CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, Dec. 23.—The first of a series of the Delphians will meet at the following places: Mrs. Briscoe's group at Mrs. Charles Haines; Mrs. Pratt's group at Dr. Mattie Shaw's; and Mrs. Galey's group at Mrs. Carl Nims.

January 4.—College Club luncheon at Hotel Holland, Medford, Ore.

Christmas Eve Compliments

One of the lovely affairs of recent date was the dinner party given on Monday evening by Mrs. J. A. Harvey at her home on North Broadway, in honor of her niece, Miss Bernice Yeo, who, on Christmas eve, at her home in Ashland, Ore., is to become the bride of Dr. George E. Stannard, a promising young dentist of Los Angeles.

The table was gay with tall red candles and bright poinsettias and lovely brides marked the places for the guests who were Miss Yeo's associates on the staff at Franklin school.

After dinner when they returned to the living room, Miss Yeo was called to the door where a messenger, none other than her cousin, Donald Harvey, in disguise, had her gift for a package, which upon being opened disclosed practical gifts from her co-workers, an electric toaster and an etched glass compote.

Mrs. Harvey then distributed tea towels upon which each displayed her originality in hemming. Later, Miss Yeo delighted her friends by showing the contents of her beautiful "honey chest" and the lovely things of her trousseau.

Miss Yeo will be greatly missed by her associates of Franklin school where she has endeared herself to all during the year and a half of her teaching there. Being an accomplished pianist, she has taken prominent place in the activities of the school.—Santa Ana Register.

Birthday Party Given

A delightful birthday dinner party was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings in Jacksonville.

Covers were laid for twelve. The occasion was to celebrate two birthdays, those of Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Paul Jennings. After dinner the guests spent a happy time playing games and enjoying music, until a late hour when they departed wishing the honored guests many happy returns of the day.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Danford, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy of Ashland, the Misses Olga Anderson, Clara Coleman, Bernice Polley, Mervyn Terry Talent, Louis Jennings, Paul Jennings and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings.

Entertained at Dinner

Miss Gladys Applegate delightfully entertained a group of her friends with a delicious goose dinner, Sunday, December twenty-sixth, at her home on Granite street.

The guests were Mrs. Charles Howard of Medford, Miss Georgie Coffee and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Applegate.

Hostess at Christmas Dinner

Miss Calla Biegel was the hostess at a delightful Christmas dinner at her pleasant home on Merion street, Saturday at five o'clock.

The rooms and table were most beautifully decorated with Christmas trimmings. Those who enjoyed this happy affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock, Helene Biede, Gertrude Biede, Georgie Coffee, Ethel Shrum, Milton Biegel, Elmer Biegel, Calla Biegel and Mrs. C. E. Biegel.

Entertain Camp Fire Girls

Miss Nora Ward and Miss Ethel Reid were hostesses at the latter's home, to the Gaiety Camp Fire Girls, Saturday afternoon, December twenty-fifth, from two until four o'clock.

Pretty holiday decorations gave a festive air to the occasion. The earlier part of the afternoon was spent in a discussion of future activities of Camp Fire in Ashland. An interesting musical program and a humorous reading followed, after which the girls enjoyed a series of games.

At the close of the delightful afternoon, the hostesses served home-made candy, pop-corn balls and apples. An interesting surprise feature in keeping with the Christmas spirit, was greatly enjoyed.

Sixteen of the twenty members who belong to Camp Gaiety were present at this happy affair.

Santa Arrives in Ashland

Last Friday afternoon Santa arrived at the home of Mrs. Goodman. He greeted the boys and girls and made merry with them, until he distributed gifts and candy canes to all those present. He then asked Billy Vasilant to recite a Christmas piece, which he did.

After a short visit and many jolly laughs, he again departed for his home in the Northland.

Entertained at Christmas Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and Miss Clara Will delightfully entertained the following at a delicious Christmas dinner, Saturday December 25: Mr. George Harkins of Washington and Mr. Dan C. Payne of Ashland.

Entertained at Dinner

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hopper at 71 scenic Drive was the scene of a delightful dinner party, when they entertained several friends with a delicious Christmas dinner.

The rooms were artistically decorated with autumn leaves and colors. Those who received this hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Santa and son, Harry, Miss Eunice Hager and Howard Handley, who is in this city to spend the holidays with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hopper.

CAN'T GET RID OF RAILROAD AS GIFT

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 22. — (UN) — If anybody wants a railroad, with a $50,000 present for taking it, please apply to the Colorado and Southern railway here. Nobody seems to want it, even as a gift.

The railway wished to discontinue service on its narrow gauge branch to Idaho Springs. Idaho Springs citizens protest. Officials of the railway take the stand that it is more blessed to give than to receive. But, they point out, the road does not make money, a bus line serves the community adequately and to prove the utter worthlessness of the line nobody will even take it as a gift.

Today a hearing was being held, attended by railway men and citizens of the community served by the road.

