

VINING

Finishing Tonight
The Great Gatsby

Tomorrow Only

SOUVENIR NIGHTS

He crossed lines in the dark and crossed swords at dawn—famous in the spotlight—dangerous in the moonlight—Napoleon of love—but he campaigned once too often.

ALSO "SNOWED IN" AND A COMEDY

Bellview Visitors—
Mrs. Raugh Clapp and daughters of the Bellview district were in this city this morning, shopping and visiting with friends.

Give her an Easy for Christmas. See window at Wicks.

You Can Buy All GIFTS HERE

At our store you can choose all the gifts you need, for the home and for the person—

Cards, Stickers, Etc.

We have a complete line of fancy wrapping paper, and tissue, cards, stickers, tags and Christmas Greeting Cards.

Perfume Sets

Powder and Perfume Sets in beautiful boxes, priced from $2.50 to $7.50

Suggestions

- Bath Powders ..... 50c to $3.50
- Bath Salts ..... 50c to $3.50
- Kidney ..... $1.00 to $5.00
- Clacks ..... $1.50 to $4.50
- Coin and Bill Purse, $1.00 to $1.50
- Compacts ..... 50c to $2.50
- Correspondence Cards, 50c to $1.00
- Fountain Pens, $1.00 to $7.00
- Kidney ..... $5.00 to $20.00
- Safety Razors, 25c to $10.00
- Shaving Brushes, 25c to $2.50
- Shampoo ..... 50c to $2.50
- Thermal Bottles ..... $1 to $4
- Twinkle Stoppers, $5.00 to $5.00

McNair Brothers
970-972 Recall Lane

THE RAIL SPLITTER

(Published by the pupils of Lincoln public school)

A GLAD SURPRISE

One time there was a little boy who lived all alone with an old woman. His father and mother were dead.

He did not have any relatives except an aunt.

He would never have any Christmas except when his aunt would come to see him but she came to see him every year.

One day the old woman got a letter that his aunt was not coming because she was sick.

When the little boy heard this he was very unhappy.

When the night before Christmas came he did not think much about it. He went to bed when bed time came. The next morning when he got up his aunt was there and she had a lot of presents for him.

Thelma Yoder 6 B

CHRISTMAS EVE

One fine Christmas Eve Santa Claus was sailing through the air when he saw a house down below him.

He said, "I'm going to go down to this house, because I saw the children working hard and they were very good to help their mother to get ready for Christmas."

So Santa Claus got down on the ground and the bells rang but the children did not pay any attention. When they heard Santa Claus coming down the chimney they hung up their stockings and went to sleep. Santa Claus got down the chimney and saw four little stockings hanging in a row.

"Now," said Santa Claus, "I will just give them what ever they want."

So Santa Claus filled their stockings from top to toe to make them happy. In a few minutes Santa Claus went up the chimney and got into his sled and sailed away through the air.

When morning came the children got up and they saw their stockings filled with toys and candy. They danced with joy and after that Santa came to their house every Christmas.

Mildred Urban 6 B

A HOLIDAY AMUSEMENT

On holidays or week-ends children get very restless and tiresome. One amusement that will draw their attention is dressing up milk bottles. You can make heads for them, then dress them up as children and fat men and ladies.

Rachel Forsythe 6 B

A DIFFERENT CHRISTMAS

Carl was an only child. He lived on Broadway, his father being a wealthy contractor and his mother a leader in society.

Donald, on the other hand, was the oldest child in a family of eight. He, too, lived on Broadway, but it was in the slums, for his father was a drunkard and his mother was dead.

Seven days before Christmas, Carl was down town buying Christmas presents, he had ten dollars. After he had selected the presents he was about to hail a taxi, when he heard someone crying behind him, he whirled around to see a boy of ten, who, with tear stained cheeks, was looking into a combination restaurant and toy store. "What is the matter?" Carl asked kindly. "I want some dore things an sumpun to eat," replied Donald, for this was Donald, pointing into the store.

No one saw that little scene but me and why Carl returned home with empty pockets although he had spent but four dollars for presents, except, perhaps, you and me.

Rachel Forsythe 6 B

JUNE'S CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

"Twas but a few nights before Christmas when Mr. and Mrs. Johnson with their little daughter June were sitting before the December blaze. The little girl sat thinking. Before long she asked,

"Oh, mama, what do I get for Christmas." Her mother was silent awhile, then she said, "What do you want dear." The child thought awhile. Then she said, "If Santa Claus would only bring me that big doll I saw in the window, a buggy, also a few other things, a little cart or a wheel barrow," she stopped short a minute, then, "Oh, mama, if Santa Claus could only get me that big car that's all I would want." That Christmas when June woke up she said, "Oh mama Santa must have hidden and heard me say what I wanted."

