HERE FOR VISIT

J. H. Hardy, president of the local Kiwanis club, and well known grocer, is enjoying a few days visit with M. C. Draper of Eastern Washington, a former pupil of Mr. Hardy's. Mr. Draper is also a brother-in-law of A. V. Hardy.

The following record of typical fires where persons were using gasoline as a cleaner shows that it cannot be trusted. To avoid the hazard send articles to be dry cleaned to a professional cleaner. If you prefer to do the cleaning yourself, see that the solvent you use is safe. Carbon tetrachloride—obtainable at most drug stores—is both safe and efficient.