F. L. Patrick, Idaho Springs mining man, asked if it was true that the company would give the branch to any one who would take it, and give the taker $50,000.

"Will you take it?" asked John Rice, attorney for the road. "I believe I could make it pay," Patrick answered.

"Will you take it?" again queried Rice.

Patrick hesitated. "Give me 10 days and I think I would," he said.

GIRL AUCTIONED OFF

SAINT ETIENNE, France, Dec. 22. — (UN) — An auctioneer of human labor did a brisk business today.

A 14-year-old shepherd girl was "rented out" for the season for $50, plus her bed and board, and two dresses.

Bidding was particularly lively when farm hands were put up to be "let".

Some of these brought as high as $240.

BELLVIEW NOTES

Mrs. W. G. Tucker
Phone 2714

The many friends of Edwin Dunn are delighted to know that he is much better and is considered as getting on nicely along the road to recovery. He is suffering from pneumonia.

The Christmas entertainment staged by the younger generation of the Bellview district, Thursday afternoon, December 25, was a decided success. The teachers, Mrs. David McKlainer and Mrs. Wallace Reeder, were in charge, assisted by Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Moore.

The basket supper held at the Nell creek school by the patrons of that school on Thursday night the 23, was a decided success considering the size of the crowd. The plan of the Nell Creek people is to purchase a piano for their new school house and this first sum realized, which amounts to something more than $29, will be saved for that purpose.

Another entertainment will be given in the near future for the same purpose and should be well patronized from this end of the community. Watch for the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown were in from Chillicothe, for Christmas with the C. A. Brown family of Bellview, the parents of Earl.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gottsche are in Eugene this week attending to business affairs.

Mrs. C. I. Homes and son, Henry, and Miss Louise Homes of Wood, Cal., together with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKenzie and their children of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Homes, also of Medford, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homes in Grants Pass.

The residents of Bellview were shocked to hear of the attempted suicide of Roscoe Bratton in Grants Pass on Christmas day. Mr. Bratton and family were residents of Bellview for some weeks and Mrs. Bratton had joined our Community Club. The chances for Mr. Bratton's recovery are very slight.

That Baby You've Longed For

Mrs. Burton Advises Women on Motherhood and Companionship

"For several years I was denied the blessing of motherhood," writes Mrs. Margaret Burton of Kansas City. "I was terribly nervous and subject to periods of terrible suffering and melancholia. Now I am the proud mother of a beautiful little daughter and true companion and inspiration to my husband. I believe hundreds of other women would like to know the secret of my happiness, and I will gladly reveal it to any married woman who will write me." Mrs. Burton offers her advice entirely without charge. She has nothing to sell. Letters should be addressed to Mrs. Margaret Burton, 2857 Massachusetts, Kansas City Mo. Correspondence will be strictly confidential.

Football Rules To Be Changed

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. — The tinkering mechanics, sounding in the lobbies of hotels and university clubs as coaches, officials and athletic directors gather in New York for the annual onslaught upon the rules and regulations governing the game of football.

Practically the entire week will be devoted to a discussion of intercollegiate and inter-mural athletics, with the gridiron game coming in for the lion's share of attention. And although it is less than a year since the rules of football were approved by the governing bodies of the game, the players must go on the operations table once more for a few radical changes in its make-up.

The first will result in a sear and advantageous market for Cuba's principal product. Losses that have occurred in the past through inexperience will be avoided.

The great highway will offer untold benefits to agriculture, industry and commerce.

These accomplishments fill with faith in the future of the country, at this rapid approach of the new year. Cuba will now, with more reasons than ever before, hold a position in the international family as a gallant example of what love of progress and self confidence can do.

Love and confidence today happily animates all the inhabitants.

CUBA IS PROSPEROUS SAYS ITS PRESIDENT

Setting of Internal Strife Does Much to Help Out

Cuba is prosperous, so the president says. The new year will find me well satisfied.

Cuba's destinies were confided in me in 1925. While my country is small in territory, it makes itself great through its own efforts. It will go forward, displaying its activities and energies vigorously and on a level with those of the other civilized countries of the world.

Two important facts of its internal life aid at this time in demonstrating Cuba's promise of wealth and welfare. Of first importance is the restriction placed on the sugar crop. The second is the beginning of work on the great central highway.

The first will result in a sear and advantageous market for Cuba's principal product. Losses that have occurred in the past through inexperience will be avoided.

The great highway will offer untold benefits to agriculture, industry and commerce.

SHOOT TALES BY CHOCOLATE-FUL MOTHERS

An Indiana mother tells this: "We find nothing to compare with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs and colds. My little lad had trouble with his bronchial tubes from his third year, but since we started giving him Foley's Honey and Tar we have been able to control it. We know there is nothing to compare with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." The very name tells a story. Good also for cramp (spasmodic) and troublesome night coughs. Ask for it. Sold everywhere. — No. 2.
