SHORT TALKS BY THOUGHTFUL MOTHERS

An Indiana mother tells this: "We find nothing to compare with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs and colds. My little lad had trouble with his bronchial tubes from his third year, but since we started giving him Foley's Honey and Tar we have been able to control it. We know there is nothing to compare with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." The very name tells a story. Good also for croup (spasmodic) and troublesome night coughs. Ask for it. Sold everywhere.

CAROL WILL VISIT HIS DYING FATHER

BY RALPH HEINSEN

United News Staff Correspondent PARIS, Dec. 2. — As a private citizen of Rumania, former Crown Prince Carol may follow his royal mother, Queen Marie, back to King Ferdinand's bedside at Bucharest. Simultaneous with dispatch of a request to the former royal heir, asking for a meeting with him possibly for the last time, the king has issued a proclamation indicating that his son shall never again be known as the heir to the throne. While awaiting a possible meeting with his mother Carol was wranded by Marshall Angelescu, envoy of the Rumanian monarch that if he does return he must permit no coup d'etat to establish himself as crown prince. Carol refused to make immediate decision when informed of the king's desire and warning, but it is believed here that a meeting with the queen may cause him to make the trip.

Optimistic reports of the Rumanian legation as to the king's condition have not reassured associates of Carol. While the legation says King Ferdinand has gained two pounds in weight it is pointed out that the hurried trip of Dr. Henri Hartman, famous French surgeon, and Dr. Roget, an X-ray specialist, to Bucharest, may hasten the king's operation. Both left suddenly after a conference with officials of the Rumanian legation.
