delicious Mazola Mayonnaise in five minutes.

The explanation is a simple one. Mazola blends quickly and perfectly with all other salad dressing ingredients. As you beat your Mazola Mayonnaise, it instantly becomes a smooth, firm, creamy dressing with a rich, delicious flavor only to be found in home-made dressings (in which you know all ingredients are fresh and pure).

Try this recipe for perfect Mayonnaise:

- 1 cup Mazola ½ teaspoon White Pepper
- 1 Egg Yolk ½ teaspoon Paprika
- ½ teaspoon Sugar 2 tablespoons Lemon Juice
- ½ teaspoon Salt or 1 tablespoon Vinegar

Beat egg yolk thoroughly and add Mazola one teaspoon at a time until you have a firm, creamy mixture, after which Mazola may be added more rapidly, then add your seasoning and lastly the lemon juice or vinegar, beating all well together.

Mazola is a pure, sweet vegetable oil—as wholesome and delicious as the golden corn from which it comes. Many women prefer it even to the most expensive imported salad oils which may cost twice as much.

Stories to Close Early For Play At Normal School
In order to stimulate interest in the appearance here tomorrow night of the Moroni Olsen Players in "Dear Brutus" at the normal school auditorium, most of the Ashland merchants will close their stores at 8:15 tomorrow evening in order that their clerks and the public generally might attend the play.
These talented players are being brought to Ashland under the direct supervision of the normal school faculty and students, and local residents will be given a chance to hear them at a much lower price than the people of Portland and elsewhere.
The curtain will rise promptly at 8:30, which will permit people to complete their shopping and arrive at the normal school in time for the opening act.

Indispensable For the "Snack" or the Full Meal BREAD
Sandwiches, bread-and-butter, jelly spreads between meals—all depend upon good bread as an ingredient.