Alice Arant 6 B

THE BOY THAT NEVER GOT WHAT HE WANTED

There was a boy who wished very much for Christmas to come. So the day before Christmas he wrote a letter to Santa Claus.

But when Santa Claus saw what that boy wanted he said, "Too much for him. He does not mind his mother at all, I know what I'll give him. I'll give him something he wout want."

So when Santa went to that boys house that boy was sorry that he didn't mind his mother. What do you think he got? He never got anything at all.

Neila A. Putman

A CHRISTMAS LESSON

It was the night before Christmas.

John was to be in a Christmas play.

He said to his mother, "Mother I'm no going to go. I don't care about being in the play. Any way I'm afraid Santa Claus will come before I get back and I won't get to see him."

"Santa knows when you are watching for him. I have waited for him and he didn't come so they didn't get a thing in their stockings. They didn't get to see Santa either," said his mother.

"I will go and be in the play then," said John and away he went.

Marx Belle Beawick 6 A

A HAPPY DAY AFTER ALL

Betty Green was sitting by the big bay window looking out on the snow thinking what she could do. Rob her brother, had gone skating with the other boys. Her mother was busy making mince pies.

Betty was thinking what a gloomy day it was, when she heard her mother singing. How happy she seemed.

"I don't see how any one can be happy today she said impatiently."

The front door slammed, father came in. "Betty," he said, "I wonder what the little white children will have for Christmas. They are so poor."

"Ho! father," she cried, "I shall go right up stairs and get some toys, and Rob's old Santa Claus suit and play Santa Claus tonight."

Margaret Hurst 6 A

THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

The boys and girls of the Lincoln school are going to have ten days for their Christmas Holidays. Which will begin on Thursday December, 23, 1936 and end on January 3, 1937.

Malcolm Meyer

A CHRISTMAS STORY

The children were out side playing. They happened to think what they wanted for Christmas.

Joe said, "I want a train, a bicycle and a stocking full of candy."

Jane said, "I want a big doll, a buggy and a stocking full of candy."

It was getting dark so they had to go to bed, for old Santa Claus was coming that night. They were so happy.

They said they would keep up the fireplace about twelve o'clock and see if Santa was coming. But when the time came they were sound asleep and didn't see Santa at all.

When morning came their Mother called them. They got up and saw what nice toys they had. They were full of joy.

Harvie Gooding 6 B

POCKET KNIVES

25c

to $3.50

Simpson's Hardware

"The Winchester Store"

A DELICIOUS LUNCH FOR BUSY SHOPPERS

Come in tomorrow noon for a tasty toasted sandwich, a cup of rich, creamy hot chocolate and a light desert.

Either before or after lunch you will find many delightful gifts in our toiletry section.

Lithia Springs Pharmacy

SANTA'S PACK

The children had gone to bed all in hopes that Santa would come.

Now Santa and his reindeer generally come down the chimney, but as this was a very small chimney Santa left his reindeer outside and went down with just his pack on his back.

When he was nearly down he saw that there was a fire and so Santa had to wait for the fire to go out. Santa's pack got stuck in the chimney and he couldn't get it out. The children did not get anything. So I am going to tell you to put out the fire before you go to bed.

Cathryn Doyle 5 A

A CHRISTMAS STORY

Once upon a time there was a little girl who did not help her mother at all. It wasn't far from Christmas.

This girl thought that she would write a letter to Santa Claus.

So she wrote her letter to Santa Claus and told him what she wanted for Christmas. She hung her stocking up that night, and went to bed.

When she got up the next morning the room was holding on the tree of in her stocking. So after that she was kind and helpful to her mother.

Eva Landing

A HAPPY DAY AFTER ALL

Betty Green was sitting by the big bay window looking out on the snow thinking what she could do. Rob her brother, had gone skating with the other boys. Her mother was busy making mince pies.

Betty was thinking what a gloomy day it was, when she heard her mother singing. How happy she seemed.

"I don't see how any one can be happy today she said impatiently."

The front door slammed, father came in. "Betty," he said, "I wonder what the little white children will have for Christmas. They are so poor."

"Ho! father," she cried, "I shall go right up stairs and get some toys, and Rob's old Santa Claus suit and play Santa Claus tonight."

Margaret Hurst 6 A

THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

The boys and girls of the Lincoln school are going to have ten days for their Christmas Holidays. Which will begin on Thursday December, 23, 1936 and end on January 3, 1937.

