Size of Chaplin

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17. (UN)—Just how much the Charlie Chaplin fortune amounts to was still a matter of conjecture.

Pinness of Alfred Reeve, the famous film comedian's general manager prevented opening of the great safe at the Chaplin studio by attorneys representing Chaplin's girl wife, Leta Gray Chaplin, in her suit for divorce.

Reeve was reported to be in the studio in compliance with a court order by which Mrs. Chaplin's counsel hoped to check the vault contents. The film clown's manager was said to be the only person in the city possessing the combination to the strong box.

While Mrs. Chaplin's legal aides were temporarily halted in their quest for an inventory of the Chaplin holdings, variously estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, rumors were current in Hollywood that the search would avail the estranged wife nothing. There were reports that all valuable documents had been removed from the vaults. All papers of importance have been taken from the safe, it was said, and prints of the finished portion of Chaplin's latest picture, "The Circus," valued at approximately $1,000,000, also were taken away a few days ago, according to a friend of the screen buffoon.

At the Lighthouse Hotel—Alden Dalbrath of Klamath Falls, George R. Pauly of Minneapolis and E. A. Rully of San Diego, Cal., are among those who stopped in Ashland yesterday. They registered at the Lighthouse Hotel.

Registered Cars Here—H. T. Davis of San Francisco, Cal., Martin Holmanson of Vancouver, Wash., and Carl Harris of Sacramento, Cal., are among the tourists who registered their cars at the local Chamber of Commerce this morning.

ENJOYS SESSION

The Tidings is in receipt of a letter from State Representative William W. Hooper in which he states "It is my belief that no attempt to refund of the bonds of irrigation districts be refinanced them will be made at this session. The Governor practically indicated in his message that he would veto any proposals along that line."

Mr. Hooper is living at the W. M. C. A. and suggests that anyone writing any of the Jackson county representatives, would address their letters to the State House.

He further says, "I believe that I will enjoy the session hugely and hope to be able to be of service to my county and to my state."
