The evening was spent in conversation and embroidery, and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served at a table artistically decorated in yellow and gold. A large, beautifully made yellow paper basket filled with yellow flowers graced the center of the table, with yellow butterflies serving as favors, the same color scheme being carried out, also, in the place cards. These decorations were unusually attractive, acquiring much work on the part of the hostesses.

Those to whom invitations were extended were the Misses Gladys Applegate, Ruth Osmun, of Medford, Calla Biegel, Emma Jenkins, Ethel Shrum, George Coffee, Leta Walker, Alice Walker, the Mesdames Emmett Gillings, Dan Kay, Applewhite, Biegel, Stock, and the hostesses, Misses Gertrude and Helene Biede.

WONDERFUL HEALTH RE-FAYS FORETHOUGHT

Mrs. Wm. C. Fischer, 2069 Woodbourne Ave., Louisville, Ky., occasionally takes Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, which helped her over a quite severe ailment. "Yes," she says, "I still take Foley Pills, diuretic at times, whenever I feel I need them, and as a result my health is wonderful." Not surprising, for Foley Pills, diuretic, are a reliable, valuable, tonic medicine, constantly in use over 25 years, promoting a healthy and satisfactory cleansing flow so necessary to good health. Try them. Sold everywhere. No. 1

tumn leaves and yellow dahlias in evidence everywhere. The color scheme was cleverly carried out in the refreshments, which were delicious salad and wafers and pumpkin pie and coffee.

Bridge and five-hundred occupied the afternoon. Mrs. P. R. Backus was awarded first prize in bridge and received an exquisitely embroidered bridge luncheon set. Mrs. Beebe, Sr., won first prize in five hundred and received a beautifully made dresser scarf.

Dinner Party for J. A. Churchill—

The faculty of the Southern Oregon State Normal School gave a delightful informal dinner party at the Lithia Springs Hotel Monday evening, October 18, honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. J. A. Churchill, president of this institution.

The guests were seated at a beautifully appointed dinner, which was perfectly served. Fragrant, artistically arranged flowers graced the center of each table, and unusually original and attractive place cards were found at each cover. These cards were hand painted in delicate colors by Miss Marion Ady, head of the art department at the Normal, and they featured the pet hobby of the person whose name they bore. This afforded much amusement and fun.

The most delicious course of the elaborate dinner was the birthday cake which was made by Mrs. A. C. Strange.

A happy hour was spent singing college songs. The alumni of the Oregon Agricultural College grouped together and sang their school songs, those of the University of Oregon sang their songs, University of Washington did the same, and even the University of Idaho was represented.

Thirty-five persons attended, the guests being, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Miss Beatrice Walton, former secretary of J. H. Churchill and now employed at the state library in Salem, R. R. Turner, state superintendent of public instruction, and Mrs. A. C. Strange.

Surprise Party for Grandma Payne— An affair which has become almost an annual event occurred Thursday evening, October 21, when a party of neighbors and friends surprised Grandma Payne at her home on North Main street, the occasion being in honor of her ninety-second birthday.

During the evening, Mrs. Payne was prevailed upon to relate her experiences in crossing the plains. She was married on the fourteenth day of April, 1852 and started West in a wagon train on the fifteenth day of the same month. She said there was a merry group of young people in the train and they had very good times. Indians did not molest them and the trip, though long and tiresome, was a successful one.

After Mrs. Payne had finished her interesting story, the ladies served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

The guests, who were unanimous in wishing Grandma Payne a happy birthday, were Mesdames have a niblic in his outfit as it can be put to great use and save many strokes where a less elevated club would mean work and unsatisfactory results.

The niblic is used a little differently than any other club. Stand upright to the ball with knees bent and your heels tight to the ground. Grip the club firmly with the left hand but relax the right until the impact with the ball. Hold your head motionless and keep your eye glued on the spot where the ball rests and never allow the club head to go through the ball more than a few inches.

This leaves your left and right arms rigid as a board. As your club meets the ground the flying dust and sand will resemble an explosion but your ball will pop out fast and sure from any hardness that you may get into with the least difficulty. Just apply some straight arm pendulum motion.

APPRECIATION!
The following letter received by The Tidings today from Bert Moses, now living at Rushville, Ind., and creator of the widely syndicated "Sap And Salt" column, speaks for itself:

"The improvement made in The Tidings during the past few weeks has been so marked that I want to be among the early ones to tell you so.

"A city is known by the newspaper it supports and taking The Tidings of today as a measurement of Ashland, the city is marching ahead rapidly.

"You have in Ashland the makings of a city much bigger than it is now. When the world comes to know all about Ashland's climate, air, water, soil, scenery and opportunities, there is no telling how great your city will become.

"Much good cheer and every good wish from "Bert Moses."

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON

The fewer marriages we have these modern days, the more divorces are recorded.

That, at least, seems the obvious deduction from the marriage and divorce statistics Director of the Census W. M. Stewart has just finished compiling for 1924.

In that year 1,178,318 couples were married, or 45,606 fewer than in 1923.

Divorces, however, numbered 170,952 in 1924, as compared with 165,096 in 1923.

As population increases, one would imagine that the number of marriages would increase too.

And so it has since 1887, until 1924, with the exception of 1894 and 1904, when there were slight slumps respectively from 1893 and 1903. These Director Stewart attributes to financial panics. The record here, this theory out, for the curve was sharply upward in 1905 and 1906, suggesting that the happy couples were on Eddy street again and in a hurry to set up housekeeping.

But times were all right in 1924. "Prosperity" was the slogan on which President Coolidge was re-elected that year. The only conclusion Director Stewart can draw is that it was a period during which wedded bliss had, for the time being, lost something of its sentimental appeal.

In 13 out of the 48 states the number of marriages did increase even in 1924. What brought the total down was the decline in the other 35.

Now, why was there an increase in those 13?

Director Stewart's interpretation is that the 13 have marriage laws which are not very strict, while the joint states which are very strict indeed.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

Crowson Hill, and the re-arrangement, and renewing of our water pipes where necessary.

Third: We recommend that the bonds be voted necessary to cover the cost of the improvements above enumerated.

We further recommend that the necessary bonds be also voted to defray the expenses of the Lithia Water pipes for our wonderful park.

This seems to be a large expenditure but we sincerely believe that it is quite possible by the proper adjustment of rates at a not over 80 per cent raise, that these bonds can be retired in thirty years out of the receipts of the water department, and not by taxation.

In conclusion we wish to commend the City Council of Ashland for their wisdom in securing the services of so competent an engineer as Mr. F. C. Dillard, and for the careful and painstaking efforts they have given to the study of Ashland's outstanding problem.

Do you want to pay Two Taxes for your smokes?

You are still paying enormous war taxes to the United States Government — Now the state wants TO TAX YOU AGAIN!

The U. S. Government gets 6c every time you buy 20 cigarettes. NOW the STATE WANTS to TAX you 2c to 3c MORE!

EIGHTEEN CENTS goes to the Federal Government for every pound of your tobacco. Now the State proposes to add about 9 cents EXTRA!

It means that you will have to pay from ten to fifteen per cent MORE FOR YOUR SMOKES!

It means that you will have to pay a SPECIAL TAX for the PRIVILEGE OF SMOKING!

It means an additional horde of revenue collectors whose salaries YOU have to pay.

It means that this is the beginning of a system of STATE NUISANCE TAXES — next cigars, then gum, candy, theatre tickets, cosmetics, all for you to pay!

Is it fair to single you out to pay a special tax just because you enjoy a smoke?
