Klamath Lake Club Gives Christmas Party

The Klamath Lake club of the Southern Oregon State Normal school, gave a jolly Christmas party in the Normal school auditorium, Friday evening, December tenth.

The rooms were artistically decorated with Christmas trimmings, and a large brilliant Christmas tree was placed in the center of the hall.

During the evening's entertainment, Miss Gladeth Brown gave a delightful recitation, and Miss Jenny Grover sang a beautiful solo. A charleston exhibition was given with much "skill" by one of the boys at the Normal.

Bags of Christmas candy, peanuts and apples were given to each guest. The Normal school orchestra played for the dance, which followed the program. The party was attended by the faculty and their families.

Hostess At Delightful Party—Miss Emma Jenkins was the charming hostess at a delightful party Thursday evening, December ninth, given at the home of her brother, Cliff Jenkins on Pioneer Avenue.

The evening was happily spent in conversation, fancy work and listening to the radio. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served at a table centered with a beautiful poinsettia.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Ethel Shrum, Georgie Coffe, Helene Biede, Gertrude Biede, Calla Beigle, Leta Walker, Alice Walker, the Mesdames Dan May, George Blummenhauer, Cliff Jenkins, and the hostess, Miss Emma Jenkins.

High School P. T. A. Meets

The Senior high school P. T. A., held its regular meeting in the Senior high school, Wednesday afternoon, December eighth.

Miss Helen French, cooking teacher at the high school, and her girls, gave an interesting demonstration of making cranberry pie. They told how the ingredients were mixed, the cranberry filling made and the process of baking. After the delicious pies were baked, the guests were allowed to sample them.

Following the demonstration, the usual business session was held, during which time the proposition of the girls' room was taken up, and it was decided to make this object their work for the coming year.

Missionary Society of Congregational Church Meets

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational church met Thursday, December ninth, at the home of Mrs. Donald Spencer on Iowa street.

A good program and dainty refreshments were the featured of this meeting.

Women's Foreign Missionary Society Meets

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the pleasant home of Mrs. A. Maraka on Sherman street, last Friday afternoon, December third.

Mrs. J. R. McCracken was the lesson leader, the lesson being "Moslem Women." During the afternoon Rev. H. F. Pemberton gave a short talk on his actual experiences with the Mohammedan people, which was very interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Maraka was assisted by Mrs. Walker in serving dainty refreshments.

Baby Clinic Held Thursday Dec. 16

Dr. S. D. Inskip will conduct the usual monthly Baby Clinic to be held at the Civic Club house on Winburn Way, Thursday, December sixteenth.

All mothers with children of pre-school age are urged to bring their little ones. Please register with Miss Blanche Hicks at the public library.

Dr. Inskip of San Francisco, California, is the new head of the Jackson County Health Unit having been selected by the State Board of Health to succeed Dr. V. S. Geary, who has been head of this Unit since March, 1925, and who recently resigned to accept a three year fellowship at the Mayo Foundation Clinic at Rochester, Minn.

Cantata Thursday

The Emmanuel Cantata will be given in the auditorium of the Southern Oregon State Normal school, Thursday evening, December 16.

This entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Leona Marsters, music instructor at the Normal.

Host and Hostess At Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Randies were the host and hostess at a delightful party given at their pleasant home in the Bellview district, Saturday evening, December eleventh.

The evening was happily spent in conversation and playing cards, until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those who enjoyed this sincere hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randies and children, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Randies and son, Bobby, Mrs. Lulu VanWegen and Mr. Melvin Beagle.

Entertains East Noble Grand's Club

The Past Noble Grand's Club of Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 14, were most delightfully entertained by Mrs. George Trefren at the pleasant home of her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Specht, Friday afternoon, December tenth.

A very happy afternoon was spent in social conversation and the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Guy Randies, served unusually attractive and delicious refreshments.

There was a good attendance, everyone expressing their appreciation of this jolly afternoon.

Attendant Daughter's of the Nile Meeting

The Daughter's of the Nile met in Medford Saturday afternoon, December eleventh. The members enjoyed a luncheon at the Hotel Medford at twelve-thirty, after which they conducted their regular business session in the new Masonic hall, which is very beautiful. Plans for a ceremonial, which will be given on January twenty-fifth, were discussed. Those attending from Ashland were Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. T. P. Franco, Mrs. Clyde Malone and Miss Juanita Tarr.

G. A. R. Elects Officers

The local organization of the G. A. R., elected officers at their regular session of meeting on Saturday, December eleventh.

The meeting was held at the Armory, and the following officers were elected: Commander, G. O. VanNatta; senior vice commander, E. H. Coder; junior vice commander, M. Shaw; chaplain, D. L. Glenn; adjutant, W. A. Patrick; quartermaster, G. W. Benedict and officer of the day, G. W. Noble.

Normal School Faculty Have Christmas Party

The faculty of the Southern Oregon State Normal school had a jolly Christmas party in the Lithia Springs Hotel ballroom, Saturday evening, December 11. The evening was happily spent in conversation, playing cards and dancing. The main feature was a huge, brightly decorated Christmas tree, J. A. Churchill, president of the Normal, acting as Santa Claus. The faculty quartette gave several delightful numbers, which were greatly enjoyed by all those present.

IT'S ALWAYS CREAMY

Snowy-white Snow-drift looks very creamy. And it is just as creamy as it looks. It's made that way especially because a creamy shortening is most convenient to work with. Whether it's been standing in the warm kitchen or in the refrigerator, Snowdrift is always just right for quick and easy mixing.
