Washington P. T. A. Meets.
The regular meeting of the Washington Parent Teachers Association was held at the Washington school, Wednesday, October 13, at 3:30. Mrs. H. A. Stearns opened the meeting in the absence of the vice-president.

Mrs. Sparr.
Miss Carson had a few of the first grade children put on a pantomime song which was very much enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. I. H. Avary was elected president, and it was voted she be appointed delegate to the State P. T. A. convention at Salem, October 25 to 29.

In a short talk Mrs. Bertin Denton, school nurse, told of the financial assistance needed if hot lunches are to be served to the children who cannot go home at noon. She said that lunches could be served for 5 cents a day if the members of the organization could raise enough to pay a woman to come to the school and prepare the meal, which would be a dollar a day. The members are deciding what can be done to raise this amount, and it is hoped that they will succeed in this undertaking.

Hostess at Dinner.
Mrs. George Brookmiller was hostess at an informal dinner Monday evening, October 11, at her pleasant home on Liberty street, honoring the out-of-town guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Mrs. L. J. Ott, Miss Pearl Covert and Miss Frances Johnson of St. Louis.

After a delicious dinner, attractively served, the guests spent a happy evening in conversation and music.

Those to whom this delightful hospitality was extended were Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Mrs. L. J. Ott, Miss Pearl Covert and Miss Frances Johnson.

Camp Fire Membership.
A membership drive is under way among the local camp fire groups, and on Wednesday evening, October 13, immediately after school a meeting of all the Ashland high school girls was held, and a short camp fire program was given.

Miss Mildred Crain told the girls just what camp fire is, and what it does; and a number of songs were sung by girls already enrolled in the organization.

All girls interested in this work were invited on a Gypsy hike to take place today, October 16. The girls met at the entrance to Litchia Park at 1 p. m., arrayed in gypsy costumes and ready for a jolly adventure.

Hostess at Party, Thursday.
Mrs. Emmett Gillings was the charming hostess at a delightful party Thursday evening, October 14, at her attractive home on Oak street.

The evening was happily spent playing cards and embroidering, after which the charming hostess served delicious refreshments.

Those who enjoyed this pleasant affair were the Misses Emma Jenkins, George Coffee, Ethel Shrum, Gladys Applegate, Calla Beigle, Gertrude Biede, June McPadden and Emma Jenkins. Mesdames George Young, Gladys Taylor, Dan Kay, Paul Winters and the hostess, Mrs. Emmett Gillings.

On Tuesday, October 19, the ladies of the Civic Club will hold their regular meeting in the Civic Club House at 2:30 p. m.

NORMAL SCHOOL NEWS

CLAIRE PRYBYLSKI Reporter

The recently organized dramatic club of the Southern Oregon normal school held an organization meeting Wednesday evening at the school. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Beatrice Able, president; Miss Sara Mosier, vice-president; Miss Eldara Darnwood, secretary; Miss Elvira Hulander, treasurer.

The organization also decided to meet on Wednesday evening of each week—plans were discussed for the presentation of a Christmas entertainment.

The Rev. E. J. Johnson, of the First Lutheran church of Medford, conducted devotional exercises at the Southern Oregon Normal October 15. Mr. Johnson spoke of the opportunity the young people of today have for spiritual leadership.
