Monday, Dec. 13.—Art Club will have a Christmas party in the Civic Club House on Winburn Way.

Saturday, Dec. 11.—College Club meeting has been changed from Mrs. E. E. Kelly's, 911 Queen Anne, Medford, to the Y. W. C. A. rooms, Medford.

Saturday, Dec. 11.—Daughters of the Nile meet in Medford at 2 p. m.

Saturday, Dec. 11.—Rainbow Class of the Presbyterian church meets at the home of Mrs. Dement, 592 Fairview street, at 7:30 p. m.

Wednesday, Dec. 11.—Social Circle of Christian church meets in the church parlors at 2:30 p. m.

Tuesday, Dec. 14.—A. C. P. E. O. will meet with Mrs. Sam McNair.

Thursday, Dec. 16.—Baby Clinic club house, on Winburn Way.

Entertained At Bridge.—Mr. and Mrs. John R. Edwards entertained at a bridge party Wednesday evening, December eighth, at their pleasant home on Third street. Six tables were in play; Mrs. O.

A. Paulserud was awarded ladies prize, Mr. O. A. Paulserud won the gentlemen's first prize, Mrs. V. D. Miller received ladies consolation and Dr. R. L. Burdick, gentlemen's consolation. Mr. Simpkins won the prize for a very clever stunt "Tub Golf," which required great "skill" and "equilibrium."

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated with Christmas trees. Each guest received a bag of old-fashioned Christmas tandy as a favor.

The guests were Messrs and Mesdames R. L. Burdick, V. D. Miller, V. V. Mills, Nate Simpkins, E. M. Berg, H. K. Tomlinson, O. A. Paulserud, C. E. Shinn, Coggins, Wm. Briggs, Fred Cushing, George Coffee, J. F. Place and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards.

Civic Club Meets Tuesday.—The Women's Civic Community club met Tuesday afternoon, December seventh, in the Civic club house on Winburn Way.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Harris Dean, and Mrs. G. G. Eubanks led in the salute to the flag. After a short business session, the president turned the meeting over to Mrs. W. L. Maxey, president of the Delphians, who gave a most interesting and enjoyable program, as follows: Mrs. A. E. Woods played two beautiful piano numbers, "Joyful Peasant," by Robert Shurman and "Alpine Horn" by Sehner; Mrs. Lou Hansen gave two vocal numbers, "At Dawning" by Cadman and "Lullabye," a negro melody, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. A. Woods; Mrs. V. V. Mills gave a short interesting talk on the "Delphians" as an organization; Mrs. Grace Wenner reviewed "cultural events;" Mrs. Domino Provost reviewed "political current events" and Mrs. Carl Nims gave a very fine book review, "Galahad," by John Irskine.

Higher education, personal improvement and social progress is the motto of all Delphian Chapters. It is one of the largest national study clubs in America, taking its place and cooperating with Ebell, Browning and other well known study organizations in larger cities. It was organized over a year ago in Ashland and Medford and has a limited membership. Mrs. V. V. Mills was appointed supervisor for Ashland; Mrs. Frank Dean, president for the first year and Mrs. C. A. Malone, secretary. Mrs. W. L. Maxey was appointed president for the second year with Mrs. Ruth Dewes, secretary. Mrs. Rose Galey, Mrs. A. H. Pracht, Mrs. G. A. Briscoe group leaders; Mrs. F. G. Swedeburk, leader at large and Mrs. D. Perozzi, legislation.

A happy social hour was spent after this most delightful program. Mrs. P. S. Provost and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, were hostesses for the afternoon, and served tea and cakes at a very attractive table decorated with pink carnations and pink candles.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Meet In I. O. O. F. Hall.—The regular meeting of the Neighbors of the Woodcraft was held in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday, December sixth.

An interesting business session was conducted, after which the members of this lodge presented their first and oldest Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Josephine Crocker, with a beautiful plant, and as they were unanimous in wishing her many more birthdays as happy as this one.

At the close of the meeting, delicious refreshments were daintily served in the banquet room.

Social Circle of Christian Church Meets.—The meeting of the Social Circle of the Christian church was very well attended Wednesday, when they met in the church parlors.

Much was accomplished both in work and making the final arrangements for the cooked food sale and bazaar which will be held in the Yockey building on East Main street, Saturday, December 11. Many beautiful and useful articles, which will make splendid Christmas presents, are in evidence for this sale.

Any person on the west side of town who has some article for the sale and cannot bring it to the Yockey building, please phone 447-1; any person on the east side, phone 288-Y. Please have all articles there by 9 or 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. H. O. Holman, president of the Circle asks that you come to the sale early, so that you will be able to secure some of the delicious mince-meat and candies which the Circle is famous for making. Everything will be ready by ten a. m., when the public will be given courteous service.

Owing to so many activities for the Christmas season, it is thought best to omit the next meeting, which should have been on December twenty-second, and the Circle will meet instead on January 11, 1927.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were daintily served by the committee in charge which consisted of Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Flora Putnam and Mrs. Katherine Morrison.

The Social Circle is a loyal band of workers, who have always given their financial and moral support to any Christian undertaking, and it is hoped that their bazaar will be a decided success.

State Commander Will Visit Ashland Review.—Mrs. Julia V. Ward, state commander of the W. B. A. Women's Benefit Association, will visit the Ashland review, No. 22, Wednesday, December 15.

There will be a covered-dish supper, initiation and installation of officers. All members are especially requested to attend.

Sophomores Hold Initiation.—The Sophomores held their annual initiation recently in the high school building, when they admitted the freshmen into the secret and mysterious membership of the Ashland high school.

Various tests were made, after which games and conversation occupied the largest part of the evening. Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the members of the Sophomore class.

The entire class and their advisor, Mr. Henry Sheldon were hosts for the occasion.

Upper Valley Community Club Practices For Production.—The Upper Valley Community club has been practicing for some time on a vaudeville production, which they will put on in the new community house at Bellview, on the evening of December 17.

Those who have seen previous productions of this club will not need to be urged to attend, as the upper valley people have already established a reputation for splendid entertainment.

Alpha Chapter, O. E. S. Elects Officers.—The regular meeting of the Alpha Chapter, O. E. S. met in the Masonic hall, Tuesday, December 7. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Mrs. Mazie Bates, worthy patron; J. H. Hardy, worthy patron; Mrs. Leah Caldwell, secretary; Miss Lydia McCall, treasurer; Mrs. Helen McCallen, associate matron; Mrs. Emily Hammond, conductress and Mrs. Hester Carter, associate conductress.

6,000,000 DOLLARS LEFT TO ILLEGITIMATE SON.—ROME (UP)—Gaetano Bracale a waiter in a hospital here, has inherited six million dollars from his father Nullo Bracale, who nevertheless shows striking affection for the man who left him the 150 million lire. He said that he always knew that his father loved him, and that he had run off for the sole purpose of making money for his beloved son.

twenty years ago emigrated to America, abandoning his common law wife and three illegitimate children.

Although Gaetano does not well remember his father who disappeared when he was a boy, he
