Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen Give Dance—
 The Royal Neighbors and the Modern Woodmen will give an old-fashioned dance in the Moose Hall, Friday, November 19.
 Good music has been engaged and everybody come and have a good time. Refreshments of pie and coffee will be served free of charge. Gentlemen 50 cents, ladies 25.

Change in Date of Music Study Club—
 The Music Study Club will meet in the Presbyterian church parlors the fifth Monday, November 20, instead of the fourth Monday, November 22.
 This is due to the fact that the Normal school play will be given on November 22.

Entertains Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart in San Francisco—
 Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Norton were the host and hostess at a delightful dinner party at their pleasant home on Divisadero street, San Francisco, honoring Mrs. Norton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reinhart of Ashland, who are in that city visiting with their children.
 The rooms were a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, which were very attractively arranged. A large bouquet of dainty violets graced the center of the table, with clever hand-painted place cards at each cover.
 The evening was spent playing cards, with Mrs. Widley and Mr. Stanton receiving high honors, and Miss Selby and Joe Reinhart consolation prize. Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart were presented with a beautiful guest prize.
 Those who enjoyed this delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Widley of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Stanton and little daughter, Ethel, of Oakland, formerly of Ashland, the Misses Celia Reinhart and Gilda Selby, who are training in the St. Francis hospital in San Francisco, Messrs Albert Cotter and Joe Reinhart, who are attending Herold's Engineering school in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. William Reinhart and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Norton.

Will Give Dance in Moose Hall—
 The Royal Neighbors and the Modern Woodmen will give a public old-fashioned dance in the Moose hall, Friday evening, November 19.
 Gentlemen 50 cents and ladies 25 cents, with refreshments included. Everybody come.

Literary Club of A. S. H. Meets—
 The Literary club of the Ashland high school met on Friday evening, November twelfth at the home of Miss Harriett Bevington on Second street.
 The time was occupied in the study and discussion of poetry, under the leadership of Miss Irene Berg, English teacher of the high school. Mrs. Bevington served the delectable of refreshments to the members.
 Those in attendance were Ellen Galey, Lorraine Sparr, Lucille Carson, Dorothy Nisinger, Nedra Bartlett, Esther Spencer, Mildred Moss, Irene Berg and Harriett Bevington.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Meet—
 The Neighbors of the Woodcraft met in the L. O. O. F. hall Monday evening, Nov. fifteenth, for a business and social time together.
 The regular business session was held, after which a delightful social hour was spent in conversation and playing games. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge. The next meeting will be on the evening of Monday, November sixteenth.

Social Circle of Christian Church Meets—
 The regular meeting of the Social Circle of the Christian church was well attended, Wednesday, November tenth.
 The ladies worked hard to prepare for the coming cooked-food sale and bazaar, which is to be given on December eleventh.
 Saturday, November thirteenth, this society served luncheon to the Daughters of the Nile, in the church parlors, at twelve-thirty and from six to six-thirty they served dinner. This undertaking was a splendid success, both socially and financially. The Daughters of the Nile all so graciously expressed their appreciation for both the comfortable and homelike dining room and for the well served luncheon.

Hellview P. T. A. Meets Friday—
 The Hellview Parent Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting in the school on Friday evening, November tenth, at 7:30.
 An excellent program has been arranged, delicious refreshments will be served by the committee in charge, and it is especially urged that all members attend as there is special business to be taken up.

Missionary Society of Presbyterian Church Holds Meeting—
 The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church is holding an all-day session today, Wednesday, Nov. 17, at the home of Mrs. J. W. McCoy on North Main street.
 A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour, followed by a comprehensive review of the book which has been used as a basis of study in the society.

Junior High Camp Fire Girls Hold Council—
 Camp Fire girls of the Junior High school held a council fire on Saturday, November 13, at the pleasant home of Mrs. Fred Hitchcock on Oak street.
 The event was planned for outdoors but the heavy rains forced the girls to change their plans. The three Junior High troops were well represented and their guardians, the Misses Nora Ward, Mell Carter, Edna Goheen and Ethel Reid were all present.
 Honors were bestowed upon several of the girls and a number took rank.

INDIANS RECRUIT MACHINE GUNNERS
 clashes have been passed out of the Juarez military district en route to Chihuahua.
 A small force of revolutionists, who came from the south of Juarez are attempting to unite with the military party that crossed into Mexico east of El Paso last week. The latter party is believed to be near Jimenez now.

SCHOOLS AND HOMES MARK SECOND STEP IN SHALE OIL
 produce the wealth that has been the goal for those who have gambled their time and money.
 The engineers built the retort, and housed it in a brick wall, they devised a way of turning nature against itself in that the natural gas which was one of the by products could be utilized for heat, to take from the shale that which they were seeking. And now fate which had been dealing the cards with the seeming smile of approval, turned against those whom she had been tempting, and proceeded to mix up the cards, with the result that the players threw them down and left the game.

New Manager
 In casting about for another player to take up the hand, she beckoned to Charles D. Crouch, a hardy man, who has had years of experience in battling the elements. After a life time spent in railroad building, he had become enured to the hardships of pioneer development work. He had many times held a winning hand only to have some freak of for-

WIDEN SEARCH FOR ESCAPED CONVICTS
 Last night and today guards have patrolled the quarry, where caverns made by huge slabs of loosely piled rock make excellent hiding places. Instead of going into the quarry and attempting to drive out the convicts, the guards are waiting for hunger, thirst and exposure to drive them into the open.
 It was not known whether the trio of criminals was armed. "If I believe they are, we will get them soon," Warden Smith said.
 "We are overlooking no bet, however, and the entire country around the prison is being searched. Guards are watching

Log Cabin On Wheels Coming Here Thursday
 A log house on wheels will be an unusual novelty on the streets of Ashland tomorrow when E. A. Wade of Olympia, Wash., will arrive here in his traveling home.
 The log house is made of a big fir log, 8 feet in diameter and 16 feet long. The center of the log was bored out, leaving only two-inch shell. The house has a bedroom, a living room, a kitchen and dining room, as well as two closets. It is electrically equipped throughout and has two folding beds.
 Mr. Wade who constructed the novel house, is now on an extended eastern tour and his trip will be made under the auspices of the Douglas Fir Extension Service.
 While in Ashland those who want to inspect the interior of the log house on wheels can procure free tickets from the Ashland Lumber company. Otherwise the admission will be 10 cents.
 Gold Beach—New Steam Laundry installs additional machinery.
