Accompanying the bill was a senate report of July 30, 1864, yellow and worn, but still readable, enumerating Salomon's donations to Robert Morris, superintendent of finance of the revolutionary government. Not only did Salomon make loans to the government which were never repaid, the report rereals, but in his private charities

he supported men in public life who could not have continued except for the gifts from this Jewish patriot. Listed in the aged report as living upon the donations of Salomon are such historical characters as Thomas Jefferson, James Madison and James Monroe the third, fourth and fifth presidents of the United States, and Lee, Steuben and St. Clair, famous soldiers of the revolution.

RACHEL FORSYTHE WINS $5.00 CASH PRIZE GIVEN BY

MILLER'S TOGGERY

430 Terrace Street, Ashland, Oregon, December 17, 1926.

Dear Santa Claus:

First, Santa, don't fill your pack in Iceland, for you can get everything for men and boys you want at Miller's Toggery. Such as gloves, all kinds of sweaters, suits, socks, shirts, shoes, handkerchiefs, pajamas, overcoats, rain coats, bath robes and everything else in clothing, dear to a man's heart.

I have a brother, Santa, who wants a sweater, such as was never seen in Iceland, and I will describe it to you so you won't mistake it.

It is blue with a rich design of golden yellow, red, tan, silver, purple, brown with a pretty reddish brown stripe or two on the cuffs, neck and waist bands.

So, Santa, if you want to get a good bargain, just Hab-a-dash-Inn to Miller's Toggery, for there, Santa, is the only place that quality, as well as right prices, are found.

Rachel Forsythe.
