

LET'S ROOT FOR ASHLAND

TURKEY DAY CONTEST WILL DRAW CROWD

Ashland to Meet Medford Here at 2 O'clock Thursday

Ashland high school's football warriors are all ready for the shrill call of the timekeeper's whistle which will send them charging against Medford high school on the local athletic field at 2 o'clock Thanksgiving afternoon.

This is the big football day for Ashland, and indications are that a record crowd will be out to cheer the local boys during their Turkey Day battle.

Coach Cripe has been giving his charges intensive training for the past week and they are all in readiness for the hardest kind of battle.

Medford, because of superior weight and experience, is doped to defeat the locals, but the Ashland boys will be in there fighting every minute of the game and will make it a football game long to be remembered.

The big covered grandstand will provide shelter for 500 persons in case of rain, but the real football fan doesn't care what sort of weather greets him when the teams line up for play.

This will be the final game of the season for Ashland high.

Come out and root for the home boys.
