The music for Thursday evening's dance will be furnished by an assembled orchestra, featuring several of the members of the popular Grants Pass Cave Shop Boys. A special invitation has been extended to Master Masons and the members of the DeMolay lodges in Ashland, Yreka and Klamath Falls.

Chapter AC, P. E. O. Meets—
Mrs. Mattie A. Bodine, state organizer of the P. E. O. sisterhood, spent Saturday in Ashland on an official visit to Chapter AC. The membership met at half past twelve at the Lithia Springs hotel, where they were seated at luncheon in the small dining room.

The menu was most attractive and the table was decorated with yellow and white. After the delightful luncheon hour the members drove to the home of Mrs. Sam McNair on Scenic drive where the afternoon was spent in discussion of the chapter.

Merley Circle Meets—
The Merley Circle of the Baptist church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. O. Anderson on the Boulevard. The Halloween idea was carried out in both refreshments and costumes. Every one being presented with a wonderful cap adorned with black cats and witches.

The afternoon was a happily spent in pleasant conversation and making articles for the bazaar, which is to be given sometime in November.

Mrs. S. A. Peters, president of this organization, called the meeting to order for a short business session, Mrs. Ella Oxford leading in prayer.

Concluding the business session, delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie and apple juice were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Curtis Lusk, Mrs. N. Heard and Mrs. James Boyd.

Those who enjoyed this delightful affair were Mesdames Hinthorn, George Baughman, Curtis Lusk, Alfred Segaworth, Jeannette Tomney, Jas. Boyd, H. C. Hanson, H. P. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson were passing through Ashland some time ago when Mr. Erickson was suddenly stricken with serious illness and was taken to the Community hospital for treatment. When it became known that Mr.

and Mrs. Erickson were members of the Baptist church the Baptist people went to their rescue and they were taken to rooms at the H. O. Anderson home, where the patient is now convalescing, and both Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are enjoying our beautiful Ashland weather of the last few days. They are very grateful to their church people for the many kindnesses shown them.

Who-Do Class Gives Party—
The Who-Do Class of the Methodist church gave a delightful party in the church parlors Thursday evening October 28, and many of the members being guests.

The rooms were elaborately decorated in Halloween colors with large baskets of Chrysanthemums placed here and there.

At six-thirty p. m. about seventy-five guests enjoyed a delicious dinner, after which Mrs. E. V. Harris, of the Southern Oregon State Normal school gave several interesting readings.

The evening was spent playing games, telling ghost stories and telling fortunes. This party was one of the most enjoyable affairs, which has been given by the Who-Do Class.

Camp Fire Girls Party—
The Camp Fire Girls of Ashland entertained their parents at a Mother-Dad party on Wednesday evening in the high school gymnasium.

Miss Mildred Crain gave an address of welcome to those present and then called on Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, a camp fire mother, to give her views of the work carried on by the members in this organization. She pointed out many of the valuable phases of camp fire work, and expressed her sympathy and good will toward this work.

Mr. A. C. Joy, speaking for the fathers, showed the girls what they owe to their parents and guardians who so willingly give of their time and money in order that their girls may take part in camp fire activities. He, too, heartily endorsed camp fire and its work.

Superintendent George A. Briscoe spoke of camp fire ideals, and what they should mean to camp fire girls. Ellen Galey told the meaning of camp fire, and just what it has meant to Ashland girls who belong to the organization.

The rest of the program consisted of games, stunts and songs. Rose Atkins played a beautiful cello solo, which was very much appreciated by her audience.

Cider and doughnuts were served at the close of the pleasant evening. Both parents and daughters enjoyed the evening, and feel that they understand each other because of it.

"barn" was made through a long dark passageway where one was greeted with gruesome sights, weird noises and typical Halloween stunts.

The barn effect was cleverly carried out by means of an elaborate scheme which reflected time and effort, and which completely changed the appearance of the large dance floor.

Fine music by the Teonerville orchestra, vocal numbers by the farmers, and special stunts in keeping with the occasion added to the enjoyment. Rural costumes were worn by the floor committee, the orchestra and many of the guests and formal attire was conspicuous by its absence. Halloween caps, horns and favors were distributed during the evening and put to good use by everyone.

One of the leading entertainment features was a clever rendition of the "Valencia" by several couples of Mrs. Eve Hanson's dancing class. The live turkey which was given away was won by George Nichols.

The whole evening was one continuous round of pleasure and much credit for the success of the affair is due to the committee who put it over, consisting of the following: Fred Webb, chairman, Larry Mann, Horace Broomeley, Diamond Flynn, William Young and P. C. Bigham.

WOMAN, 104 YEARS OLD, REFUSES STAGE PART

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 3 (UP)—The only thing that keeps Mrs. Emma McMahon, 104 years old, from entering into dramatic work is that she is afraid there "isn't much future in this stage business."

HOW HE "FELT NO BETTER FOR THAT"

A man from Nebraska tells this: "For three nights I was kept awake by a bothersome persistent cough, and so were others of the family; and I felt no better for that. The way that doses of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me and in two days' time my cough was entirely gone." Think of the saving of distress to himself and others, had he taken Foley's Honey and Tar Compound at the start. It pays to keep it on
