Berean Class of Baptist Church Meets At Morehouse Home

The Berean Class of the Baptist church was delightfully entertained at the attractive home of Miss Clarabell Morehouse on Third $300. Will give terms. Brown street, Thursday afternoon, January sixth. There were twenty ladies present.

Mrs. S. A. Peters, Sr., president of the class, presided in her usual capable manner at the interesting business session. Several import apt mafters concerning the organ-

The teacher of the class. Mr. O. F. Carson, expressed her thanks in a well chosen speech for the beautiful plant which was as part payment. What have the Berean members. This levely 108-2 gift was given to Mrs. Carson to express in a small way their genuine appreciation of her interest and hard work in their class.

Miss Morehouse had charge of the social program, which consisted of unusually clever and unique games. A game representing the holiday in each month was carried out, such as a Hallon a place where the moths can ween game for October, a Valentine game for February, a New

VERY one was glad when the new section of the road was built. All realized that personal visits could be made more easily, that trade would be brisker, that matters of general public interest would be carried on with more efficiency and dispatch.

The telephone road, that already enables every one to travel so easily, so cheaply and so far, is constantly being lengthened. Each year over 800,000 telephones are added to the Bell System. Every subscriber shares in the increased value given to telephone service by this extension which hourly is enlarging the scope of every one's activities by permitting an ever broadening interchange of ideas.

Trinity Guild Elects Officers The Trinity Guild of the Trinity Episcopal church held their regular business meeting in the Parish House, Thursday afternoon January sixth.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. G. H. Hedburg, president; Mrs. W. L. Maxey, vicepresident; Msr Walter Everton, secretary; Mrs. C. W. Hanson,

After the business session was over the members spent a pleasant time in conversation. Mrs. Tuesday, Jan. 11.—Alpha Club P. K. Hammond and Mrs. W. L. Maxey served delicious refresh-

School Dances in Winter Garden

Great Success-The school dances which are given in the Winter Garden, every Friday night by the Loveland-Provost-Tillotson orchestra, have proved to be a great success.

These dances start at eight o'clock and end at eleven, giving the young people three hours of dancing.

The parents of the young folks are cordially invited by the orchestra to attend these dances, free of charge.

Elk's Will Have Program Tonight-

The local Elks will have a good rogram at their regular meeting n the Elk's Temple this evening. Lewis Ulrick, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler from Medord, will be present at this meetng, and there will be initiation of new members.

It is especially desired that all members be present, and a good time is promised.