Malcolm Meyer

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The pupils of the Intermediate Department of the Lincoln school are having a program in the upper hall. We will have a Christmas tree.

Merle Wells 6 B

CHRISTMAS TREES

Each room of the Lincoln school is having a Christmas tree. There will be a Christmas tree in the lower hall. The pupils like them very much and are bringing decorations for them. Everyone is very happy about it, and the trees look very beautiful in the rooms.

Harry Hoise

THE STUDEBAKER DRILLS

The Studebaker drills are arithmetic drills running up as high as fifty. Each week we will publish the names of the four leading pupils of the intermediate grades. For this week they are as follows:

4 A, Annie Isabell, number 24; 5 B, Russel Jordan, number 23; 5 A, Mildred Urban, number 23; 6 A-B, Rudolph Peterson, number 23.

6 A Class

HOW I THINK THE BOY'S AND GIRL AID SOCIETY BEGAN

A few years ago there were two children that had no mother nor father. Some days they had nothing to eat. One day they met a man, and asked him for something to eat. He asked them where they lived. "We have no home," they added. The man took them to his home and fed them. He told them to stay there until he came back. When he came home he brought some people with him. They decided to have a Boy's and Girl's Aid Society. They kept the Aid Society and I hope it will continue. The children of the Lincoln school are bringing clothing, money, fruit and vegetables for the Society.

Katherine Foster 6 A

THE STUDEBAKER DRILLS

The Studebaker drills are arithmetic drills running up as high as fifty. Each week we will publish the names of the four leading pupils of the intermediate grades. For this week they are as follows:

4 A, Annie Isabell, number 24; 5 B, Russel Jordan, number 23; 5 A, Mildred Urban, number 23; 6 A-B, Rudolph Peterson, number 23.

6 A Class

HOW I THINK THE BOY'S AND GIRL AID SOCIETY BEGAN

A few years ago there were two children that had no mother nor father. Some days they had nothing to eat. One day they met a man, and asked him for something to eat. He asked them where they lived. "We have no home," they added. The man took them to his home and fed them. He told them to stay there until he came back. When he came home he brought some people with him. They decided to have a Boy's and Girl's Aid Society. They kept the Aid Society and I hope it will continue. The children of the Lincoln school are bringing clothing, money, fruit and vegetables for the Society.

Katherine Foster 6 A

Saturday Specials

Pure Kettle rendered lard
No. 10 pails ..... $2.15
No. 5 pails ..... $1.10

Place your order now for turkeys, poultry, geese and rabbits.

Barrett's Market

Enders Block
Phone 57

SALE

Oh Men's Dress Shirts

ARMY GOODS STORE

Biggest Little Store in Town
Opposite New Hotel - Open Evenings

THESE WILL PLEASE HIM

Real House Slippers for Christmas

$2.75 Per Pair

OVERLAND SHOE SHOP

"A PENNY SAVED—"

The thrift habit, once acquired, is easy to maintain. Once you begin the habit of saving regularly you will never want to stop. You will find real satisfaction in seeing your savings account grow week after week and month after month.

A saving account—modest though it may be—will be a splendid Christmas gift for the children.

The Citizens Bank

Ashland, Oregon

He told them to stay there until he came back. When he came home he brought some people with him. They decided to have a Boy's and Girl's Aid Society. They kept the Aid Society and I hope it will continue. The children of the Lincoln school are bringing clothing, money, fruit and vegetables for the Society.

Katherine Foster 6 A

OPEN EVENINGS

Beginning Tonight

MILLER'S TOGGERY

"Hab-a-dash Inn"

EXTRAORDINARY XMAS BARGAINS

Basket Ball

Ashland Armory

SATURDAY NIGHT

O. A. C. VARSITY
vs.
SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL

Good Preliminary
Normal Rocks vs. Battery B

FIRST GAME STARTS 8 P. M.
Big Game Starts 9:15

Admission 50c Students 25c

(Come See Coach Hagles' Team Surprise the Aggies)

SPLITDORF

Radio Reception for the Cultured Ear

EST. 1858

We've looked for months

—to find a radio receiver that we could honestly feel would meet the requirements of our most critical customers. We found it in the Splitdorf—a receiver that gives all the volume one could wish for, one that is selective, sensitive and fine for distance, too. Above all, a receiver that, in our opinion, is the finest toned set we ever heard.

You should hear this receiver. Your ear will tell you whether we are right or not.

The receiver shown is the SPLITDORF model RV-695, a six-tube, two control set with super-power switch. Price $100. The speaker shown is the Splitdorf cone, price, $27.50. Other Splitdorf receivers range in price from $65 to $125.

Convenient time payments, if desired.

LEEDOM'S