VALLEY VIEW NOTES

Mrs. Beahart

The usual meeting of the Valley View Community Club was held at the school house Thursday afternoon. Following the short business session Mrs. Stella Morse, who again had charge of the program, took the chair.

As our club now is visiting Ireland, Scotland and Wales, the roll call was answered by members telling anecdotes on the Scotch, Welch and Irish or giving quotations from writers from these countries. The following papers were very interesting and instructive: Wales, Mrs. Wm. Glenn; The Scotch Highlands, Mrs. R. N. Chaney; The Lowland, Mrs. D. H. Jackson; Southern Ireland, Mrs. L. H. Gallatin; and Northern Ireland, Mrs. Stella Morse.

In keeping with the rest of the program, Mrs. Jas. Lennox sang "Killarney" and "Mamie McNair" and Mabel Reacht sang "Annie Laurie" and "Comin' Through The Rye."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Farmer and Mrs. L. H. Gallatin.

Last Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe served seven o'clock dinner to twenty-four of the Medford football boys, their coach, Mr. Callison and the principle, Mr. Conklin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe left Wednesday for Long Beach, Cal., to remain over the holidays with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Andersen.

NORMAL TEAM BEATS AGGIES

whipping a basketball team into shape. But 14 players responded to his call, some of whom had never before even touched a basketball. But with this start, the athletic mentor never gave up. Night after night he has worked with his charges and shown improvement. And thus it was that the Southern Oregon normal, with only 35 young men students, was able to humble the powerful Aggie five from a school where several hundred young men are available for all athletic teams.

Aggies Start Fast

Of the game itself, the story can be told briefly. The Aggies forged to the front at the outset and maintained a slight lead throughout the game until the final 45 seconds. At the end of the first half the Aggies were leading, 20 to 12.

Local partisans were congratulating themselves during the intermission to think that the normal could hold the Aggies to such a close score. And everybody was simply hoping that they could keep the score as close during the final half.
