Judge Lindsey is For Free Speech

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(UN)—Judge Ben B. Lindsey, famous juvenile judge of Denver, has thrown down the gauntlet for a free speech fight in Tennessee, the state in which he was "born and mostly raised."

In a letter to the Knoxville News-Sentinel, Judge Lindsey declared that he will tell his convictions on social problems to Tennessee people, despite efforts of ministers and others to stop him.

Before Judge Lindsey's liberal views on marriage became known, the Optimist club of Knoxville invited him to come here in April to make an address for the benefit of its fund to support public playgrounds.

The Baptist Ministers' Association adopted resolutions calling on the Optimist club to cancel his engagement. So far, the Optimists have not withdrawn the invitation. Action of the Baptist ministers roused Judge Lindsey's ire.

"If anybody wants me to speak in Knoxville, I would like to see anybody stop me," Judge Lindsey wrote. "I believe that this is a free country and as a native of Tennessee, I am prepared to fight the only kind of a battle worth fighting, to prove that Tennessee is still a part of the Union that Andrew Jackson was one of the first to preserve."

Prince of Wales Is Best Dancer

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(UN)—There is no competition in his own family for the dancing honors won by the Prince of Wales, won on board the Beringaria in London ballrooms and the Riviera.

A London society girl having heard the opinions of Wales dancing partners from New York, St. Louis and the Riviera, has danced with all the sons of King George, with Princes Henry and George well up in the list of titled dancers.

She says Wales maintains his supremacy by means of the Charleston.

Prince Henry is in naturally graceful and goes through the steps in a lively fashion. The duke of York depends on his pretty duchess to put the enthusiasm into their numbers. And Prince George, while good enough on the dance floor, has been away in China too long to keep up with the newest steps.

The royal heir is better able to uphold his reputation as a dancer, than he was on his visits to the palatial Long Island estates and perhaps a discreet night club or two in Manhattan.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply apply it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also promotes that lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for years to flush changed kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and bladder clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.
