

HARBOR AT CRESCENT CITY TO BE HELPED

Senate Votes Favorably on Amendment That Provides Funds

The senate late last night passed an amendment providing for the improvement of the harbor at Crescent City, according to a telegram received this morning by J. H. Fuller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, from United States Senator Charles L. McNary.

son with an outlet for the many resources that abound in this section, and many local people have expressed the opinion that freight rates along the coast will be considerably reduced.

The telegram received was as follows: "Late last evening the senate passed our amendment providing for the improvement of Crescent City Harbor which we all believe will prove an outlet to the great resources of southwest Oregon."

Third Pioneer Club Organized

A third Pioneer club was organized in Ashland when the following boys met with H. L. Moore, their leader: Paul Aldis, Kenneth Stratton, Harry Hoxey, Robert Herndon, Clyde Malone and Wilbur Durham. This club will meet again on Friday evening, December 31st, in the Congressional chapel at 7:15, at which time officers will be elected and a club name chosen. This club is sponsored by the Congregational church under the supervision of the local Y. M. C. A. Last night's meeting was given over to a few items of business, games and story telling. The boys are real enthusiastic over the future of their club. "There are two other Pioneer clubs being organized, and as soon as they get under way, a
