Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON—Washington is looking forward to a red hot session of Congress this coming winter, as a sequel to Senator Jim Reed's activities as a primary election investigator.

Probably there will be no definite action until the 70th Congress meets, but there will be plenty of talk in what's left of the 69th.

It will be talk, too, in which big names will figure.

The men to whom the names belong are not all involved personally in the scandals Senator Reed has been digging into, but at least they've been referred to in his inquiry, which will be an excuse for mentioning them again in debate at the capitol.

Senator Watson, Senator Moses, Senator Mayfield, Imperial Wizard Evans of the Ku Klux Klan, postmaster General New, ex-Postmaster General Will Hays, ex-Governor Goodrich of Indiana, Everett Sanders, Congressman Vare, Frank L. Smith of Illinois.

All these are characters, of one sort or another, in the story Senator Reed has been developing.

Senator Watson, to be sure, says the chapter about him is "absolutely false." Sanders, secretary to the president, appears in the narrative only long enough to declare that rumors of a political deal between Watson and Mayfield were "ridiculous." Nevertheless, all these names are woven into the story's plot and add interest as big names do.

Write him for one. He also wants County and State Distributors who can make $500 to $2500 monthly.
